HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

School to Have Rally Tonight—This evening the high school will hold a rally at the school grounds to arouse interest in the game tomorrow afternoon with Hood River. Material has been secured for a large bonfire and during the fire talks will be given by the football men and afterward a serpentine on Main street will be staged. John Henry Simpson is in charge with John Henderson and Allen Folsom as assistants. The student body is doing all that they can to arouse interest in this game. It is against a team tutored by Pendleton's former coach, Earl E. Fleischmann and they are out a great deal of expense in bringing Hood River's team here. Although Pendleton's team is loser of two of its backfield they expect to give Hood River a good fight and the game promises to be one of the hardest fought of the year.

Teacher Improved—Fred E. Schmidt, instructor in algebra, is able to be about again after several weeks' absence due to typhoid fever. Miss Leta Jernard has been substituting for Mr. Schmidt. He was able to attend the morning session of the Morrow and Umatilla county institute.

THREE PHONES QUALITY

SIMPLICITY IN WILD ROSE FROCK

No petal gown among the Paris creations has been quite so attractive as this wild rose frock. And it is so simple. All of taffets save for some folds of creamy tulle inside the low-cut square neck. First, there is a straight, narrow underskirt of the taffeta, then a tulle cut in scallops that are finished with a narrow bias banding. The alternating ones are decorated with a large wild rose fashioned out of the taffeta, their edges embroidered with metal thread.

BRITISH COLUMBIA IS VOTED WET BY 15000

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Oct. 21.—(A. P.)—Government officials are considering how liquor shall be administered as a result of a 15,000 majority repudiating the prohibition law yesterday. It is believed liquor will be dispensed in government stores.

Wider Majority in Prospect.
VANCOUVER, Oct. 21.—(U. P.)—Indications are that British Columbia defeated the prohibition act in yesterday's referendum. The majority against the act is expected to reach 20,000. Women participated in the voting. The result will be a generous policy for sale of liquor in government shops but not over open bars.

No more doctors' prescriptions will be necessary for securing liquor. There will be no return of the bar but the country has gone wet in the sense that liquor in limited quantities hereafter will be always obtainable. Vancouver city decided for the change by a majority of 10,000. Out of 480 polls not more than a score voted dry. In the whole of Vancouver island, only one village refused to join the popular procession. One reason for the change of sentiment is the prevalence of scandals and poor administration of the dry law. Physicians have been issuing prescriptions at the rate of four thousand a month.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—(A. P.)—The decline in retail prices of food-stuffs in September averaged two per cent, the department of labor reported. Potatoes and sugar show the greatest decrease. Eggs, pork chops and oranges increased. The retail decline has not kept pace with that of the wholesale.
