lowed regular air services to Alaska would be inaugurated in the near future. He said that Alaskan settlements desired such service and that a movement was on foot to gain the coopera-tion of the Canadian government. The success of the expedition, he said. proved that regular service was prac-well, 6 roomed modern furnished bunblaces along the way game was plen-tiful and fresh meat was always avail-ble. The fliers sighted heros of rein-deer and caribou and often saw bear, mountain sheep and other game. A school of white whale and many seals were sighted in the tier or ca. From the air also they caw indicans take flight on approach of the planes. Captain Street said that the expedition failed to get as many pictures as desired because of poor visibility. It desired because of poor visibility. It was necessary to fly high in had weather, he said, to avoid hitting mountain peaks. A good portion of the journey was made at an attitude of 8000 feet. Hundreds of miles of the territory covered had not been mapped out and the only information available was from trappers. Pictures which were obtained will be turned over to the geographic survey in Washington. in Washington.
