Rube is Injured.
Frank Rube is suffering from a badly infected knee. Mr. Rube is employed by the Warren Construction Company.

Arthur Herrick Sought.
Arthur Herrick is being sought by Kate Estes, of Everett, Washington. It is stated that Herrick's mother is dead and relatives wish to notify him of the death.

Councilman Violates Ordinance.
Claid E. Penland, councilman, was found guilty Saturday of violating one of the ordinances which he helped frame, that regulating parking on 40 foot streets. He pleaded guilty to Judge Pitts Gerald and paid a fine of $2.

Meeting Put Off for Week.
On account of today being election day, the regular monthly meeting of the Pendleton Commercial Association will be postponed until next Tuesday night.

County Court to Convene.
The Umatilla county court will meet in its regular monthly session tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the court room. Regular routine business will occupy the attention of the court.

Bert Lovell Gets Back.
Bert Lovell, superintendent of the Security Apartment building, on Sunday brought in a 230 buck deer which he killed on Saturday while hunting on Wilbur mountain. The residents of the apartments Monday enjoyed venison roasts and steaks through the generosity of their superintendent.

Inheritance Left Local Miss.
An inheritance of $17,000 has been left Miss Jessie DeWitt, of this city, by an uncle who died recently in Oklahoma City, word of the bequest having just reached her. She will not receive the money until July 1, 1921, but will go to the Oklahoma city shortly after the New Year in order to settle for her share of the estate.

Lawyers Favor Brown.
Pendleton lawyers yesterday sent to Judge George M. Brown a telegram endorsing him as candidate for the supreme court in today's election. The message was signed by all the leading members of the bar in Pendleton. Judge Brown, as attorney general, supported the cause of the state in the recent trial of the Til Taylor murderers.

Road Matter to Come Up.
The proposed Wallula-Umatilla river road will come up for final disposition Saturday at the monthly meeting of the state Highway Commission. The local county court will go to Portland Friday night to present objections to the road and to lay before the commission their counter proposal of a road from Helix to the state line near Wallula.

October Police Business Lighter.
Police court records for October were considerably lighter than for September, the month just ended having produced 38 cases. Fines were heavy, however, the total being $525.56. There were 11 violations of traffic rules, 29 drunks and disorderlies and five liquor law violations. September, Round-Up month, produced fines of $1257.50.

New Pole Placed.
A new electric light pole was placed Monday on Cottonwood street, replacing two old poles and taking some of the load off the Main street lines. Dr. P. W. Vincent, manager for the Pacific Power and Light Co., says that this is but one of several poles to be placed on Cottonwood street as he intends to place half the Main street lines on Cottonwood in the near future.

Report Will Be Later.
With the resumption of the old standard of time in New York, the market report received in Pendleton by Overbeck & Cooke Co., will be later. The messages will begin at 7 a. m. instead of 6 a. m. and the complete wheat market quotations will be received at 11:15 a. m. instead of at 10:30 a. m. The office will be open at 7 a. m. instead of at 6 a. m. in future.

Judge Lowell Appointed.
Judge Stephen A. Lowell, of this city, has been named as a member of a state-wide committee for the Oregon W. C. T. U. campaign for $125,000 to be used in establishing a farm home for orphan and dependent children. Emory Dimstead is treasurer, John E. Wheeler chairman, and Governor Ben W. Olcott is honorary chairman. Thirty prominent men and women of the state are numbered among the members of the committee.

Verna Alexander Is Author.
Verna Alexander, formerly of this city, is the author of a story which appears in this month's number of the Argosy All Story magazine. The story, which is written over the nom de plume of "Verna Abbott," is entitled "Unbalanced," and is a tale of two engineers. It reveals considerable technical knowledge and the plot is a novel one. The author, who has been appearing on the stage as a dancer, has been studying in Philadelphia but expects to come soon to Seattle where she will visit her parents.

Sunday to Be Observed.
Six local pastors will hold special services Sunday, November 14, and will preach in favor of the Red Cross Roll call, to open November 11 and close November 25. The pastors who will have special services are: Rev. George L. Clark, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Robert Lee Bussabarger of the Christian church; Rev. L. L. Anderson of the African Methodist church; Rev. John H. Secor, of the Methodist church, and Rev. W. H. Cox, of the Baptist church. The day has been designated as "Red Cross Roll Call Sunday."

October Rainfall 1.45.
The October rainfall was 1.45 inches, according to Major Mochouse's official report for the month just ended. This is above the normal, 1.19 inches. The warmest day was October 5 when the temperature was 82. The lowest temperature was 24, on October 21. This is a higher temperature than the minimum of October, 1919, when the mercury fell to 19, on October 24. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours was .45 inches October 28. There was .01 or more rainfall on 12 days, with 21 clear days, seven partly cloudy days and three cloudy days. Killing frost was noted October 9, 13, 16, 22, 27, 29 and 31.

Educators Meet.
A meeting of educators of the state, to discuss the teacher training courses, sources of school revenue, and school legislation, will be held in Portland December 4 as one of 12 regional educational conferences, says W. W. Green, county school superintendent who returned this morning from Portland where he attended a committee meeting which made plans for the December meeting. Besides Mr. Green those who attended the meeting at the Multnomah hotel in Portland yesterday were J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction; J. H. Ackerman, president of the State Normal; H. D. Sheldon, head of the department of education at University of Oregon; E. D. Bessler, head of the department of education at O. A. C.; E. L. Grout, superintendent of Portland schools; A. C. Hampton, superintendent of La Grande schools; A. C.
