

People Here and There

Dr. I. H. Temple, who returned yesterday from Lethbridge, Canada, reports the sale of his 320 acre wheat ranch in that region. The land, which he purchased in 1917, was sold to an Alberta pioneer. Livestock and farm equipment were sold also. Wheat crops in central Alberta were excellent this year but in southern Alberta, from Calgary south there were many failures and there has been no rain since July, according to Dr. Temple.

W. L. Thompson is acting as advance man for the Portland business men who will arrive here this evening. Mr. Thompson, who is vice-president of the First National Bank of Portland as well as president of the American National, has been touring with the Portlanders but decided to spend today in Pendleton while the other members of the party are in the east end of the county.

Geranium, a Chesapeake retriever owned by Brooks Dickson, is but nine months old and this is the first duck season, but nevertheless the canine has won the title of retriever par excellence.

Yesterdays Geranium accompanied his owner and L. C. Schriber on a duck hunt to the Barnhart region. Brooks and L. C. has just finished getting their mallard decoys in place when the young pup made a dash for the biggest decoy in the group, took it by the neck and in his eagerness became entangled with strings on the other decoys, triumphantly retrieving the entire group.

Stanley Sayre and Julius Jacobson, of Walla Walla, are in Pendleton today on business. Mr. Sayre operates the Franklin agency in the Washington city and Mr. Jacobson is one of his salesmen.

"One of the biggest corn crops in history," is the way Frank Curi describes the crop in Missouri, Iowa and Kansas. Mr. Curi returned this morning after spending eight days visiting the three states. Incidentally, Mr. Curi remarks that he thinks Missouri is going republican this year.

The death cell of Emmett Bancroft, alias Neil Hart, is to be visited by Captain Jennie Conrad, of the local post of the Salvation Army, who with her lieutenant leaves tomorrow night for Seattle. Captain Conrad interested Bancroft in religion while he was in the county jail and she will upon her return from Seattle, give spiritual advice to the slayer of Sheriff Til Taylor. The Salvation Army lassies go to Seattle to attend the welcome meeting which will be given for Colonel Clifford, who comes from New York to head S. A. work in the west.

Lieth Abbott is wearing a new blue sweater showing the official University of Oregon "O", and two stripes on the left sleeve. The meaning of all this is that Mr. Abbott has been awarded his letter sweater after two years on the U. of O. track team. He was elected captain of the track team for this year but did not re-enter college.

Lawyers from the Twin Cities of the east end of the county are in the city today on business. B. D. Peterson, Milton's city attorney and well known lawyer, is here to attend to probate business, while George H. Bishop, of Freewater, is attending court.

Those who danced were Elizabeth Simpson, Katherine Simpson, Doris Graham, Frances Isaacs, Dorothy Ross, Ellen Fisher, Beryl Harrah and Irene Swanson.

Elderly People Need This In Medicine Chest

To relieve chronic constipation, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin handy.

NEARLY all people as they advance in age suffer from chronic constipation. Many, however, are indifferent to the laxative they use, on the theory that "they are all alike." That is a great mistake.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for example, is a mild, gentle liquid laxative, and it does not lose its effect with repeated use. It so trains the bowel muscles that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

A sixty-cent bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last many months. The prescription was written thirty years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, a well-known family doctor, who is himself now in his 82nd year and can appreciate what chronic constipation must mean to elderly people; how it brings on headaches, colds, loss of appetite and sleep, heaviness and a general dull feeling.

Every home that has an elderly man or woman should be provided with a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought at drug stores last year. It is a truly wonderful constipation remedy.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Wheat—Large export sales proved the dominant factor in today's market and although bearish sentiment for a time had a depressing influence, when the market turned the response was rapid. Sales to Switzerland, Italy and Belgium yesterday and over night were estimated at 2,000,000 bushels. The bulk of cash sales were at lower prices, but premiums were a shade firmer at 6 cents to 6 1-2 cents over December for number one hard.

Advices as to country offerings were conflicting, some handlers in the south west reporting the largest purchases so far, while others and the majority claimed less pressure to sell since yesterday's decline. The conspicuous feature in the market is that when the pessimistic feeling, based on business conditions subsides, a quick advance in prices occurs. The urgency of the foreign demand contradicts the wisdom of taking an aggressive position on the short side at this time.

SEPARATE PEACE
Women Are Factors.
In those days neither Iowa, South Dakota nor Nebraska had woman suffrage and the first two states went republican in the national election. It was noted that in every instance where a woman marked a straw ballot she voted for Cox. With the majority of women voting for Cox and at least a third of the men taking the same stand while the laboring class and the farmers vote for their candidates, the democratic possibilities in the upper Missouri valley states are taking on a bright aspect.

In Harding county, S. D., a place that seldom has a democratic candidate on the ballot, a straw vote shows three times as many votes for Cox as for Harding. The reverse was true four years ago in the Hughes-Wilson campaign.

Women Back League.
One thing common in all other campaigns throughout the middle west is missing this year. When men meet in homes and public places they do not discuss politics. Half will tell you they are for the league, and the other half say they cannot understand it enough to pass judgment on it. On the other hand, practically every woman will declare herself for the league, some of them adding that they do not care to vote for a candidate who owns brewery stock.

A rock-ribbed republican lawyer the other day told an interviewer that he did not fully understand the league, but since the democrats originated it he would not vote for it. His wife is working for Cox.

Mrs. Wallace Larence of Eales, S. D., who is touring in the interest of the league stated in an address made in St. Paul recently that "the democratic party is the woman's party, because it emancipated her from shackles that denied political equality. The democratic party gave us a dry nation and saved many tears from the eyes of future mothers and wives, and now that same party wishes to emancipate you from the horrors of war. This address expresses the opinion of the majority of the women of this section.

Mr. Hattie Harl of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who is a candidate for congress from the Ninth district of Iowa and the only person in that district who has ever dared try for an office on other than the republican ticket, finds her support growing remarkably fast because of her attitude toward the League of Nations issue.

Club Girls Harding.
Refusal of Senator Harding to debate with Cox on the league resulted in the Cherry county (Neb.) Harding club to officially announce itself for Cox, stating that the club believed only a man who was afraid would refuse such an offer.

Railway news agents employed by the Van Noy Interstate company, operating in all directions from Sioux City, report that the reading traveling public is refusing in many instances to purchase papers opposed to the league. One news agent on a 500-mile run through the state of Iowa says he has discontinued the sale of republican dailies because of the dissatisfaction created by their opposition to the league.

A crowd of farmers recently burned Harding in effigy at a husking bee. The entire crowd is said to have been strictly republican in former years. The incident occurred at Winner, S. D.
