

DAILY EDITION

Number of Copies printed of Saturday's Daily 3,529

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

VOL. 32

DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON, MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 8, 1920.

NO. 9671

DAILY EDITION

The East Oregonian is Eastern Oregon's greatest newspaper and as a selling force gives it a circulation over twice the guaranteed paid circulation in Pendleton and Umatilla counties of any other newspaper.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

HARDING'S VICTORY SMILE WHEN HE "CONCEDED" HIS ELECTION

MARION, O.—This is the first exclusive photograph of President-elect and Mrs. Warren G. Harding taken after Harding "conceded" his own election. It was taken at the Harding home. The senator and Mrs. Harding sat together, election night reading the reports of the Harding landslide. Long after all his friends had been joyously celebrating his election, the senator finally looked up, took off his glasses, smiled and "conceded" that he was the president-elect.

THREE THOUSAND COMMUNISTS STIR BERLIN ROARING RED HYMNS AND PREACHING FIERY DOCTRINES

BERLIN, Nov. 7.—(By Carl D. Grant, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Roaring red battle hymns and preaching inflammatory doctrines, 3,000 communists held demonstrations in Lustgarten yesterday. At 11 o'clock the fiery speeches and threatening songs of the demonstration were peaceful. The speakers advocated seizure of factories, cancellation of debts, and cancellation of war bonds held by the entente. The soviet was praised and the capitalist condemned.

MESS BOY MISSING AFTER $250,000 FIRE CUTS OFF STEAMER

PETALUMA, Calif., Nov. 8.—The mess boy missing following a fire today which destroyed the steamer Gold, the wharf at which the vessel was lying and did other damage totalling $250,000. Fifteen persons were aboard when the fire broke out. With the exception of the mess boy, all reached safely by leaping overboard and swimming ashore.

FARM BUREAU WILL DISCUSS FEDERATION

Whether or not the Umatilla County Farm Bureau will favor the linking of the 18 Oregon farm bureaus with the national Farm Bureau Federation will be decided at a meeting of county bureau members to be held in Pendleton at the county library Thursday at 3 p. m. George Mansfield, Jackson county farmer, Paul V. Maris, state leader of county agents, and Chester Gray, executive committee member in the national federation, will be here to address county bureau members.

CENTURY OLD VILLAGE BOUGHT FOR HOUSING

Scarboro, N. Y., Nov. 8.—(A. P.)—The century old village of Sparta, near here, is now the property of one man. Frank A. Vanderlip, New York banker, has purchased the entire village. It became known today and in order to relieve the housing situation in this section, has announced plans for the erection of twenty modern tenements.

WHEAT GOES DOWN TO $1.84 3-8 ON BOARD

Table showing wheat prices and market data. Columns include Dec, March, and various wheat grades with their respective prices.

FORMER RESIDENT OF COUNTY PASSES AWAY

John Campbell, formerly of Cold Spring, died last night at the home of his son, Scott Campbell, on Gale Creek, near Innes, Ore., according to a wire to local friends from the son, received today. The funeral is to be held Tuesday afternoon from the family home here.

OWENS BREAKS DOWN AS BANGROFT DIES

SALLEM, Ore., Nov. 8.—Rev. P. N. Adrich, chaplain of the Oregon state penitentiary, last night sent to W. Z. Bancroft of Denver a Bible which was the consoling companion of his son, Emmett, during the few weeks preceding his execution here last Friday. Bancroft was hanged for the part he played in the slaying of Til Taylor, sheriff of Umatilla county.

TWO CHINESE COOKS INTERRUPTED WHILE PUFFING AT OPIUM

Second Raid for Narcotics Made in Fortnight by Federal Officers Yields Elaborate Smoking Paraphernalia.

Lee Jin and Sid Shung, two Chinese cooks, were arrested Sunday in a Chinese house on Garden street between Alta and Court, while enjoying the smoke of opium. Officers from the United States department of justice, narcotics department, made the arrests, assisted by Officers Myers and Scherer and Chief Roberts of the local police force.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR TO DISCUSS LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(A. P.)—Jules Jusserand, French ambassador, who went home several months ago on leave, is to return to Washington on November 24. He is expected to bring with him the latest views of his government regarding the re-constituting of the League of Nations covenant and to be prepared to discuss the subject with the officials of the Harding administration as soon as they are in office and ready to proceed.

SOCIALIST AND GERMAN RADICALS CELEBRATE

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—(A. P.)—The left wing independent socialists joined with the German communists yesterday in commemorating the anniversary of the Russian revolution. The demonstration brought 15,000 to the Lustgarten, opposite the former imperial palace, where the orators lauded a world revolution and the demonstrators cheered for the third international.

FARMER-LABOR PARTY STARTS 1924 CAMPAIGN

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—(A. P.)—Parley P. Christensen, candidate for president on the farmer-labor ticket, told an audience at the labor temple here yesterday that his organization was already making plans for the 1924 campaign and that he expected to be its standard bearer. He said that as a means toward educating the public and also toward financing the campaign, the party would immediately embark in industrial enterprises, starting its work in southern California by buying hides, erecting and operating a shoe factory and selling the output through its own stores.

STANDARD OIL MEN MEET IN SESSION HERE

Standard Oil agents from various oil stations in Oregon and Washington, and company officials from Portland and San Francisco, gathered at the Commercial Association Saturday for the largest Standard Oil meeting ever held in Umatilla county.

JAPANESE MAY BE EXEMPT IN ASIATIC LAWS

Treaty Providing Exclusion From Discriminatory Legislation Under Consideration by State Department. Would Apply to New Ruling in California

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(U. P.)—A treaty under which Japanese may be excluded from American laws discriminatory to aliens is being considered at the state department. It is reported here today, such a pact may be one way of meeting Japanese protests against the new California law prohibiting ownership of land by Japanese and other Asians.

PRESIDENT AT WORK ON FINAL MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(By I. C. Martin, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—President Wilson, preparing his final message to the final session of the sixty-ninth congress, which begins on December 6. The president has not told anyone whether he will mention the peace treaty and league covenant in the message. It is understood that it would be devoted mostly to domestic matters and will contain recommendations for legislation to reduce the price of living.

'ANGEL FROM PARADISE' REALLY WANTED TO BE IN THE MARINE CORPS

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 8.—(U. P.)—"An Angel from Paradise" really wanted to be in the Marine Corps, said a young man to Marine Recruiting Officer Erskine. "S—That so," stammered the officer. "Well, I'm old Saint Peter and if you'll wait a minute I'll have you measured for a hat and a pair of wings. Now what's your real name?"

BOYS' CONFERENCE COMES TO CLOSE AFTER SESSION OF SONGS, TALKS AND TOURS

The Northwestern Oregon Older Boys' Conference held here last week end came to a close last evening with a union meeting of all city churches, young peoples societies and conference delegates at the Methodist Church. W. W. Dillon acted as chairman of the meeting.

TENANT WAVES WICKED WASHBOARD ON DENVER APARTMENT PROPRIETOR

DENVER, Nov. 8.—(U. P.)—Tenants of apartment houses owned by Charles Howe are still paying the old rent rate, thanks to Mrs. Mary Pickering and her washboard. Howe, according to Mrs. Pickering, recently raised the rent, promising it would be the last hike this year. He announced a $5 increase a few days ago.

CROWDS TRAVEL MILES TO MEET HARDING SPECIAL

Despite Effort to Take Rest and Front Page Comment, President-Elect is Called to Talk at Dozen Stations. Senator Nears Spot of Intended Vacation

ABOARD HARDING SPECIAL, Nov. 8.—(By Raymond Clapper, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—President-elect Harding is today nearing the most southern tip of Texas, where he will spend 10 days fishing and golfing. The senator's daily program will be fishing half of each day and golfing the other half. Despite Senator Harding's effort to avoid speeches enroute, he has made a dozen already. It was difficult for Senator Harding to keep within Sabbath proprieties yesterday, so insistent were Texas crowds at every station. Many had apparently motored long distances and parked their automobiles around each station for machines were covered with the bright red clay of eastern Texas.

RELIEF WILL BE SENT TO ICE BOUND VESSEL

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—(U. P.)—Plans to send a relief expedition to Banks Island, off the Alaskan coast, in an attempt to rescue five men ice bound aboard the famous Arctic steamer Polar bear, are being made today by the H. Liebes Company, owners of the vessel.

SIX WAR VETERANS TO JOIN RED CROSS ROLL CALL PLEA

Clark, who served overseas with the Y. M. C. A. attached to the Rainbow Division and who was with the A. O. G. Dr. Fred Lueddell, who will on Armistice Day be presented with a Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous bravery under fire; Earl Williams, who served overseas; Roy Rittner, captain of Red Cross in France; Ernest Crockett, wounded overseas veteran; and Rev. J. M. Corneillon, who served in France with the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Clark will open the speakers' schedule with a talk tonight at the Alta.

Weather

Reported by Major Lee Moorhouse official weather observer: Maximum, 42. Minimum, 22. Barometer, 29.85.

Weather forecast section with a small illustration of a person and text detailing the forecast for tonight and Tuesday.

LIQUOR LAWFULLY ACQUIRED MAY BE KEPT IN SAFETY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(A. P.)—Liquor lawfully acquired by a person for personal use may be stored in a place other than his home under a ruling of the supreme court today on the appeal by William G. Street, of New York, who had stored liquor in a room leased from a safe deposit company. The court held that the law did not prohibit such storage.

NINE HUNGER STRIKERS REACH NINETEENTH DAY

CORK, Nov. 8.—(A. P.)—The condition of the nine remaining hunger strikers in Cork jail is reported today as precarious. Although this is the nineteenth day of their strike the emaciated prisoners are still refusing food.