MR. AND MRS. OSTROOT HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ostroot have returned to Pendleton from Colfax, Washington, where their marriage was an event of Wednesday afternoon, the 2 o'clock service being performed at the home of the bride, who was formerly Miss Ruth Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Chapman, prominent residents of Colfax.

Mr. Ostroot who is manager of the Pacific Elevator Co. here was formerly in the Colfax office. He came to Pendleton in June.

UMATILLA MAN WEDS
HOOD RIVER, Nov. 5.—Local folk have received news of the wedding in Portland last Saturday of Miss Tina J. Roberts, members of the city school faculty, and Duncan Cramer, young Umatilla business man. The wedding, it is said, resulted from a romance begun last year, when the bride was teaching at Umatilla. Mrs. Cramer will remain here as teacher throughout the school year.

MRS. SNOW RETURNS
Friends are welcoming the return to Pendleton of Mrs. J. C. Snow, prominent matron, who departed several weeks ago for Portland to remain for a time with her daughter, Miss Ruth Snow, and her son, Claude Snow, who have entered school there. Mr. Snow remained in Pendleton and his wife returned to join him.

MRS. VEET SENDS GREETING
An interesting note was received in Pendleton today from Mrs. John Veet, who until recently resided here, and who is now enjoying an extended visit with relatives and friends in Scotland, her native land. The note contained a sprig of heather, the green being profusely dotted with the famous little lavender blooms.

WILL LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA
Mr. and Mrs. George Bradley and Miss Georgia Bradley, their daughter, are planning to depart soon for a sojourn at Long Beach, California.

PLAN VISIT IN SOUTH
Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Miss Roberta Morrison and Miss Geraldine Morrison plan to leave Wednesday to pass the winter in California.

WILL VISIT IN PASCO
Mrs. C. S. Jerald left yesterday for Pasco where she will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frona Regan.

DELPHIAN CLUB MEETS
The attractive home of Mrs. L. L. Rogers on North Main street was the scene yesterday of a delightful affair when Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Sylvan Cohn were hostesses for a meeting of the Delphian Club. Miss Virginia Todd, secretary of the Umatilla County Red Cross, talked to the club on the coming membership campaign and asked the organization to join in the widespread appeal. Her talk was followed by the day's program:

Piano Duet..... Miss Mildred Rogers, Miss Mary Clark.
Essay by Dr. Frank Crane.....
Mrs. Laura D. Nash
Essay, "The Teutons".....
Mrs. David Nelson
Vocal Solos..... Mrs. Lynn Rice
Charlemagne..... Mrs. R. D. Sayre
Readings, A Court Scene From the Merchant of Venice.....
Mrs. L. M. Spalding
Adjourning to the dining room the guests enjoyed an informal tea hour, the prettily appointed table being centered by a cluster of pink rose buds and presided over by Mrs. Nash.

BOYDENS TO RETURN
Dr. and Mrs. Guy L. Boyden are expected to arrive home tomorrow after an extended trip through the east. They departed more than a month ago, going first to Montreal where Dr. Boyden was called by the medical congress. They visited later in New York and came west by way of Rochester, Minnesota, where the doctor was formerly an intern at Mayo Brothers Institute. He has taken the opportunity of additional study in the eastern cities.

Dr. and Mrs. Boyden will come to Pendleton by way of Walla Walla.

NEWLYWEDS ARE SURPRISED
A group of friends, members of the K. K. K., called unannounced last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Elder at the Murphy apartments on East Court and Webb streets. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Elder was a recent event and the party of visitors brought with them a charming gift of cut glass. Among the callers were Mrs. L. W. Kingsbury, Miss Sybil Farley, Miss Margaret Joergler, Miss Elizabeth Joergler, Miss Alma Rohrman and Miss Iva Black.

MISS NASON IS HONORED
A gracious form of compliment was chosen last evening when a group of friends called at the charming little home of Miss Selma Nason to surprise her with a canned-fruit shower. Nearly two dozen friends shared in the affair.

Miss Nason recently moved in to her attractive new home which is an artistically finished bungalow, situated on the north bank of the Umatilla river, and the visit of friends last evening suggested also an informal housewarming.

CLUB MEETING ENJOYED
Mrs. Alice Munro extended a charming bit of hospitality yesterday when members of the Splazierinkum Club were her guests. They were entertained at her home on Perkins avenue where white chrysanthemums and pasturiums lent their charm.

A poem was read by Mrs. E. R. Cornwell and a guessing game afforded informal diversion. A light luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter Mrs. R. H. Horne.

WILL BR LUNCHEON HOSTESSES
Mrs. Alvin Slusher, Mrs. Fred East and Mrs. B. L. Burroughs have issued invitations for a one o'clock luncheon on Wednesday, November 10th for which they will be hostesses at the home of Mrs. Slusher on Lewis street.

VISITING IN WALLA WALLA
Mrs. George A. Hartman is expected to return this evening from Walla Walla where she has been the guest of friends for the past few days.

RETURNS FROM FARM VISIT
Mrs. Frank Holdman returned home last evening after a week's visit at the ranch near Holdman.

OLDEST VOTERS IN THE UNITED STATES

The 1920 presidential election finds the oldest male voter and the oldest woman voter in the United States, both extremely active considering their advanced years. "Uncle John" Shell of Leslie-co, Ky., is 132 and has been a voter for 111 years. He is shown here with the oldest woman voter, Miss Anna Stone, 102 years old, of Roxbury, Conn. What is their political hue? When you "grow up" as they have, you'll know better than to tell how to vote.
