ST. MARY'S GRADUATES PINE FOR OLDEN DAYS

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 20.-(A. P.)
-Pride in the athletic history of St. Mary's College, Oakland, which recent ly was overwhelmed 127-0 at football by the University of California, prompted several younger graduates of the college to write the school authorities asking that the team be strengthened or withdrawn. A few days after the letter was received an-nouncement was made at St. Mary's that the team had disbanded on account of injuries to star players. "It will require a good many years to wipe out the stain and the shame of the score," the letter said. "One hundred and twenty seven to nothing is a record not easy to forget."

Three years ago St. Mary's defeated California at football 14.-13. Several years ago St. Mary's was represented in baseball by the Phoenix team, described by some as possibly the most famous baseball team that ever played for a college. Professional leagues later claimed several members of the Phoenix team, including Duffy Lewis, Harry Hooper, Harry Krause, Eddie Brady, Louis Guisto, Joe Oeschegar and others. Walter Mails, who helped pitch Cleveland to the 1929 world's championship, as one time was
