Going Forward

A community must either go forward or retreat, there is no middle course. Civic enterprises succeed to the extent of the strength of local financial institutions, and the manner in which they are able to render assistance.

Established some thirty-two years ago, the American National Bank has kept pace with Pendleton's development. Today it is foremost in modern banking service, with splendid resources which enable it to handle all kinds of commercial and savings accounts.

SCHUMANN-HEINK THRILLS IMMIGRANTS

ELLIS ISLAND, N. Y.—"Oh, say can you see—" Madame Schumann-Heink, famous grand opera prima donna, sang with a vigor she has seldom equaled when she poured forth the words of the national anthem to immigrants just arrived as other day. The great singer won wild applause from the thousands to be. The inset is a remarkable photo of Madame Schumann-Heink as she put her whole soul into America's song.

Seaboard Buying Helps Raise Price of Wheat

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Buying on the part of houses with seaboard connections led to moderate upturn in wheat values Monday after the market had been depressed during most of the season. Prices close firm at the same as Saturday's finish to 1-1 1/2 higher, with December 2.09 1/2 to 2.10 and March 2.02 to 2.02 1/4. Corn closed 5-8 net lower to 1-8 advance and oats varying from 1-8 decline to 3-4 to 7-8 gain. In provisions the outcome was a decline of 17 to 22.

Wheat showed some strength at the outset but there was a lack of sustained support and a reaction ensued briefly as a result of speculative selling based on talk of liberal receipts. Export of clearances, however, were large and no great desire was shown to press the selling side of the market. Shorts were quick to reverse their position when late in the day some signs of demand from the seaboard appeared. On the other hand new export business was said to total only 200,000 bushels. Corn and oats failed to reflect the rally in wheat.

Provisions, although dull, were higher as a result of an upturn in the hog market.
