99 VOTES WERE CAST BY PEOPLE OF UKIAH

(East Oregonian Special.)
UKIAH, Nov. 8.—The election passed off quietly last Tuesday and 99 votes were cast during the day, an unusually large vote for this precinct. The dedication dance given in the new hardware building last Saturday night was a grand success. Excellent music was furnished by Jinks Howard, violinist, and Arthur McRoberts at the piano. A large crowd enjoyed the dance and music. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell and son of Pilot Rock visited the last of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlin. Geneva Huston, formerly of Ukiah but now of Pilot Rock, came up Friday evening to spend the week end with her grand parents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Huston and also to attend the dedication dance at the J. H. Wagner hall. She returned to Pilot Rock Sunday evening. Sturdivant Bros. sold a fine span of young horses a few days ago to Mr. Stiles of La Grande. Mrs. J. W. Sturdivant and son Carl left Wednesday for Stanfield to remain during the winter. Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell left Wednesday for Portland to remain for an indefinite time as Mrs. Caldwell will undergo an operation for goitre. Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson and daughter Nellie will leave in a few days for Garnett, Kansas, where they will spend the winter with relatives, expecting to return in the early spring. Frank Gilliland left the mountains Wednesday with his sheep for his ranch on Butter Creek for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlin spent Wednesday night on their home-stand on Camas Creek. Marie Mettler came in from Butter Creek Saturday where she is teaching to attend the dedication dance. She returned Sunday afternoon. Miss Leila Turner of Los Angeles, who has been visiting her mother and other relatives for the last six weeks, left Ukiah Thursday morning to return to her home in California. J. W. Terry who has been at the Ness ranch during the summer, left Thursday for Pilot Rock. Arthur Gilliland and Miss Quetta Melchior of Butter Creek were married in Walla Walla Oct. 27 and have returned to Ukiah where they will make their future home. Arthur was born and raised in Camas Prairie and is well and favorably known and his many friends wish them a long and happy life. Rev. B. F. Harper, of Freewater, held services at the church, morning and evening on Sunday, Nov. 7. Miss Tassie Metcalf of Butter Creek is staying with Mrs. Arden Gilliland and going to school.

Wall Street

The nerve center of the financial world, so-called Wall Street, means nothing more or less than the various exchanges and banks which are located on or near Wall Street. The necessity of such a center is the securing of funds necessary for the carrying on and development of the country as a whole. It is not merely a brokerage business, for it includes the whole financial district; the large banks, trust companies, general offices of nearly all large industrial and railroad corporations, the N. Y. Clearing House, the Chamber of Commerce, nearly all the large insurance companies, the Stock Exchange, Cotton, Coffee and Produce Exchanges and many of the large export and import houses.
