

People Here and There

Accompanied by guns and ammunition, S. L. Nichols, Bill McClintock and Dr. Downing, of Hermiston, were in Pendleton yesterday. They left today for Lehman Springs on a hunting expedition.

P. E. King, who with Mrs. King left recently to spend the winter at Long Beach, California, says in a letter to Pendleton friends that they made the trip in seven and a half short days, going by auto. The roads are good and chains were not needed, Mr. King reports.

Walter L. Toose Sr., of Salem, arrived here Monday noon on No. 17 from La Grande and went to Pilot Rock in the afternoon to deliver an address in behalf of the republican candidates for national and state offices. Mr. Toose is widely known throughout Oregon as one of the "old guard."

The past few days has seen two veterans leave the thinning ranks of the G. A. R. They are John E. Gurdane, whose death occurred Saturday, and J. A. Drake, who died yesterday. Both were wounded during the civil war and both were with Sherman in the famous march to the sea.

People do not always realize just how important Athena is to the success of the Pendleton Round-Up and the Walla Walla Frontier Days. Walla Walla, even, if ungrateful, for credit due Athena is sometimes given to Weston. P. S. Le Grow, cashier of the First National Bank of Athena, who is one of the biggest factors in the Walla Walla show, is listed there as being from Weston, but when he comes to Pendleton he gets recognition as an Athenian. Sheriff Jinks Taylor, who has always carried the flag in the Round-Up mounted parade, is also an Athenian and his part in the show is traditional. The banker was in Pendleton Monday and called upon the sheriff.

More alfalfa hay is being baled and exported from Stanfield this fall than usual because of the slow sale of hay to feeders. County Commissioner G. L. Dunning said today. Balers are buying large quantities of alfalfa in the stack and shipping by the carload to other markets. Feeders are not in the market for hay because of the abundance of grass on ranges. There are no peaches or peaches in the Stanfield region because of the severe winter of 1919, but the apple crop is very good and the quality of the fruit is high class. Picking and packing are now under full headway and all the apples brought to the warehouses are being sold and moved without delay. The price is good, Mr. Dunning says.

Con Shott and Fred Phillips are here today. They are stockmen from Rock Creek, Gilliam county.

Dr. J. U. Temple will return tomorrow from Lethbridge, Canada, where he spent the past 10 days looking after property interests.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely arrived home last night from Salem where he went recently with R. Simmons, sentenced to a prison term for larceny.

Mrs. Lena Snell Shurtz, county superintendent of schools in Morrow county, is expected to arrive on No. 2 this afternoon to be present for the teachers institute opening here tomorrow.

W. D. Bonifer and John Thompson, of Gibbon, were business visitors in Pendleton on Monday. Mr. Bonifer is one of the claimants for the reward for capturing Jack Rathie and Mr. Thompson also has a claim in. The latter has charge of roads in the Gibbon district.

A surprise shower of potatoes, rice, sugar, cabbage, coffee and other household staples was received last night by Rev. T. Anderson, pastor of the African Methodist church, and Mrs. Anderson, whose wedding was a recent event. The newlyweds showed their appreciation of the gifts by serving coffee, cake and candy. Those who participated in the surprise were Mrs. Gallard, Mr. and Mrs. E. Spencer, C. Wright, L. Dawson, Herbert Williams, E. M. C. Woods, L. Parker, John Overstreet and Alfonso Ward.

AFTER a baking fails— becomes tough or soggy, you can't make it tender and tempting. It can't be "fixed." It is like spilled milk— "wasted."

But, there is a way to prevent this waste—every woman should use it—because a bake day loss these days is a real loss.

Calumet Baking Powder positively prevents failure. It has been doing it for millions of housewives for a third of a century.

deeply friendly in France, expressing to me their understanding of sentiment in that friendly republic.

On Senate Committee.
"It is not important enough to discuss, perhaps, but I very respectfully urge that an informal expression to me is rather more than that to a private citizen. I hold a place as a member of the foreign relations committee of the United States senate which is charged with certain constitutional authority in dealing with foreign relations and I am necessarily conscious that I am the nominee of the republican party for president of our republic.

"In the combination of these two positions, it ought not to be unbecomingly that some very devoted friends of a new and better relationship among nations, no matter whence they came, should wish to advise me relating to aspirations to cooperate with our own republic in attaining that high purpose. Let me assure you again of the observance of all the proprieties and again assert that the French government has maintained that great respect for your position to which I myself subscribe.

"With great respect, I am,
"Very truly,
"Warren G. Harding."

LETTER CONVEYS

dorsed by fully 99 per cent of our population. The one reason why this community refrained from taking the law into its own hands when those men were captured was the feeling that the courts would adjudicate their cases in unflinching and unbiassing justice and that meant the extreme penalty for cold-blooded and brutal murder. Were any clemency shown these men and anything of the nature ever happen to this community again mob violence would prevail and nothing could prevent it. Every opportunity has been given those men to present their side of the case.—the presiding judge has been absolutely fair and impartial, the prosecution was conducted with dignity and courtesy, every possible contingency that these men were not getting a "square deal" has been avoided. These men having been convicted by a jury of their peers after every precaution against unfairness and partiality had been taken this community demands not as a matter of revenge but as a matter of even-headed justice that these men be executed in accordance with the law.

It was hard, as I know, for the trial judge to sentence them to death, it is undoubtedly hard for you not to exercise executive clemency, but if the supremacy of the law is to be maintained and justice is to prevail there is no other course to pursue but to put these men to death. Outside of a group whose numbers could be counted on the fingers of the two hands this is the feeling of the people not only of Pendleton but of this great Commonwealth of Oregon.

Don't forget to have on hand a case of that wonderfully sparkling and refreshing

WINE-O

An occasional bottle during these strenuous days, will do much toward relieving the fatigue and nervous strain of the industrious housewife.

A bottle of WINE-O at dinner, also, will soothe the irritability of father, when he comes home and finds the house topsy-turvy.

Besides, it is good for the kiddies.

Keep a case of Wine-O in the house all the time.
