Safety and Simplicity

Safety is the first consideration in any bank. Unquestioned safety, combined with complete facilities and liberal interest make a bank a desirable depository for surplus funds.

The American National Bank has these qualifications. Its combined capital and surplus and strong affiliations, makes it one of the strongest banking institutions in Eastern Oregon.

The simplicity of opening commercial accounts, the liberal rate of interest on savings accounts, and the assurance of complete safety, makes this bank very desirable for people with small means as well as for those whose business interests are very extensive.

MARRIAGE VIA. WANT AD ROUTE IS STORMY FOR BUTTE ARCHITECT

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 3.—Marriage via the want-ad route wasn't at all successful for Anthony Dolecki. He has filed a suit for annulment of his marriage to Marie Dolecki, who, he asserts, is Mrs. De Snell, wife of an architect at Butte, Mont.

The complaint in the case relates that Dolecki was a bachelor and lone-some. Then a matrimonial paper fell into the hands of the plaintiff and he saw the ad of a woman who claimed to be attractive, have $17,000 and a desire to marry for love and companionship.

Dolecki claims that the woman, who came to Portland to wed him, disappeared the day after the wedding with his suitcase, $100 worth of war savings stamps, $250 in cash, $6000 worth of mining stock and other articles belonging to him.

All his wife left for him, Dolecki declares, was a note saying she had been called to Chicago due to the illness of a sister.

Mrs. Dolecki—or De Snell—was brought back to Portland to face three criminal charges, was sentenced to one year in the county jail, but later paroled.

APARTMENT HOUSE LIFE SCORED IN DELINQUENCY

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 3.—"If you want your wife to be true, get her out of an apartment house." Municipal Judge Rossman told Joseph Silvers, who appeared to plead for his wife, who had been arrested on a charge of immorality.

"Get her out in the suburbs. Rent a house. Plant flowers. Put in a garden so your wife will have something to do besides trotting about the streets and meeting strange men."

"The apartment house is the wrong place for a woman. You can not expect much more from her. She lives in an apartment and has very little work to do. It's natural she should seek some amusement."

"Make your wife a home, and I'll be willing to venture that if she has a home and a home she'll stay there and behave herself."
