"This policy contemplates America This poincy contemplates America taking an active part in restoring nor-nail international conditions. It means is implied of relations with Germany as soon as possible, with Russia, and Mexico, ultimately and negotiations looking toward an association of na-tions," he continued.

Two Moves Expected Two moves are expected to be made by Harding in the near future. The first, is meeting Mexican leaders, while the second, is a conference with senate leaders over drafting a resolu-tion declaring the war with Germany at an end, and providing resumption of normal trade relations. The terms which Harding would extend recog-nition to Mexico will be firm but fair, t can be stated authoritatively. Mexico's national dignity would be fully respected but the Harding administraion will insist on her completely and whole heartedly adhering to a code of international honor. For Workl's Champion.
