HIGH SCHOOL TEAM PUT THROUGH MYSTERIES OF DEFENSIVE LAST NIGHT

First and Second Lines Work at Scrimmage While Coach Tells Young Hopefuls Wherein They Lack Zip and Go.

Defensive will be more apparent in the play of Pendleton high school's football team the next time the green and gold warriors trot out on the gridiron than in the Hood River game. Coach Dick Hanley started off the week yesterday afternoon by pitting first and second team lines in scrimmage and teaching the boys that zip and fight in the line are necessary adjuncts to a winning team.

The bright spots in Hanley's defensive are his two guards. Bill Kramer and Lee Temple stand their ground well and generally break through to do the work his tackles should be taking care of. Godecke and Rogers are big boys for high school tackles but lack the bruising tactics that characterize tackles of an all-star stamp.

Second Team Held First. The second team line last night frequently tore holes in the first team and piled up the huge hulks of Kennedy, Rogers and Godecke or "mucked in" Warner and Cahill, ends. Warner was less effective than his companion at the right wing and both looked better after they were drilled in their cut-in.

With the coach standing at his first line's backs, shouting directions at them, the boys looked better. Kennedy got down and piled things up for the second team, while Rogers and Godecke, stiff-armed their smaller opponents in the second line and showed signs of defensive strength. If the seven men in the first line were fighting mad and remembered their instructions, they would be unbeatable.

The youngsters have the stature and strength and are for their coach. Compared with what football they knew six weeks ago, they have developed wonderfully. By the end of this week Hanley expects to witness far better results in the showing of his line.

Dave Back in Lineup. Perry Davis, who was injured in the game against Touchet, is ready to run plays again and probably will work into the backfield again this week. He was playing at left half when injured but he may be given a turn at full-back, the coach intimated. He is a

CROSS COUNTRY RACE BEING MADE READY FOR

A dozen high school lads, clad in white trunks and jerseys, are working out every night back of the school for a cross country run soon to be held. The youngsters are taking a turn around the hill, getting wind for the distance run, that will probably be held in conjunction with one of the final football games of the season.

While Coach Hanley is at work drilling his football squad, the runners take their jaunt for about a half hour. There are several likely looking runners in the bunch and the race, which will be run chiefly through the city streets, is predicted to be a hot one.

FOUR CRIPPLES RETURN TO WASHINGTON LINEUP

SEATTLE, Oct. 25.—(A. P.)—For the first time since the start of the season, the University of Washington football eleven is up to its full strength according to Coach Leonard Allison. The return of Guy Norris and Glen Southwick to the backfield and Herman Miller and Captain Ted Faulk to the line puts the local eleven in a good position, campus depositors believe, to give Stanford the short end of the score when the two teams meet on University Field Nov. 6.

PROFESSOR HASKINS. WAS A kindly soul. BRIGHT ON some subjects. BUT SO absent minded. THAT ONE day at the barber's. HE TOOK off his collar. TO GET shaved. AND FORGOT where he was. AND KEPT right on. TILL THE cash-girl screamed. AND A barber stopped him. HE WAS a great smoker. BUT HE'D often put. THE BURNT match in his mouth. AND THROW away. THE CIGARETTE. HIS STUDENTS loved him. HE WAS a roll. OF FUNNY surprises.

ONE DAY he had a tube. OF RADIUM and he told. THE STUDENTS all about it. AND FINALLY, by mistake. INSTEAD OF the tube. HE PULLED out one. OF HIS cigarettes. AND ASKED the class. "WHAT IS the one thing. WHICH DISTINGUISHES. THIS MARVELOUS substance. FROM ALL others on earth?" AND THE class roared. "THEY SATISFY." WHAT is it you're always wanted a cigarette to do? You know the answer. Chesterfields do it—they not only please your taste, they satisfy! It's all in the blend—a secret blend of fine Turkish and Dominican tobaccos. It puts Chesterfields where none can touch them for quality and value.

HALF DOZEN GET QUIZ IN GAMBLING SCANDAL

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—(A. P.)—Six witnesses were heard Monday by the county grand jury investigating alleged corruption in Pacific Coast baseball league games in the year 1919 season. They were "Shine" Scott, colored trainer of the Vernon club; Art Fromms, Vernon pitcher; Pete Schneider, Vernon pitcher; Forbes Alcock, Vernon utility; Victor H. Levy, a Los Angeles merchant; and Matthew Gallagher, baseball writer on a Los Angeles newspaper.

William Rumber, E. J. Mulligan and Jean Dale, members of the 1919 Salt Lake City Club, whose presence was desired here, did not appear. Frank W. Stafford, deputy district attorney, said he hoped they would report Wednesday, when the grand jury meets again.

REBEKAHS FROM HELIX VISIT PENDLETON LODGE

HELIX, Oct. 25.—Quite a number of members of the local Rebekahs went to Pendleton Thursday evening where they were entertained by the members of the Pendleton lodge. The first number of the Lyceum course was given Monday evening by the Mozart Ladies Quartette. The entertainment was well received by the good sized audience.

Mrs. Mary Montgomery and daughter Sarah have returned from a visit with relatives in Portland. An attractive children's party was given on Wednesday by Mrs. Vernon Kerley for her little daughter Ina. Ten little friends of Miss Ina came to celebrate her fifth birthday. Those present were Misses Norma and Alta Little, Helen Oswald, Maxine Lane, Adelyn McIntyre, Dennis Blinn, Iva and Lois Piper, Margaret Norwall, Elizabeth Clark and Rova Kerley.

All the local teachers attended the institute held in Pendleton, school being closed for the three days. Mrs. Luke Hutchinson visited at the Norwall Bott home at St. Johns the first of the week. She also visited her daughter Miss America, who is teaching over there.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cook and son Randolph were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Drew at their home in Echo. A dancing club is being organized in Helix. The first number will be given Friday evening Oct. 29. Miss Zelma Flock of Milton has been visiting the past week with her sister, Mrs. Fred Blinn.

Mrs. J. G. Bryan and daughter Vida have returned from Walla Walla where they were called by the death of Mrs. Bryan's father, Joe Ringel.

Church services were held in the Baptist church Sunday when Rev. Stockton formerly pastor of the church here addressed the congregation. The wet weather has interfered with seeding operations and a number of farmers of this community have not finished.

28 YEARS AGO

(From the Daily East Oregonian, October 25, 1892.) Yesterday evening Miss Retta Culp had the misfortune to step on a nail, which penetrated her foot and inflicted a painful injury. A band of 4,999 sheep belonging to J. Barnhart and William Baker will soon arrive from the mountains. During the winter they will be kept at the Barnhart place. It is probable that the coming city election in Pendleton will be by means of the Australian ballot system. Since Portland, Albany, Astoria and other Oregon cities held municipal elections under the new law, Pendleton may do likewise without fear of taking a "big step."

A delightful reception to pupils and friends of the Pendleton Academy was given Saturday evening by the teachers.
