

People Here and There

The salmon fishing season just closed proved disastrous to Andrew Barnhart, Indian who for many years has cast his nets in the Columbia in the region of Celilo. Barnhart, who was here yesterday on his way to spend the winter at Sweetwater, Idaho, was caught in a whirlpool one day just before the season closed. Boat and net were lost and Barnhart almost drowned. The Indian reports that salmon fishing was good but that he received only two cents a pound for the fish he caught. He is the son of William Barnhart, who in the wild days of the early west saved the life of an Indian agent named Barnhart during an Indian fight. The agent, to show his gratitude, bestowed his name upon his rescuer.

Joseph N. Scott, prominent Umatilla county farmer, left yesterday for Iowa. He recently purchased a wheat ranch in Morrow county and his interests call him there.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Pendleton Couple Licenses.
A marriage license was issued Friday to Ellie G. Brower and Miss Edna Shafer, both of Pendleton.

Settles Account at Dayton.
Ray McCarroll, of this city, returned last night from Dayton, Wash., after going there with Sheriff Gemmill to make good the payment on a check which was returned marked no funds. McCarroll offered to make the amount good without going to Dayton but the plaintiff insisted on a trial. The man was found not guilty in justice court there.

Second Half State Tax Paid.
The second half of Umatilla county's state tax was forwarded to the state treasurer today by County Treasurer Grace A. Gilliam. The amount due is $22,552.65 and it must be in the treasurer's hands on Nov. 1. A similar amount was sent in on May 1. The county treasurer recently sent the third interest payment on the county's road bond issue to New York, the interest being payable there on Nov. 1. The amount sent was $29,212.50.

Irrigation Receivers Sue.
F. H. Swayze and W. H. Simpson, as receivers of the Western Land & Irrigation Co., today brought suit against J. Herbert Strohm and C. E. Joslyn to foreclose on a mortgage given by the former to secure payment of several promissory notes. The amount due is $790.53. Mr. Joslyn is named a co-defendant because he also has some claim to the Strohm property and the plaintiffs ask that their lien be decreed a prior one. Sale of the land mortgaged under execution is asked. George C. Howard and the Mortgage Company of America are made defendants in another action to recover $500 water rent alleged due and unpaid. The claim of the irrigation company is asked to be prior to that of the mortgage concern. W. S. Levens of Baker, and W. G. Drowley of Vancouver, are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

ATHLETIC CLUB SEES NO LULL AT SMOKER

It was a bang-up affair every minute that a small number of Pendleton Athletic Club members last night enjoyed when the club put on its first smoker of the season. There was something doing every minute and every one of the boxing and wrestling events was pronounced high class. The performers were all amateurs.

The feature event of the evening was a boxing bout between the 39 pound youngsters, members of the club, introduced as Dempsey and Carpenter. The youngsters went at things went at things as though it was a match for the world's championship between America's and Europe's best heavyweights. The crowd pronounced it a winner.

The four round affair between Dick Wilson and Buddy Reed went to a draw decision and was justly called so in the opinion of the crowd. Hoxey Morris and Kid Williams, both local boys, put on the main event. They worked hard and fast all the way and both earned a draw, the decision given by Referee McAllister.

The opening event of the evening was a wrestling match between Dee Hatton and Clark Dumas, in which Hatton got one fall. The boys stayed on the mat for a half hour, the first fall being obtained in about five minutes.

The crowd was small on account of

AMERICAN WOMAN MAY BE GREEK QUEEN

Conflicting reports have come out of Greece regarding the condition of King Alexander, who was recently bitten by monkeys. One report says he is dead, another says he is near the point of death. With the passing of the ruler, a dramatic struggle for the throne is expected. Ex-King Constantine is trying to get back his old job. An American woman, Mrs. Nancy Leeds, formerly of New York, may become queen. Her husband, Prince Christopher of Greece, is mentioned as the new king. Others mentioned are: (left) the British Prince Arthur of Connaught, and (center) Prince Charles of Belgium. Above and at right are Prince Christopher and his American wife.

An Appeal for the Roosevelt Bird

To the Voters of Umatilla County: We, the undersigned, citizens of Pendleton and vicinity, interested in the preservation of game, and in the bird life of the state, and believing in the merit of the measure to be voted on next Tuesday, known as the ROOSEVELT BIRD REFUGE MEASURE, Ballot Number 216 and 217, respectfully urge all electors to vote YES upon this bill.

We honestly believe that public interest demands the passage of this measure by the people, and that the whole state ought to take pride in the maintenance of this breeding place of the wild water fowl. There is land enough in Oregon. There is no other body of water in the state of this type. Its maintenance means more than money to the people who are nature lovers, and its perpetuation as a game preserve will signify much to future years in its power to attract sportsmen and pleasure seekers to Oregon. It is one of the show places of the state. Dated October 30th, 1920.

votes. If Cox receives the Wilson vote plus the vote of one of every 25 republicans on the league issue, he will be the choice of Oregon for the presidency.

Labor Almost Solid.
Straw ballots taken indicate that Cox will receive one of the greatest labor votes ever rolled up for a candidate in this state. A poll completed Thursday by the Oregon Labor Press in Portland gives Cox 594 votes to 49 for Harding. The ballot at the street car men's union showed 103 for Cox and one for Harding. At the Central Labor Council office Cox got 104 and Harding six votes. The Labor Press office showed 22 for Cox and three for Harding; the building trades office 71 for Cox and four for Harding; metal trades, Cox 29, Harding three; and the district council of carpenters, Cox 47 and Harding three.

Then comes L. F. Rose, a traveling man who covers California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Utah. He says the traveling men and farmers are strong for Cox.

Farmers in Line.
"Last week there were nine of us in one party," he declares, "and we were unanimous for Cox. At Salem, there were seven people waiting for a train. Nine were farmers. We took

AMERICAN LEGION ENDORSES MEASURES PROHIBITING ALL "COMPULSORY VACCINATION"

One of the largest meetings of La Grande Post of the American Legion was held on the evening of October 11th, 1920. A number of Baker ex-service men were present, and besides the business of the Legion, governmental matters were taken up.

In state affairs the men took up the proposed initiative measures and discussed them. Among other endorsements given was the passage of resolutions favoring the "Anti-Compulsory Vaccination Amendment" as follows:

"Resolved, that the La Grande Post of the American Legion go on record as favoring the passage of the Anti-Compulsory Vaccination Amendment, to be submitted to the people of Oregon on November 2, 1920.

We believe that the amendment should be passed for the following reasons: As an organization we have no prejudice against vaccination, inoculation or any other form of voluntary medication which any citizen of this state may choose to employ. But we believe that the present authority vested in the state board of health to compel school children and other free citizens of this state to submit to a particular form of medical treatment or to be denied the freedom of our public institutions is an usurpation of the sacred rights of the free citizens of this state and is as pernicious as would be the enforcement of compulsory or state religion.

We believe that the passage of the present proposed Anti-Compulsory Vaccination Amendment will be a step towards guaranteeing to the free people of this state the freedom of thought and action embodied in the principles for which we fought in the late war.

Be It Further Resolved, That copy of the resolution, accompanied by a copy of said amendment, be spread upon the minutes of this meeting and that copies be sent to the La Grande Evening Observer for publication."—Paid Advertisement.
