

People Here and There.

The teachers institute, now in session here, is not alone an affair for women teachers, although in this day and age the majority are women. There are several men here from various parts of the county, these men in most instances holding the title of principal. Two of these principals probably would just as soon be having the three day vacation for a duck or deer hunt as for an institute, for they are often found pursuing game and birds when school does not interfere. The two school heads whom their townsmen all swear by and even call "reg'lar fellows," are J. O. Russell, of Pilot Rock, and Howard Drew, of Echo. Both are reporting a lot of benefit from the assemblies and discussions in the principals' division.

No more will J. J. Hamley doze when he gets into the pits which hunters dig for geese. It takes too many shots. Yesterday while on a hunt in the west end of the county Mr. Hamley was awakened out of a half slumber by a sudden dark shadow passing overhead. He looked up to see that the sun was obscured by a large bird or flock of birds. He grabbed for his gun and let fire. Four shots he fired and almost at his feet dropped a huge China goose. When the hunt was over and the 42 ducks and the goose had been placed in five piles, Mr. Hamley conducted a drawing of lots. There were five sticks on the sportsman who had placed his own trophy, the lone goose of the shoot. In one of the piles with ducks, drew the short stick and won back his bird. The other hunters in the party were Jim Estes, Fred Lampkin, Sol Baum and Fins Kirkpatrick.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Wheat—With the exception of some temporary strength at the outset, the market was weak and as the decline gained momentum, liquidation made its appearance on a large scale. Buying power was confined almost entirely to short covering, although from time to time there was some support credited to the east against export sales. The most important development of the day was the turn of weakness in the local cash market where prices declined from 12 cents to 15 cents and premiums on hard wheat were reduced to 4 cents over December against 10 cents premium yesterday. Advances from the country were again suggestive of a more liberal selling movement. The report that British railways will be strikebound Sunday was another item adding to the pessimism regarding world business conditions. The situation is a complex one with a strong statistical position on the side of those advocating higher prices and the possibility that the deflation period is with us against the market.

Vanity

"It makes a girl awfully sore when she flirts and gets no results."
—Painless Parker.
Girls are not the only ones who love to be admired. Men have the same failing. All of us are more or less vain. Good teeth are a wonderful aid to good looks. We admire the glistening ivories that show when the lips part in a smile.

Good teeth are the result of two things: Good care and good dentistry. There are over a million people whose teeth have been cared for by dentists using the E. R. Parker System. The most folks go where they get the most satisfaction.
