MOTORMAN NOT LOSING ANY TIME

"I don't think anyone ever suffered more from stomach trouble and bloating than I have. I had to lay off my run more than half the time and could get not help from prescriptions or medicine. One of my friends advised using May's Wonderful Remedy, which I found to be the greatest remedy ever put on the earth. I have not lost a day since taking it. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Druggists everywhere.

APPEAL HOLDING UP DRAINAGE DISMISSED

The legality of the Grande Ronde Irrigation District, withheld for nearly three years because of litigation, was definitely and finally upheld today when the supreme court of Oregon, in session here, dismissed the appeal pending against the district. The case was brought by certain dissatisfied land owners under the district and the district attorney of Union county, according to Colonel R. Eberhard, attorney for the district.

The district was organized to reclaim about 20,000 acres of land contiguous to the Grande Ronde river in Union county. Progress was held up pending settlement of the dispute. All morning the supreme court was busied with hearing arguments in the case of William Marks, respondent, vs. Twelfth Heron, appellants, from Crook county. This consisted of five cases argued as one and is expected to be the longest of the session. Yesterday seven cases were argued and submitted.

This afternoon the following cases were expected to come up: State of Oregon, appellant, vs. Price Gates, respondent; State of Oregon, respondent, vs. Frank Turbow, appellant; First National Bank of Elgin appellants vs. Summerville Lumber Co., et al. respondents; Edward O. Wilson, respondent, vs. North Powder Milling and Mercantile Co., appellants, all of Union county.

PETITION IS CARRIED TO EXECUTIVE OFFICE

SALEM, Oct. 26.—(U. P.)—Rev. W. H. Cox appeared before Governor Ocott today and made a lengthy appeal that the sentences of Hart, Owens and Rathie be commuted to life imprisonment.

Newspaper men entering the executive offices at the time of the conference were rebuffed by Rev. Mr. Cox who turned to Ocott and in emphatic terms remarked: "This interview with you, Governor, is strictly private, as I have already had too much publicity." It was said that the minister submitted to the governor a petition containing the names of several hundred eastern Oregon citizens asking executive clemency for the three prisoners.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Seniors Hold Meeting.—The senior class met last evening to set a time for their play. Tryouts will be held today and tomorrow. The committee to choose characters are, Miss Olive Roche, faculty advisor; Miss Laura Ross, coach, and Miss Oda St. Peter of the English department. Miss Ross discussed each part of the play separately so that each might get an idea of the part for which he wishes to try out. The class decided to paint their class numeral on the fire house this evening. There are more than 40 in the class and only 12 parts in the play so that competition for the parts will be close.

CALIFORNIA PROBABLE FOR COX; WASHINGTON MAY ALSO BE IN LINE

Californian Says Southern California Will Give Big Vote for League of Nations; Washington Split Helps Cox.

(BY WARD A. IRVINE)

The League of Nations issue will very likely carry California for Cox, George E. Brewster, California contractor, declared in Portland yesterday on his way home from a trip into Washington. The vote in Washington will be very close with the odds possibly favoring the progressive Ohio governor, Brewster added.

"Churches all over California are for Cox and a League of Nations," Brewster declared. "Moreover, the women all favor a League. I haven't talked to a woman that doesn't want to end war and they will all vote for Cox to that end. In northern California, where I live, there are a good many republicans who will vote for Harding because he carries the label, but the vote in Southern California will be two to one for the League. Down there republicans are ignoring party lines for the League of Nations. I think the vote will be close for the state, but I think the women will decide the question in favor of Cox and the League."

Close in Washington.
Mr. Brewster predicts a close vote in Washington, with Cox as his favorite. There, he says, the farm-labor party has so split the vote, that it offsets the regular republican majority, and he expects the farm-laborites to vote for Cox because of his record, and because of the knowledge that votes to Debs and Christensen are wasted. The women in Washington, Brewster says, as in California, will vote for the League, and their votes, along with the farm-laborites, would easily carry Cox through to a plurality.

Another point that Brewster stresses as favoring Cox in both states is the present good times. Many voters spoke to him, he declared, in focal vein of the "hard times" under democratic administrations.

"Were we ever in better shape than we are now?" Brewster says was a frequent question.

"You tell the boys Cox is going to win," Brewster flung as he left in search of voters. He has but $1000 in Cox, and was searching in Portland for more Harding money.

"The only trouble that I find is that they all talk about betting on Harding, but when it comes to punting up the cold cash, they don't want to bet half so bad. The last three I have met that talked best have backed down when I produced the money."
