UPLAND GAME BIRDS CANNOT THRIVE WHILE CROWS ARE PROTECTED

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 20.—(U. P.)—"We shall never have upland game birds to any extent as long as the crows are protected by law," says J. H. Bowles, ornithologist and student of bird life, who is making a study of birds of prey.
 "The fish canneries had the crows protected because they eat up considerable fish refuse, but the crows also

GENERAL DENIAL MADE OF COAST SCANDALS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—(A. P.)—General denial of knowledge of alleged "crookedness in games played in the 1915 season in the Pacific Coast Baseball league was said to have been made by a number of witnesses who testified Monday before the Los Angeles county grand jury, which is conducting an inquiry into allegations of W. Baker ("Fabe") Horton, former Vernon first baseman. That he and other members of last year's Tigers formed a pool to "purchase" assistance for Vernon in winning the league championship.
 Horton was the first to be questioned by the jury. He was said to have repeated his previous assertions that he and other members of the 1915 Vernon club formed a pool of 12000 with which to bribe players of certain other teams to "throw" games to the advantage of the Tigers. Other witnesses included Walter McCredie, Manager of the Portland team; Del Baker and Art Koehler, Portland players; Hughie High, "Stubby" Edington, W. Mitchell, Tommy Long and "Wheeler" Dell, Vernon players; Lou Anger, motion picture producer, who was associated with Roscoe "Patty" Arbuckle, when the latter controlled the Vernon club during part of last season; and Miss Virginia Doerr of San Francisco.
 All of these, according to statements they were said to have made to newspapermen after leaving the grand jury room, denied knowledge of any "corruption" in Pacific Coast Baseball league circles.
 It was said subpoenas had been issued for a number of other witnesses to appear when the inquiry was resumed Wednesday. The new witnesses, it was stated, would include more players and several writers of Los Angeles newspapers.
 Considerable mystery surrounded the summoning here of Miss Doerr, who told newspapermen she lived at the Palace hotel, in San Francisco, and knew many of the ball players.
 "They've got me wrong," she declared.
 It was reported another young woman would be subpoenaed, but there was no official corroboration.

MAC SWINEY SHOWS SIGN OF CONTRACTING SCURVY

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(U. P.)—Although Lord Mayor MacSwiney was reported Tuesday to show signs of scurvy his condition is unchanged, said a Sinn Fein bulletin. His relatives would permit no action to prevent the threatened disease, however.

MEXICANS IN PUEBLA ARISE IN REBELLION
 VERA CRUZ, Oct. 20.—(U. P.)—Armed opposition to the Mexican government has arisen in the state of Puebla, where revolutionists have congregated in two towns, according to dispatches received here today. Three thousand rebels under the leadership of a former Carranza general are reported to have armed themselves, swearing to do everything possible to prevent General Obregon from assuming the presidency.
