Assistant Leader Here

F. L. Ballard, assistant state leader of county agents, is in Pendleton today for a conference with Fred Hennion, county agent.

Supreme Court Finishes Work

The supreme court of the state completed its semi-annual session here last evening after seven cases had been argued and submitted during the day. The justices departed on No. 5 last night for Salem.

Bishop Will Speak

Bishop William G. Shepard, of the Portland area of the Methodist church, covering six conference districts, will be in this city on Sunday and will speak at the local M. E. Church at 11 a. m. Bishop Shepard is a forceful speaker and local people are interested in the coming address.

Out of Town Games Attract

Local sports followers tomorrow will divide their attention between La Grande and Walla Walla, where football games will be played in which considerable interest is centered. Quite a number will motor to Walla Walla for the Whitman-Idaho game and the high school followers plan to send a few to La Grande to witness the game between La Grande and Baker high schools. Coach Dick Hanley will go to Pullman to see his old teammates, W. S. C., play the University of Montana.

Three Deer in Window

The unusual sight of three buck deer being displayed in one store window greeted Pendleton folk yesterday afternoon. Bucks killed by Charles and Frank Gritman and J. H. Estes filled one of the windows of the George C. Baer hardware store. The deer shot by the Gritman brothers were found in the Bear Wallow country, while Mr. Estes got his on Pearson creek. All had beautiful sets of horns.

Barn is Moved

A barn is being moved today by James Cornfield from College street to Railroad street. The barn is owned by Ben Burroughs, Inc.

Price May Be 40 Cents

Forty cents a pound is the retail price estimated by local dealers for Thanksgiving turkeys. Portland dealers predict that the price will be 55 cents. The birds are scarce this year, it is reported.

Office Being Re-Modelled

The dental office of Dr. M. S. Kern is being re-modelled. A partition is being built in the reception room of the office, which is located in the Judd building. The walls and woodwork are to be renovated.

Expect Increase in Census

Enumerators now at work taking the school census for this district report that indications point to a substantial increase in the number of persons of school age in the district over 1919. More than 1700 are expected to show in the census.

Smallpox Still Being Found

Two houses were quarantined for smallpox yesterday afternoon, one residence having two cases. Two other homes were released from quarantine. Special Health Officer John Halley Jr. reports that the number of cases is about stationary and none are of a virile nature.

Will Go To Athens

Mrs. Edith G. Van Deusen, home demonstration agent, will be in Athens November 6 to 8 to assist the Athens Civic Club in plans for various enterprises. Mrs. Van Deusen, during a recent visit to Weston, was invited by Mrs. Will Ferguson and Mrs. Ralph McEwen to come to Athens.

Pilot Rock to Celebrate

A monster celebration of Armistice Day is planned by Pilot Rock and posters telling of the event have been received for distribution in this city. There will be speaking and dancing and at noon a big ox barbecue is to be served to all who attend. A turkey shoot will take place in the afternoon at the Birch Creek Rod & Gun Club grounds.

Near Accident Occurs

Slight injuries to his head were sustained by E. W. McComas in a near-accident last night. The lights on Mr. McComas' car were poor and in turning the machine to keep it from going into a ditch, one of the wheels of the automobile was broken. Mr. McComas' head was bruised and slightly cut but he is suffering no ill effects today.

Pythians Enjoy Athens Session

Seven members of Damon lodge no. 4, Knights of Pythias, last night attended a social session of the Pythias lodge at Athens. The Athenians had a program consisting chiefly of musical numbers and a reading. Music by the Athens orchestra was enjoyed and the session was followed by a sumptuous supper. The party from here made the trip by automobile.

Hunters Have Poor Luck

For the third time this season members of the Sugarbowl Hunting Club have returned to Pendleton without venison. Last night John Vaughan, Dean Shull, Jake Welch and Guy Matlock came back from a seven days' trip to their lodge beyond Gardane to report that the hunt had been fruitless. The hunters worked hard every day they were out and followed lots of tracks but could not sight the animals.

Weather Is Warmer

The weather today is warmer than in the past few days, the maximum being 64 and the minimum 39. There was a trace of rain registered, says Major Lee Moorhouse, official observer, a heavy shower having fallen this morning. The barometer registers 29.85.

Kerr-Gifford Place Agent

Kerr-Gifford Company, grain buyers of Portland, have appointed Carl Halterman agent for Pendleton succeeding Joe Kenley and Mr. Halterman has taken over his new duties.

COLLEGE STUDE AT 12

EDWARD R. HARDY
NEW YORK—Edward Roche Hardie is but 12 years old and yet a student at Columbia University—the youngest student in the history of the institution. Young Hardy speaks seven languages and intends to add Chinese this year, and, although student-extraordinary, he's a regular, honest-to-goodness boy. Swimming, rough and tumble, gymnasium work and football appeal to him strongly.
