NAMES OF MEN WHOSE LOSSES ON 1919 GAMES WERE HIGH OBTAINED

New York District Attorney Says Attell and Rothstein Are in on Plot; Former Boxer's Counsel Denies His Guilt

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(A. P.)—District Attorney Swann announced last night he had obtained the names of two New York men who lost $75,000 in bets which they were persuaded to place on the Chicago Americans in the 1919 world's series by another New Yorker, who the district attorney declared was the ring leader in "fixing" games. One lost $55,500 and the other $19,500, it was said.

"Two men who lost money and lost heavily are known to me and I can't persuade them to come here and tell the grand jury about it," District Attorney Swann said. Both say they were persuaded by this "master mind" to place bets and that they lost and he won. But they both tell me they know nothing about the games being fixed."

Mr. Swann declared he had been unable to get any witnesses for the grand jury investigation, although he is seeking Abe Attell and two others. He said he had received no word from Arnold Rothstein.

"I have direct information that Rothstein always bet on the Cincinnati team and always won," the district attorney asserted, "and that all bets on the Chicago team were at his suggestion."

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(U. P.)—William Fallon, attorney for Abe Attell, denied today that the former featherweight boxing champion had any part in fixing the 1919 world series. According to Fallon, Attell met Bill Burns, former major league pitcher when Abe was allyship under the influence of liquor. He said Burns told Abe he had made a proposition to Arnold Rothstein, New York sporting man, to fix the series and that Rothstein had abused him over the telephone.

Then, Fallon said, Burns asked Attell to use his influence with Rothstein and Abe had the same experience, Rothstein bawling him out for making such a proposition. Fallon said this ended Attell's connection with the alleged plot.
