YOUNG HUSBAND CAUSES TROUBLE BY TOO MUCH TRUST IN PRETTY WIFE

Supreme trust is regarded as being the greatest proof of true love, but it is apt to cause mischief if it is persisted in too far. A prominent lawyer in New York tells a story of a woman who came to him seeking a separation from her husband, to whom she had been wed less than a year. Knowing that she had almost idolized her husband at the time of the marriage the lawyer inquired carefully into the reasons.

"I love him more than ever," said the young wife, sobbing, "but he cares nothing for me. He is interested in nothing I do. Last night I stayed over at a friend's house until nearly midnight, just to see if he didn't care a little bit, and when I came in he never even asked me where I had been."

The lawyer was also personally acquainted with the husband, and decided to risk a snub by asking him the trouble.

"I have been worried about her," admitted the husband. "She has been away so much, but if I asked her where she had been it might make her think I did not absolutely trust her."

The lawyer re-united a loving couple by advising the husband to go home and give his wife a scolding for her unexplained absence. Bob Milton, a young artist, loved Inga Sondersson, a model, so much that he does not believe he is worthy of her. But his trust was not sufficient to encompass the fact that he saw her entering a man's apartment, with her arm around the man himself, in the early hours of a morning.

The reason for this situation, with the events leading up to it and how Inga and Bob both found happiness in the story told by Norma Talmadge in "The Woman Gives," which will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre, beginning today.

ARCADÉ SUNDAY AND MONDAY OIL WELLS GUSHES TO ENRICH CROOK IN 'THE JAILBIRD'

Effective scenes of enormous oil wells, gushing hundreds of feet into the air, are features of "The Jailbird," the latest Thomas H. Ince production for Paramount, starring Douglas MacLean which comes to the Arcade theatre Sunday.

The gusher scenes were taken in the Bakerfield district of California, where special permission to photograph one of the largest wells was secured by Mr. Ince from a large petroleum producing company.

"The Jailbird" is the story of a crook who attempts to swindle the inhabitants of a small town by promoting an oil boom and disposing of a large amount of worthless stock. However, the well comes in, his efforts at crookedness are foiled, and he finds himself the town's wealthiest and most respected citizen. To make the story complete through his love for the prettiest girl in the village, he is reformed in a novel manner.

The picture was directed by Lloyd Ingraham from a story by Julien Josephson. Doris May heads a capable supporting cast which includes such players as Lew Morrison, William Courtwright, Wilbur Highy, Otto Hoffman, Monty Collins and Bert Woodruff.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY AUTO FALLS OVER CLIFF TO THE BEACH BELOW

Royal Renshaw, in an effort to save his drug-crazed wife from hurling herself from their speeding car, which was running along the edge of a precipice, lost control of his machine. In the twinkling of an eye the car left the road and plunged over the cliff to the beach below. The car was smashed into splinters, but Royal Renshaw, almost by a miracle, suffered no serious injury, except for many body bruises.

This climax is one of the many unusual situations in the Realart photodrama starring Mary Miles Minter, "Jenny Be Good," which will be the principal attraction at the Alta Theatre Sunday on the bill which includes two acts of vaudeville.

"Jenny Be Good" is the screen version of the book by the same name written by Wilbur Finley Fauley and directed by William Desmond Taylor.

He was wise as an owl in the ways of the world, and she thought he was simply wonderful. She didn't know he'd escaped from jail and had come to "clean out" her town.

But when the show-down came—well, Shakespeare Clancy, editor, alias Kid Dugan, faker, bowed down to things even he didn't know before.

Funny as "23 1-2 Hours' Leave." Exciting as "What's Your Husband Doing?" Yet big and fine and beautiful.
