VISITS FROM NEW MEXICO

Mrs. Levi Hughes of Santa Fe, New Mexico, arrived this morning to be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Whiteman. Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Whiteman are sisters.

SPENDING WEEK HERE

Mrs. T. C. Mangold and daughter, Miss Margaret Mangold, are enjoying a week here with Pendleton friends. Mr. Mangold spent the week-end at their ranch at Butter Creek and returned with Mrs. Mangold.

CHURCH SOCIETIES TO MEET

Members of the Parish Aid, the Ladies' Auxiliary and the Sanctuary Chapter of the Church of the Redeemer are to gather tomorrow afternoon in Parish hall. The meeting is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

AFFILIATE WITH SORORITY

Friends of Miss Helen Idleman of Pendleton and Miss Arta Littlejohn of Athena, will be interested to learn that they have been pledged to the Gamma Phi Beta sorority at Eugene where they have just entered the University of Oregon.

WILL HEAR ORCHESTRA

Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. McDonald, Mrs. N. V. Van Pelten, Mrs. Cecil Cossner and Carl Franzen were members of a motor party which went today to Walla Walla to hear the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra which plays there tonight. The concert master, Guy Herbert Woodard, is a friend and former instructor of Mr. McDonald, he having studied with the renowned musician in Chicago.

DEGREE OF HONOR TO MEET

Degree of Honor members are anticipating a meeting tomorrow in Union hall which is set for 2:30 o'clock. The session is on the regular calendar but it will be marked by features of unusual interest. Mrs. Lulu D. Crandall of The Dalles, state president of the Degree of Honor, is to pay her official visit to the lodge and annual roll call is also scheduled. A short social session and tea hour will follow the business hour.

JOLLY NEIGHBORS MEET

Mrs. Lowell L. Rogers and Mrs. Wesley N. Matlock entertained the Jolly Neighbors in a delightful way today when they were luncheon hostesses at the Elks Club, the party adjourning later to the home of Mrs. Rogers for a few informal hours at cards.

INSPIRATION CLUB TO MEET

The Inspiration Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Poregar, 723 Ann street, and all members are invited to share her hospitality.

WILL ENJOY VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tullis, Sr., departed today for Portland where they are to be guests at the home of their son, Frank Tullis, going later to Everett, Washington, to visit Mr. Tullis' sister. They will also stop in Seattle and Tacoma and expect to be away a fortnight or so.

DEPARTS FOR IDAHO

Mrs. Luther Goldman, nee Edna Coutts, departed yesterday for her home in Boise, Idaho, after a month's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Coutts.

Miss Ila Sturdivant, who is teaching this year at Stanfield, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Goldman at the Coutts home.

BRIDE-TO-BE IS FETED

Tomorrow is the wedding day of Miss Jane Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murphy, and Roy K. Temple, and in anticipation of the event the attractive bride-elect is being showered with pre-nuptial festivities.

Mrs. Wilson D. McNary asked a group of young matrons and maids to her delightful suburban home yesterday for Miss Murphy's pleasure and other guests who were greeted were Mrs. Edwin S. Isaacs and Miss Ruth Isaacs of Walla Walla, who are being welcomed for a visit at the McNary home. Nearly thirty friends shared the event and the early afternoon spent with needlework, was followed by a tea hour. Lovely autumn garden flowers graced the rooms and centered a dainty table where Mrs. E. J. Murphy and Mrs. Al Slusher were asked to preside.

Today Miss Murphy was again complimented, Mrs. John M. Dolph and Miss Vera Temple having bidden a group of friends to luncheon at the Elks club. Guests were asked for 1:30 o'clock and covers were laid for eight.

New York Count Oysters

You are aware that "ECONOMY IS THE ROAD TO WEALTH," as we have no doubt your household is conducted on the basis of what you consider the most economic. It is well to remember, however, that a low price for Oysters does not always spell E-C-O-N-O-M-Y. There are other vastly important items—those on which we have built our reputation of the past fifteen years—QUALITY AND SERVICE.

Our first shipment of New York Count Oysters will arrive about Friday of this week, direct from New York and will continue until the end of the oyster season. Place your orders early.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Store Honors Departing Head

The Peoples Warehouse was closed for 45 minutes yesterday afternoon while all of its 43 employees went to the train to bid bon voyage to Leon Cohen, president of the firm, who has retired from active business to go east for his health. The employees gathered about Mr. Cohen at the station and cheered him on his way, the store reopening after No. 18 had left.

Chairwoman Is Named

Mrs. Walter Jones of 315 Market street, was last evening appointed as democratic chairwoman for Umatilla county. Mrs. Rose Scheffell, state committeewoman. The appointment was made at the suggestion of County Chairman C. F. Strain, Mrs. S. A. Newberry is secretary of the woman's organization and will be assisted by Miss Barbara Hope. An informal but enthusiastic meeting for Mrs. Scheffell was held in the club room of the county library last evening.

Court Bailiff Operated Upon

George Simpson, one of the circuit court bailiffs, now engaged in the trial of the Taylor murderers, was rushed to St. Anthony's hospital this morning to be operated upon for appendicitis. Although he had not recovered from the anesthetic at press time, the operation was reported a success. Mr. Simpson complained last night of feeling ill and his condition was so much more aggravated this morning that jurors and his fellow bailiff, S. P. Hutchinson, at the court house, had him taken to the hospital.

Leave on Long Eastern Trip

Dr. and Mrs. Guy L. Boyden departed this afternoon on the Northern Pacific for an extended trip east which will include visits to several important centers where Dr. Boyden will study. The trip will be both a professional trip for Dr. Boyden and a pleasure trip for both himself and Mrs. Boyden. They will go over the Northern Pacific as far as St. Paul and thence to Montreal to attend the National Medical Congress meeting this month. They will then visit New York City where Dr. Boyden will specialize in the study of cancer. On the trip west they will stop in Chicago for further work and at Rochester, Minn., where Dr. Boyden was once an intern at the Mayo Brothers hospital. They plan to be gone about a month.
