Folsoms Depart for California
 Harry and Gilman Folsom, brothers of Ralph Folsom and Mrs. J. V. Tallman, of Pendleton, left in their car yesterday on their return to Beaumont, Cal. They drove here before Round-Up and have spent the past month visiting with their relatives. They have farms near Beaumont and are in the oil belt, boring now going on within a mile of their ranch.

Hunters Find Snow But No Deer
 It was snowing yesterday morning on Sheep Creek and as far down as Lehman Springs, according to H. E. Bickers, who returned last night with the Bones and Fred Raymond, from a deer hunt in the mountains beyond Ukiah. There were about two inches of snow on the ground and a storm was raging in the Sheep Creek country. The party found deer tracks but got no deer.

Old Faithful Asks for Papers
 Each year since the Round-Up has opened, L. F. Foster has sent to the East Oregonian for copies of the Round-Up souvenir editions. He resides in Boston now but is planning to close up his business there and come west some of these days and see a Round-Up as Pendleton put it on. Mr. Foster perfected the spinning rope now used by ropers at exhibitions. He has a complete scrap book of the performances of these men and the finals of the Round-Up form no small part of this book.

Mrs. Madison Ill
 Mrs. M. H. Madison is seriously ill with pneumonia. She has been sick for several days.

Child Is Convalescing
 Little Janet Sims, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sims, is convalescing after a severe illness.

Many Calls For Nurse
 The local Red Cross office is receiving many calls from local people for a nurse. Last year the Red Cross employed a nurse as a demonstration in the hope that the county would employ a county health nurse this year.

Schools Observe Day
 Local schools observed Columbus Day yesterday by relating stories of Columbus. The life and achievements of Columbus were discussed in classes.

Funeral Tomorrow
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Anna L. Hemmelgarn will be held tomorrow at 9 a. m. from St. Mary's Catholic church. Father Van Hommission will officiate.

W. H. Goodman Speaks
 A talk on the credit system was given by W. H. Goodman, of Sturgis & Storie, at the Rotary Club luncheon today. The luncheon was for the first time held in the Commercial Association quarters in the Edin Club. Thirty two members were present and James Sturgis, president, presided.

Disposes of Auto Business
 Folsom Tallman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Tallman, of this city, has disposed of his automobile business at Forest Grove, Ore., and is considering offers to continue with that work in Portland. He entered business in the Washington county town early in the summer and had a successful season. The present condition of the trade in that section caused him and his partner to retire until business outlooks are more favorable.

Club Membership Is 760
 The Walla Walla branch of the Tri State Auto Club has a membership of 760, the annual report of Secretary W. S. Parke, made to the club Monday night, showed. Trustees elected were: J. E. Moseley, Walla Walla; J. E. Schmidt, Prewater; I. S. Crocker, Ben Hill and H. Dahlen, Walla Walla; Frank Jones, Watsburg; E. W. Trembuth, Kennewick; Charles Shoemaker, Pasco; H. H. Hanson, Touchet; Eugene Cox, Lewiston; D. A. Nichols, Dayton and W. J. Mehaffey, of Walla Walla.

Map Being Prepared
 A map of the highway which is proposed from Umatilla along the Columbia river to the Washington state line near Wallula, together with objections to its construction, is being prepared today by Secretary C. K. Cranston, of the Pendleton Commercial Association. The data will be sent to the Union County Ad Club and to the Baker Commercial Club, both of which organizations are expected to enter a remonstrance to such a project until road needs in this section are looked after.

Indians Give to Memorial
 Three dollars, given by four Indians on the Umatilla reservation, was received at headquarters of the T. H. Taylor Memorial Association this morning. The money was sent in by Major E. L. Swartzlander, Indian agent. Willie Vocate and Johnson Chapman gave 50 cents each and August Alexander and Mitchell Lloyd gave $1 each. Mrs. Sara C. Cloutier and Stuart H. Elliott, employed at the agency, also gave 50 cents each. Two dollars each from Miss Eda Simpson and her mother, Mrs. George Simpson, also came to the headquarters today.

Milton Lodge Will Be Guest
 Milton Lodge of Masons will be guests of Pendleton Lodge No. 52, A. F. & M. A. M., at the session to be held here on Monday evening, Oct. 25. The Milton men will put on work in the Master Mason degree, as a return for the courtesy extended the local lodge men a few nights ago when they went to Milton and gave the work. Pilot Rock Masons will also be guests of Pendleton lodge that night and it is expected that the members of the state supreme court who are Masons also will be present, inasmuch as their session here opens on Oct. 25.

New the TWINS and TODDLES too, Glad in Lackawanna wear; Thanks to generous FITS-U, OLD MAN SATISFACTION meet.

SATISFACTION in children's underwear is a happy combination of various distinct, definite and essential qualities. In the absence of any one of these qualities satisfaction cannot exist.
 The fabric must be suitable—made of proper yarn, expertly constructed, pre-shrunk and sterilized. The garment must be designed to fit children as they are—not as they are surmised to be. The workmanship must be thorough, seams staunch, buttons and buttonholes scrupulously secure.
 Lackawanna possesses to an uncommon degree each distinct, definite and essential quality of "satisfaction" underwear.

Most shops carry Lackawanna Twins Underwear in various styles and in quantities to suit every requirement of service and price.

Funeral Is Held
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Stillings was held today from the Folsom chapel at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Stillings died recently at the State Hospital.

Hot Lunches Favored
 The Umatilla school favors hot lunches and will serve them to school children in the near future, says Mrs. Edith G. VanDeusen home demonstration agent who met with Umatilla women yesterday.

One New Smallpox Case
 There was one new smallpox case reported today to Special Health Officer John Halley, Jr., and the patient placed under quarantine. The number of cases is again on the increase, after having been brought down to a minimum during the summer.

Shannon Named Superintendent
 James Shannon today became superintendent of the Pasco division of the Northern Pacific railroad, succeeding W. C. Sloan, who has held that position since his return from the war. Mr. Sloan has been made superintendent of the Yellowstone division, with headquarters at Glendive, Montana. Mr. Shannon was superintendent of the Pasco division during Mr. Sloan's absence at war and he comes from Spokane.

Knights of Columbus Install
 Knights of Columbus observed Columbus Day yesterday by holding installation of officers for the local lodge to serve until 1921. The new officers are: V. Stroble, grand knight; O. H. Schulte, deputy grand knight; J. H. Cox, chancellor; William O'Rourke, secretary; J. E. Murphy, recorder; Joseph Light, treasurer; Henry Fluckner, warden; Neil J.
