

People Here and There

H. C. Copp, salesman for Carstens and Earle, of Seattle, is a Pendleton visitor today. He will leave this evening for Baker.

Leroy F. Armand, of Portland, salesman for the Oregon Rubber Co., is in Pendleton on one of his regular business calls and will be here until Saturday.

Professor W. R. Davis, a member of the Whitman College faculty is here today and this afternoon addressed the Thursday Afternoon club. Professor Davis is head of the English department and has held the position for six years, having succeeded Professor Coleman.

A strong sentiment in Michigan for Cox and evidence that in Cleveland Harding sentiment is paramount are political observations brought home by Mrs. H. N. Graham, of this city, who has just returned from the middle west. The Holland Dutch in Michigan, whose native country was the home of the Hague tribunal, are for the League of Nations and are strongly supporting the democratic platform on that plank.

Banks frequently send wrinkled and soiled currency to a greenback laundry which the government maintains at its mint, but Pendleton has just had an example of what a local laundry can do for a greenback. A housewife recently obtained a $10 bill from her husband, so the story goes, and placed it in her apron pocket. On Monday the apron, bill and all, went to the laundry. When the bill was discovered, the housewife despaired. But a few days later when her laundry was returned, nestled safely in the same pocket, but showing effects of washing, ironing, etc., was the bill. A local bank gave her a fresh, crisp one for her wrinkled $10 bill.

It was hot and the ventilation was poor in the city jail last night and one inmate, who thought that way at least, proceeded to remedy the condition. He was just coming out from the effects of too much flavoring extract and he was uncomfortably warm. A faucet on the wall seemed to him to hold within the solution for the difficulty, so he turned it on, in hopes that pure, clean water would purify the jail and cool it off. Prisoners heard the running water and went to the jail to see from whence it came. They found the man wading around ankle deep in the liquid, brushing things with a wet broom. He was turning to removing the water when Chief of Police Roberts came on the scene and in order to keep from being lost in the flood was obliged last night to take his bedding and sleep on top of the cells. He finished clearing the decks this morning.

R. M. Dorothy of Milton, formerly county commissioner, is a Pendleton business visitor today.

H. T. Frazier and W. J. Warner of Hermiston are here today.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Four in Family Have Smallpox.
No new cases of smallpox were reported to Special Health Officer John Halley Jr. this morning but yesterday afternoon he was notified of a family in which four members had the disease. This is a record for one quarantine. Other patients in town are coming along well, the officer reports.

Store Interior Being Altered.
A permit was issued by the fire committee of the city council last night to the Nye-Ward Co., to alter the interior of their store, formerly the Lunap Clear Store. The work consists of moving the balcony to the rear of the building. The change will cost $299.

Walla Walla Also Host
While Pendleton is entertaining a party of Portland business men from the chamber of commerce on Friday, Oct. 22, Walla Walla is to entertain a similar excursion from the Seattle chamber of commerce next Thursday. The Seattle merchants are making a trade extension tour of Washington similar to that being promoted through this section by the Portland men.

Enlarges Dairy Herd
The largest dairy herd in Umatilla county is claimed by F. H. Myttinger, owner of the Perfection Dairy. Mr. Myttinger yesterday purchased 25 cows, principally Jerseys and Guernseys, from Charlie Crow. The Seattle herd now consists of 75 cows. Mr. Crow sold his herd so that he might have more time to devote to caring for his father, John Crow, who is in poor health.

Policeman Called to Testify.
No. 5 last night for Portland to testify in the United States court in a liquor case. He and Traffic Officer William Lyday found a sack of liquor in the rear seat of a Ford car on Garden street during the Hovine-Mp and liquor and car were confiscated by the government. The case is now being heard by the U. S. grand jury.

Liberty Bond Interest Due.
Interest on fourth liberty loan bonds falls due tomorrow, October 15, and local banks will cash the coupons. The coupon falling due tomorrow is the last one on the temporary bonds issued but permanent bonds in exchange will not be available before Feb. 1, 1921, the federal reserve bank has announced. The next interest will not be due until April 15, 1921, and permanent bonds are expected to have been issued before that time.

Meeting to Be Held
A meeting for the organization of a county Y. W. C. A. committee will be held at the library auditorium Friday at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Elsie Carmichael, national field secretary, will preside, and a county chairman will be chosen. At the meeting plans for a campaign for the raising of $2500 in the county for the Y. budget will be made. Although this is unorganized territory, the Y. asks for fun from the region. The amount named will distribute posters to advertise homecoming, which takes place November 13 on the U. of O. Campus. The football game this year is between Oregon and University of Washington.

Alumni Named Chairman
Alumni in various towns of Umatilla county are being named by the University of Oregon homecoming committee to supervise homecoming publicity in their districts. Glen Dudley has been chosen for Athens; Ernest Boylen, Echo; Lee Bartholomew, Sagarfield; Miss Elsie Parmavice, Bend; and Miss Mary Irvine, Umatilla. The alumni named will distribute posters to advertise homecoming, which takes place November 13 on the U. of O. Campus. The football game this year is between Oregon and University of Washington.

The Associated Charities will meet tonight at the city hall in the council room. The meeting is scheduled for 7 o'clock and plans for the winter's work will be discussed.

Will Give Dance
An invitation dance is to be given October 20 by the Woodmen of the World. The affair will be held at Eagle-Woodman hall and will be the opening event of a membership campaign. Fred Stroble is head of arrangements for the dance.

Mr. Strain Will Speak
The Parent Teacher Association of Washington school will meet tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the school house. C. P. Strain, county assessor, will explain the measures which come before the voters at the November election. A musical program will be a feature of the meeting, which will be followed by a social hour.

Miss O'Neill Injured
Miss Lola O'Neill is suffering from injuries sustained yesterday afternoon when the horse she was riding became frightened at some children and fell. Miss O'Neill was thrown against the pavement and was rendered unconscious. The accident happened on West Webb street. Passerby who saw the accident carried Miss O'Neill to a nearby house.

Umatilla Club Wins
The Umatilla Dairy Herd Record club won second, fourth and fifth places in the industrial club work judged at the recent state fair, according to word received today by Fred Bennion, county agriculture agent. Umatilla had the first 100 per cent club in the state this year.

President to Visit
C. H. Thompson, of Baker, worthy state president of the fraternal order of Eagles, will visit Pendleton Aerie No. 28 tomorrow night. Ten candidates are to be initiated and the initiation will be followed by a social hour, during which the serving of a bountiful China pheasant mulligan will be a feature. The meeting will mark the opening of a five months' membership campaign. The local lodge, conceded to be the strongest Eagle organization in Oregon, expects to add many new members to its enrollment.
