REN A WOMAN IS NERVOUS -- WORKIED The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick.

It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells.

Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty.

tre today, "to hear some one spec of an actor or actress temperament. How abourd such a thing is. Why should a player have outbursts of temperament any more than a lawyer doctor, artist or any other professional? Why is it necessary for them to give vent to these exhibitions of the secentricity of genius any mure than it is for a cook or a chambermaid to have similar outbursts.

"To my mind temperament means emper-nothing more, and I would blush to have any one accuse me of being temperamental. Although you could not get them to admit it, tem-perament has been the ruination of many prominent stars in the theatrical world. I recall one case off hand of one of the most prominent donnas the musical comedy stage possessed a few years ago, who through this so called temperament lost her popularity with theatre goers to such an extent that she was finally forced to appear in a cabaret in order to obtain a livelihe cabaret in order to obtain a livetinood.

She lealized her mistake and finally re-established herself in the public's good straces and now-after wasting several years of her life, she is gradually regaining her popularity.

"As for me I am too buzy to give vent to temperament even if I had the desire. To me work is the surest preventative for this dread malady and

FIVE PLUNGED FROM CAR TO RIVER GRAVE

PORTLAND, Oct. 19 .- (U. Five men were plunged to death Sun-day night when an automobile in which they were driving pitched down a 40 foot embankment into the Sondy river east of Portland. Two occupants of the car, C. Concannon and H. C. Coup, escaped, being thrown out of the car. Concannon, however, had to the car. Concannon, however, had to swim to safety. All seven had been

The automobile left the pavement when the driver, Richard McIntoch, sudderly attempted to pass a machine stalled in a dense fog. No bodles have been recovered. It is believed they are pinne under the machine at the bottom of the river. Besides McIn-tash the drowned are W. McDonald.

THE tendency to constipation begins with girls as they approach maturity, and that is the very timethe mother should watch that the important function of daily elimination is regular and normal. Many thousands of mothers who have daughters will tell you they give only Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A tempoonful is sufficient to relieve constipation andits commoner symptoms such as beadache, bad breath hillousness, loss of appelits and restless sleep.

Strug Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics, and a sixty-cent bottle is enough for many months. Eight million bottles were bought at drug siores last year, the largest sale of the kind in the world. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been on the market thirty years and there must be geouine merit behind it to develop so large and steelind it to develop so large and steelind it.
