MRS. TODD RETURNS

Mrs. R. C. Todd, of Hermiston, who for the past two days has been in Pendleton as the guest of her daughter, Miss Virginia Todd, returned last night to her home. Mrs. Todd is one of the directors of the Hermiston Red Cross and attended the meeting of the Umatilla county directors here Wednesday.

WILL ORGANIZE AUXILIARY

A Ladies Auxiliary Degree, Patriarchal Militant, will be organized in the I. O. O. F. hall in Pendleton on October 30 at 7:30 o'clock. All Ladies who have taken the decoration of chivalry and wives, mothers, sisters, daughters and nieces of Cantons in good standing are eligible whether or not they are Rebekahs, and they are cordially invited to tomorrow's meeting to swell the charter membership.

RECEPTION MOST DELIGHTFUL

The spacious rooms of Mrs. William Matlock's home were filled last evening with two hundred and fifty guests, ladies of the Pioneer club, their husbands and members of the Historical Society who gathered at the bidding of the Pioneer Club to enjoy a reception and program of unusual note.

Witches, cats, owls, pumpkins and lowering cornstalks mingled with marigolds, fragrant carnations and vivid autumn foliage and callers were greeted by a hospitable "witch." In the person of Mrs. H. E. Bickers and like the "lady who lived in a shoe," her family, composed of Mrs. Pauline Marshall, Miss Lois Swaggart, Miss Dorothy Lockwood, Miss Mary Chisholm and Miss Flossie Sloan, assisted in extending a gracious welcome.

A program included many unique numbers, two Pioneer Club members proving themselves delightful entertainers. Following is the program:

Vocal Solo..... Mrs. B. L. Burroughs (With accompaniment by Mrs. Edna Gates)
Vocal Solo..... Mrs. James Hill (With accompaniment by Mrs. David B. Hill)
Reading, in costume, and song.....
Vocal Solo..... Mrs. William Mays
Vocal Solo..... Miss Lillian Culley (With accompaniment by Miss Anderson)

Song, "Fifty Years Ago".....
Talk..... Mrs. William Blakley
Talk..... Judge Burnett
Vocal Solo..... Mrs. Lyman Rice (With accompaniment by Miss Pauline Rice)

Talk..... Judge Henry J. Bean
Supper followed the program, the flower-decked table being presided over by two club presidents, Mrs. Matlock and Mrs. Blakley, Mrs. Mary Dicesway, treasurer, Mrs. Winn Johnson, secretary, Mrs. Mary Lane and Mrs. Jesse Felling.

Joek Coleman contributed several informal solos during the latter part of the evening and fortunes were told by Mrs. Sylvia Cohn and Mrs. Rena Adom.

Dancing featured the final hour, the pioneer folk who formed the first society of Pendleton, joining again in the merry quadrille, Virginia reel, schottische or old time waltz.

CLUB MEETING DELIGHTFUL

A Halloween theme, employing the orange and crimson colors of late October, marked charming appointments of the library club room yesterday, when Mrs. Alfred Lockwood and Mrs. Gilbert W. Phelps were hostesses for a meeting of the Thursday afternoon club.

Among modern British writers Robert Louis Stevenson claimed the club's attention yesterday and the following numbers formed a delightful program:

Criticism—"Style of Stevenson".....
.....Mrs. A. J. Owen
Group of Songs—Mrs. B. L. Burroughs
Selections from "A Child's Garden of Verse"..... Mrs. R. E. Morse
Reading..... Mrs. Louise Dickson
Paper—"Intimate Glimpses of Stevenson's Life in Ireland".....
.....Mrs. Sylvia Cohn
Song—"The Requiem".....
.....Mrs. Harold Warner

Clusters of crimson apples and brilliant salvia blossoms which lined the mantle and windows vied with the vivid sheen of marigolds which filled a pumpkin-bowl to center a lovely tea table. Mrs. R. E. Morse and Mrs. D. D. Hobart president at the movars and several additional guests enjoyed the affair.

HALLOWEEN FROLIC PLANNED

Parish Hall of the Church of the Redeemer, gay with emblems of Halloween, is to be the scene tonight of a frolic in which members of the Sunday school are to participate. Games appropos of the season have been planned, the tiny folk being asked for the hours before nine o'clock, and the others to remain a little longer. Roller skates will be taken along and races for apples are scheduled.

For the wee guests a delight in store. A great, black forbidding cauldron will not hold an ill-omen for the kiddies, but—just as a story they are to hear, will tell—a witch will toss to them "kisses."

Mothers have been asked in for a cup of coffee while the frolic is under way. Mrs. Herbert Thompson is in charge of the event and assisting her are Mrs. G. A. Hartman, Mrs. J. B. Haley, Mrs. E. J. Murphy, Mrs. A. C. Ebert, Miss Mary Clark, Miss Genevieve Phelps and Miss Edna Murphy.

VISIT IS ENJOYED

Interesting, indeed, was the visit in Pendleton yesterday of Mrs. Ward Swope, state president of the C. W. B.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Senior Leaves School—Travis Taylor, a senior in the high school, will draw yesterday to enter a school in Wilamette valley. Mr. Taylor was prominent in the senior class and his departure is regretted.

Democrats Win Debate—Members of the American history class held an interesting debate this morning when several of the staunch admirers of their party debated on the platforms of the republican and democratic issues and platform. John Simpson, Miss Geraldine Morrison, Carl Nelson and Donald Woodworth held up the platform of the republican party and showed in what ways they thought theirs the right party and that Harding should be elected. Miss Alberta McMonies, Ben Smith, Sydney Baing and Kenneth Rew upheld the democratic administration, and proved to the judges wherein they thought Cox should be elected. The democratic side won by a single point. Miss Ada St. Peter, of the English department and Miss Ross, history teacher were judges. Miss Morrison gave the rebuttal for the republican side and Ben Smith for the democratic.
