CLUB MEETING DELIGHTFUL

French marigolds and graceful nasturtiums combined their sheen of gold and copper with the yellow-toned hangings of the library club room yesterday when Mrs. Mary Disoway and Mrs. J. F. Robinson were hostesses for a meeting of the Current Literature Club. A crackling blaze cast its warm glow from the fire-place and added to the attractiveness of the scene.

A most interesting and delightful feature of the day was a discussion and explanation of state measures by Dr. Wilson D. McNary superintendent of the Eastern Oregon State hospital. The calendar program was also enjoyed. It included the following numbers devoted to American poetry: Modern American Poets and Poetry, Teasdale, Service, Amy Lowell, Giovanni, Oppenheim, Masters. Reading from "Arrows in the Gate" by Giovanni.

Peaceful Hour

The Thinker
Reading from "Rivers to the Sea" by Sara Teasdale
Winter Bluejay
Knough
Ofta

Reading from Amy Lowell.
The first number was given by Mrs. E. B. Aldrich, the second by Mrs. F. P. Tuohy and the third by Miss Ida Bord, and each was delightfully interesting.

During a much enjoyed tea hour which followed the program, Mrs. James Welch and Mrs. Minnie Stillman were asked to assist the hostesses.

T. P. W. DINNER HOST

The dining room of the Elks Club was the scene last evening of an interesting and most enjoyable event when employees of the Peoples Warehouse were entertained by the management at a 6:30 o'clock dinner. Covers were laid for nearly half a hundred at a table handsomely appointed with chrysanthemums and autumn foliage.

Reides the 45 employees of the store, Mrs. Earl, wife of Fred Earl, manager, and Stanley Sayre son of R. D. Sayre, general manager, were asked to enjoy the affair. Toasts were proposed and responded to, the theme of the evening "efficiency, cooperation and good fellowship" with talks by Mr. Sayre and Mr. Earl and heads of the various departments including Mrs. Thomas Targert, Mrs. Henderson, John Shawyer, John Dickson, Hugh Kirkpatrick, George Ferguson, Robin Fletcher, R. E. Morse and Ralph Hassel.

After the dinner hour the guests adjourned to the ball room and enjoyed an informal hour of dancing.

LUNCHEON HONORS SHARED

Mrs. Rudolph M. Crommelin extended a delightful bit of hospitality today when she entertained a group of maids for the pleasure of her sisters Miss Isabelle Ross and Miss Mary Ross. Her guests were asked to the Crommelin home in the Security Apartments at one o'clock and the charming table was centered by a cluster of pink rosebuds arranged in a wicker basket of the same delicate hue, while lovely nosegays marked the dozen places. Besides the honorees, Mrs. Crommelin's guests included Miss Mildred Rogers, Miss Geraldine Morrison, Miss Alberta McConkey, Miss Marjorie McConkey, Miss Mary Clarke, Miss Genevieve Philips, Miss Blanche Isaacs, Miss Ruth Minnie, Miss Helen Barnhart and Miss Nancy Dickson.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON ENJOYED

Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. Charles Greenlich, Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones, Mrs. W. N. Matlock and Mrs. Harold R. Barnett were hostesses for a beautifully appointed affair yesterday when they entertained with a one o'clock bridge luncheon, their guests being asked to the home of Mrs. Rogers on North Main street. Marigolds of deepest hue decked the spacious rooms and blended in brilliant effect with a motif of yellow which marked the luncheon. Guests sufficient to make up eleven tables started the event and the afternoon hours were devoted to cards, high score honors falling to Mrs. Willard Bond.

REPUBLICANS FOR STANFIELD HARDING NEEDS REPUBLICAN SENATE OREGON NEEDS PROTECTIVE TARIFF

As is generally known, the present Republican majority in the United States Senate is just one vote. Republican control of that body is, therefore, in jeopardy. It is the realization of this fact which is causing Oregon's Republicans to unite in support of the candidacy of the Republican nominee for United States Senator, Robert N. Stanfield. With a difference of only one in the present Senate, Republican voters have awakened to the fact that if they vote for George E. Chamberlain they may by that very act be turning the control of the Senate over to the Democrats. On the other hand, by electing Robert N. Stanfield it is possible that his single vote may give the Republicans control of the Senate, and thus put that body solidly back of Harding.

Oregon producers are fearful of the effect that the election of Cox and a Democratic Senate would have upon them. It is quite evident that under Democratic rule rival products of foreign origin would offer a serious menace to many Oregon products. If the American standard of living is to be maintained, Oregon farmers, livestock men, fruit growers, lumbermen and woolgrowers must receive a price for their products which will enable them to make a reasonable profit over and above the cost of production. They will be unable to obtain such reasonable profit or any profit at all, unless a Republican administration is elected to levy protective tariff duties just high enough to save our producers from the ruinous competition threatened by Canadian wheat and lumber, New Zealand butter, Australian wool, Argentine corn, European beet sugar, South American meat and hides and Manchurian beans and peas.

To hamper a Republican President with a Democratic Senate flies in the face of the well accepted principle that governmental management should be centered, so that the people can correctly place the responsibility for success or failure. The feeling among Oregon Republicans is, therefore, becoming quite general that Harding, if elected, is entitled to the support of a Republican Senate and that, therefore, Oregon should elect the Republican Senatorial nominee, Robert N. Stanfield, to help back up Harding. (Stanfield-for-Senator Republican Club)

TWO WAYS TO SAVE MONEY

It is a fallacy of human belief that Rubber Goods are expensive. Quite the contrary, Rubber Goods are economical. Here are two ways to save money in Rubber Goods:

First.—Buy "Weaver" or "Kantleek" Rubber Goods NOW, and get the best there is. Don't wait for the emergency in which you may have to take anything you can get. The "anything" of an emergency is usually of an inferior quality.

Second—Use properly and care for properly your "Weaver" and "Kantleek" Rubber Goods.

We sell these two makes of Rubber Goods on a two years guarantee.
