EXECUTION OF 10 WILL MARK NEW HANGING RECORD

Chicago Will Start on Punishment of Murderers Tomorrow When Two Will Die as Each Trap is Sprung.
EXPENSE OF DEATH TRAP DOUBLED BY HIGH COSTS
Gloom Settles Over Jail on Eve of Tragic Event When One Black and Nine White Men Will Pay With Lives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—(U. P.)—Ten men, sentenced to die on the gallows, beginning tomorrow, are to pay the penalty for slaying their fellowmen. Convicted of murder, the men were to be executed in two batches, according to plans of Jailer George F. Lee. The first batch was scheduled to die on the gallows in the county jail here tomorrow. The others are to be executed Thursday.

Never in the history of Chicago have there been so many men hung at one time. Lee declares that if the program is carried out, a new hanging record will be established in Chicago, noted for its murders.
Two more men, Joseph Castagno and Samuel Ferraris, sentenced to hang, were granted writ of superseas by the supreme court yesterday.

All the men, with the exception of one are white. The exception is John Henry Reese, a negro. The alleged victims of the condemned men were men with a single exception.
Men Will Die by Two
Lee plans to take the men to their death tray two at a time. Both will be stood on the tray platform and if to weak to stand will be placed in chairs and shot through space. Lee or one of his assistants will stand at the back of the gallows and pull the string which releases the trap and shoots the men to their death. Arrangements are made for dropping them 20 feet.
Aves of the convicted men range from those of 19 to 21. The youngest is Thomas Errio, 19. He was convicted with four others of slaying several men. Errio and the other four were alleged to have been members of what was known as the "Apache Band."

Has Twice Been Saved
Hanschell is the only man accused of killing a woman. He was convicted of slaying his wife, but has steadfastly maintained his innocence. The rope which was to have ended his life has been ready twice but last minute reprieves saved him.
The death watch was to be placed over the condemned men this afternoon. Three guards were assigned to each death chamber and the prisoners were informed they could have a choice of foods and as many cigars and cigarettes as they cared to smoke. Clergymen have spent considerable time with several of the prisoners.

VISITORS WHO HEARD STORIES OF PRISONERS ARE SUMMONED IN CRUELTY CHARGE PROBE

Two women who allege that extreme cruelty was practiced in getting confessions of guilt from the five men recently convicted for the murder of Sheriff T. J. Taylor occupied most of the morning testifying before the grand jury today. They were Mrs. Heck and Mrs. Roberts, both of this city.
The investigation of charges that there was a third degree and torture in the interrogation of the five men on the night of their capture and return to jail was taken up this morning upon recommendation to the jury by Judge G. W. Phelps yesterday afternoon. The local persons who have made the charges were first to be called.
Visitors Hear Stories
While the greater portion of the morning was taken up with the testimony of the two women, this afternoon's session was expected to bring out further allegations from two others who have worked with them. On the benches outside the grand jury room this afternoon Mrs. Mallory and Mrs. M. O'Connell were awaiting their call before the seven who returned indictments against the five prisoners.

HARDING ATTACKED FARMERS IN SENATE ON MANY OCCASIONS

Presidential Candidate Repeatedly on Record With Abuse of Producer; Big Corporations Were Defended.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(Washington Bureau of the Journal.)—Senator Harding's record in opposition to the farm loan bill and his predilection for wheat prompt a closer inquiry as to what he has done for the farmer when measures affecting particularly the welfare of the farmer were before the senate.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(U. P.)—The senate on Oct. 12, 1917, opposing the revenue bill in 1917. Opposing the revenue bill in 1917, he asserted, it placed $236,000,000 of "uncalled for and class tax upon the corporations," he contrasted the abused corporations with the farmers, saying:
"I venture to say that if the corporations of this country were holding their food products for advanced prices, as does the American farmer, there would be an outcry from one end of this country to the other."

Here's What He Said.
In the debate on the farm loan bill he exclaimed:
"I say there is no more need for a measure of this kind than for the agriculturists of the state of Ohio than for the government to step in and take charge of all our industrial and productive affairs in that state."
In the final vote on the farm loan bill Harding was not within reach of the call bell, apparently, for he is not recorded as voting. Earlier in the day he had been present and had voted to cripple the farm loan system by striking out the provision for exempting farm loan bonds from taxation. An amendment was offered to

LENINE REGIME TOTTERS UNDER NEW ONSLAUGHT

Anti-Soviet Demonstrations in Factories Alarm Authorities and Troops Combat Barricaded Workmen in Streets.
TROOPS ENTER PETROGRAD ARMED WITH NAVAL GUNS
Invading Forces Have Shaken Bolshevik Prestige in South and Polish Peace Demands Great Concession.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 12.—(U. P.)—Soviet troops are attacking barricaded workmen in Moscow's streets, according to unofficial dispatches today. A Helsingfors dispatch said authorities are alarmed by anti-soviet demonstrations in factories and are concentrating troops there.
The Stockholm dispatch follows others of similar nature, indicating serious unrest in Russia under the bolshevik regime and earlier dispatches which soviet troops quelled. A band of soldiers is reported to have entered Petrograd with naval guns, urging the workers to join them. Other troubles of the Lenin regime included startling success of the Poles which ended with the signing of an armistice agreement and yielding of much territory. In the south General Wrangel and Ukrainian forces have made advances so great as to indicate serious demoralization of soviet forces. Dispatches from other countries have indicated loss of bolshevik prestige.

CHINESE OFFICIALS HEAR THAT PEKING RULE HAS BEEN OVERTHROWN BY MONARCHIST COUP

SHANGHAI, Oct. 12.—(A. P.)—General Tso-ih, governor of Feng Tein, has overthrown the Peking government and proclaimed a monarchy, according to an unauthenticated rumor here. No details are given and Chinese officials are profoundly stirred. It is supposed here the reported coup is an effort to restore to the throne former Emperor Puan-Tang.
In connection with the lack of authenticity of the Shanghai rumor the fact may be noted that a message from the Associated Press correspondent in Peking dated the name as the Shanghai cablegram contained no hint of the overturn.

The most important reason, however, why he and the democratic party should be supported is that he and his party stand four-square on the League of Nations, and that he has a strong plank to stand on and a united party to drive through his program.
