FRENCHMEN HAND PALM TO TRIO FOR APPETITE

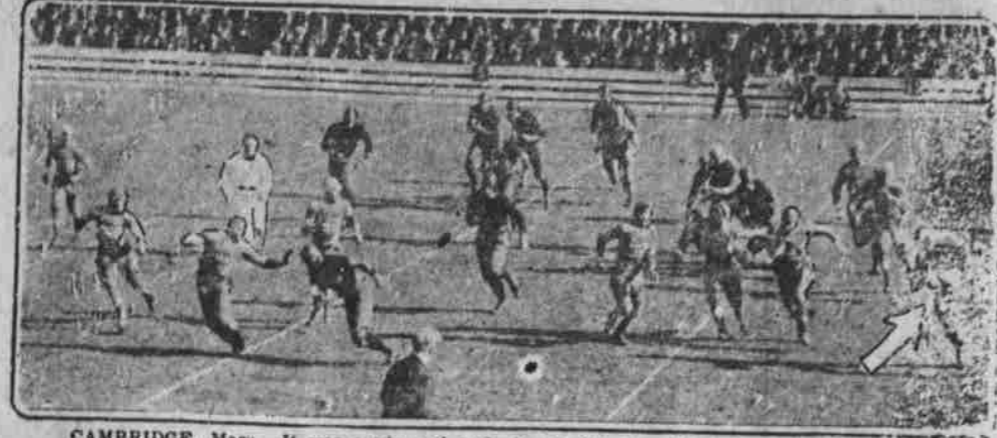

PARIS, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—"Duke" Kahanamoku, Keoloha and Norman Ross, Hawaiian and American swimmers, not only smashed French swimming records during their recent visit to Paris, but established marks in another branch of sport that will stand for all time, according to the manager of the hotel at which they stopped. He is willing to hand them the eating championship of the world. "Mon Dieu, they command us to eat with pommes frites, three of them," said the hotel man. The waiter produced what is generally thought at the hotel as sufficient for three persons but Norman Ross is alleged to have confiscated the whole platter while both Kahanamoku and Keoloha were inquiring where their own steak was. All the restituting eloquence of the head waiter failed to convince the trio that the steak was meant for three. Vegetables, ham and eggs, cheese, fruit desserts followed in turn, while the manager moaned. "Why they drink beer with all their meals," said the head waiter, "horried at the heresy of not drinking wine for dinner. And right in the midst for their meal they absorb a huge bowl of sweet chocolate." When informed that the men were champion swimmers of the world, regular sea-lions, the head waiter said: "Sea-lions, not much, they are meat-eating tigers."

NEW GOLDFIELDS ARE DISCOVERED IN RUSSIA

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—Discovery of new goldfields in different parts of Russia are reported by a German trade journal. In Buchara (Afghan frontier) on the upper waters of the Amu-Darya and its tributaries, rich placer-gold deposits are reported to have been discovered and further successful prospecting has been made on the Safeti-Darya and Yatchan. Placer gold has also been discovered in the Usuri district in the Iman Basin (Eastern Siberia). In several other parts of Siberia prospectors have lately found not only placer gold but rich gold-bearing quartz, say the reports.

PRAYING ELEVEN GOES DOWN BEFORE CRIMSON STRATEGY

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—It was a nip and tuck battle between John Harvard and the Praying Colonels of Centre College, Ky., until the easterners collected their wits and, with their superior flash, beginning a 20-yard run that resulted in the Crimson's first touchdown. From the picture it would appear impossible for Churchill to have aided the Centre players that completely jammed him in. But, as a matter of fact, it was the last man (the Centre player in front of the judge) who brought him down. Had Churchill's teammates been with him, instead of being scattered as shown in the picture, he would never have been stopped.

SEATTLE THERMOMETER TAKES FAST TOBOGGAN

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—Seattle thermometers registered the coldest weather since last winter, early Monday, when, with the temperature down to 24 above the first ice of the season appeared accompanied by a heavy frost. Little damage to vegetables was reported, according to George N. Salisbury, meteorologist.

GRAVE THINGS SPANISH LONDON, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—A society craze for things Spanish seems to be imminent in England. Two Spanish plays are running in London and Spanish singers and dancers are in great demand. Many fashionable women are wearing the high Spanish comb and one sees tentative attempts at the mantilla, or mantilla effects. All the new fashionable dances are said to show distinct leanings toward Spanish interpretation.

PEAR SEEDLINGS GROW IN CALIFORNIA VALLEY LIKE IN MANCHURIA

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—The world's largest stock of seedlings of a wild, blight-resisting variety found in Manchuria is located on the Loma Rosa ranch near Grass Valley. The young trees are from seed brought directly from China and number about 100,000. Three pomological experts from the U. S. department of agriculture, Professors Allison, Wright and Kinsman, recently inspected the stock and approved the experimental work. The original trees, known as the pyrus usuriensis, are found growing in the ancient burying ground of the kings of the Manchurian dynasty and it is only since the overthrow of the dynasty that the seed became available. The tract is said to be vast and a be grown to trees of immense size. By grafting the commercial varieties of pears upon this stock good results are expected to be obtained.

TRAVELERS TO EUROPE MUST TAKE ENOUGH COIN TO ASSURE OWN RETURN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—Travelers bound for Europe were warned today by the state department to take with them enough money to pay their way back if they intend to return. The statement was prompted by reports from consuls that Americans who have gone to Europe to visit their families frequently found themselves stranded and appealed for assistance.

NEBRASKA WINS OVER RUTGERS BY 28-0 SCORE

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—The University of Nebraska football team defeated Rutgers here Tuesday at the Polo grounds, 28 to 0. The light Rutgers eleven was unable to stand the line plunging of the Cornhuskers, who did not use the expected open style play, but kept to straight football. Nebraska started with a rush and in a few minutes of play had the ball on Rutgers' one-yard line, where they held for downs. This was the only time the New Jersey team was able to hold the plunging Nebraska backs. Nebraska scored two touchdowns in the second quarter. The first was by Hartley, who plowed through Rutgers forwards from the five yard line. The second was made by Swanson, who sprinted 15 yards with Huback's forward pass. In the third period Rutgers showed new life and made several long gains through the Nebraska line, but the westerners tightened up and recovered a fumble which started them down the field for their third touchdown. The score was made by Moore, who planced through the line from the three yard line. Nebraska's other touchdown was made on a fluke when Swanson fumbled caught Dale's pass after two Rutgers players had touched the ball in the air. Day kicked each goal for Nebraska.

SUSPECTED INCENDIARY FIRE RAZES FACTORY

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—Fire believed by the authorities to be of incendiary origin caused damage estimated at $50,000 in the plant of the "International Spar company" eight miles from Renton, opposite Rainier Beach, Seattle, today. In addition to the buildings 750 cords of flat wood and thousands of feet of lumber were destroyed.

RENT LAWS, GUARDING TENANTS, HELD VOID

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—The rent laws passed to safeguard the interests of tenants at the recent session of the New York state legislature were declared unconstitutional in a decision handed down yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Henry T. Hotelkies. Justice Hotelkies, in rendering his decision, which was against Mortimer Osterwise, a tenant, named defendant in election proceedings said the law was unconstitutional because "it deprives landlords from all remedy for re-possession of their property" and "it is discriminatory."

THREATEN TO BLOW UP WOOLWORTH BUILDING

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(A. P.)—Department of Justice agents today arrested Albert Ballan of Brooklyn on a charge of having sent a letter to the postmaster of New York threatening to kill the postmaster and blow up the Woolworth building "unless all political and industrial prisoners are freed." He was held in $5000 bail. Agents of the department of justice said they believed Ballan wrote the letter in hope of getting a job with the government by "exposing" a fake plot.
