The general list, especially steels, shippings, motors, textiles and papers, tobaccos and leathers continued to be governed by the tone of the money market as well as by industrial conditions. Rallies at the close included heavy accumulation of Reading at a net gain of 6 5-8.

Sales amounted to 300,000 shares. Call money ruled throughout at 9 per cent and foreign exchange noted few noteworthy changes to important centers. Southern Pacific convertible 56 at a gain of almost 16 points, featured the strong bond market with Liberty issues. Total sales, par value, $17,450,000.

Stock Exchange Moves Slowly After Election.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Any doubt that Wall street and the financial community as a whole had fully forecast the results of the presidential election was dispelled by the seemingly indifferent course of Wednesday's stock. Instead of the frenzied trading and wild fluctuations that attended the outcome of other national campaigns and the McKinley boom of 1896, declines were comparatively light and changes all save a few issues were relatively unimportant.

The outstanding feature was the extensive trading of Southern Pacific at net gain of 9 points due directly to Monday's announcements that the directors are to formulate a plan to segregate the company's oil properties. Associated Oil, which is to form the basis of this plan of separation, registered a substantial advance at the outset but this was largely canceled later.

Wheat closed unsettled at 2 1-2 to 2 3-4 net decline, corn off 1 3-8 to 2 3-4 and oats down 5-8c to 3-4c. In provisions the outcome varied from a setback of 50c to 10c advance.

Persistent commission house selling developed in the wheat market and there was no adequate support except some fair buying early that was credited to the seaboard. Bears contended that on the basis of current esti-

Even eclipsing the wonderful values our buyers secured for us in the first two assortments of smart coats at the above prices, comes this third group in answer to the insistent demand of Pendleton women for more of those becoming wraps showing such smartness of line, goodness of materials and tailoring at such pleasing prices.

Bolivias, Velours and Tinsel Tones are prominent among the new coats made up according to the latest approved fashions.

Some have regulation collars, others show liberal fur collars while deep cape collars are a salient feature of others.

All of them are attractively lined throughout with beautifully colored flowered silks—and all in two groups so economically priced
