PASTIME TODAY

Beautiful Edythe Sterling, starring in "The Girl Who Dared," a new photoplay of the Old West, will be the attraction at the Pastime theatre for two days beginning today.

As a girl sheriff, whose business is to round up cattle rustlers and Mexican cut-throats, Edythe Sterling portrays another role which displays her fascinatingly at a wonderful horsewoman and larist expert. The story has a unique plot, which concerns the machinations of an unscrupulous clique which has been playing a double game. As the newly-elected girl sheriff, Edythe Sterling succeeds by dint of tireless perseverance, in running them down.

There are several dramatic moments when the girl sheriff saves her father from a lynching at the hands of an infuriated mob and arrests him until charges against him can be disproved. In the end right asserts itself, and the truth is revealed. Then Romance takes a hand—or both of them.

Millions for a New Stomach

One of the greatest American millionaires said to his physician, "A million dollars, Doctor, spot cash and no grumbling, for a new stomach," and then the sick man groaned and turned away. All his wealth could not make him happy or contented, for happiness largely depends upon digestion. Without health where does happiness come in? After all the stomach plays a great part in everyday life. Without a healthy stomach and good digestion our blood is thin, watery and poor, our heart action is weak, our liver does not do its duty, and man is miserable and unhappy. Prevent disease by putting the house in order and strengthening the system against the germs of disease.

Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., years ago understood disease and their prevention, and he discovered certain roots and herbs which were nature's remedies, and succeeded in putting them up in a form that could be easily prepared at the drug store (liquid or tablets). This he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This Discovery gives no false stimulation because it contains no alcohol or any narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood. It gives to the blood the food elements the disease require. For over fifty years it has enjoyed the confidence of the American public. Try it now!

"Good Night Nurse"

were at Saranac Lake getting scenes for O'Brien's Selznick picture, "His Wife's Money," which shows at the Alta theatre today.

A cloudy day with snow in the air, which the camera man voted N. O. for picture-making, furnished the stage and director, Ralph Ince with the inspiration of shooting deer—instead of scenes.

When Zena Keefe and others in the company heard of the plan they organized a nice, polite revolt, and delivered an ultimatum. They would either go along with the party or there would be no party. Ralph Ince was for putting down the insurrection with a stern hand, but O'Brien threw the weight of his influence with the insurgents.

The result was that Miss Keefe shouldered a gun and the whole company set out through the woods. After hours of tramping O'Brien bagged the first deer. Both Miss Keefe and Ralph Ince shot a deer, and late in the afternoon the same three deer were "shot" again, this time by the cameras.

Scotch Solie Plays Important Part in "The Valley of Doubt"

"Jean," the Collie dog that plays such an important part in "The Valley of Doubt" which will be shown at the Arcade theatre beginning Thursday, comes of a distinguished family of actor canines. In fact "Jean" and his brother "Ring" are said to be the Barrymores of dogdom.

They first appeared on the screen as puppies in a basket in their mother's mouth. Both now play star dog parts.

In "The Valley of Doubt" the plot hinges a great deal upon the movements of "Jean." Were he not present upon certain occasions certain resulting incidents would not have occurred. But "Jean" is one of the most capable and reliable of his kind—he always manages to be present.

Some say that "Jean" is "on the job" so much because he worships the director Burton George, and likes to please him, but it is a safe bet that friendship or no friendship, "Jean" would always be on the spot when trouble was brewing—particularly when there's five interesting reels of trouble.

"The Valley of Doubt" is a Selznick Picture written by Willard Mack and produced under the personal supervision of Burton George, the director famed for picturizing the wonderful in scenic effects. It is primarily an outdoor picture, having for its background the snow-capped hills of the far Northwest and the border atmosphere so well known to fiction of the frontier days.

Thurston Hall and Arline Pretty are at the head of the unusually strong cast.
