

People Here and There

Mrs. Mary Lane, first regent of the Umatilla chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, rode in one of the D. A. R. cars in today's parade beneath the most historic flag in Pendleton. The old relic floated to the breeze in New York city from the home of the late Rev. Henry Dixon Jones the day the United States declared war against Spain. Mrs. Jones kept the flag and during the recent war hung it at the East Oregonian office. Mrs. Lane, who well remembers the Civil War and whose relatives were officers in the G. A. R., gave the local chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution its name. She was succeeded as regent by Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell, who was in turn succeeded by Mrs. Sylvan Cohn, the present regent.

Rex Ellis and Rudy Moliner slipped away from the Elks dance in time last night to board train No. 4 for Baker. This afternoon they are enjoying the game between Baker and Pendleton high schools on the Baker field. From a perusal of the facts, it is assumed that Mr. Moliner will enjoy the better more than Mr. Ellis, for the latter is umpire and, with two teams of scrappy youngsters to keep calm, will have a day's work.

Not since he enlisted in the U. S. navy during the war days has Don Robinson visited the University of Oregon. Don enlisted before finishing his sophomore year and shipped to South America and way points. He left this morning for Eugene where he will attend the University of Oregon Homecoming.

R. O. Draper, commercial teacher in the high school, left with his family this morning on No. 1 to spend the holiday in the west end of the county.

Mixed by their comrades in Kit Carson post of the G. A. R. which was represented in today's parade are the late John Gurdane and the late James A. Drake, Civil War veterans who in October headed the last bugle call. Both were wounded during the fight which saved the Union. They were keenly interested in the recent war.

Fred Cranston of Baker, was a business visitor in Pendleton on Wednesday and returned to his home there last night.

Indian Observes Holiday Early. Wilkins Williams, a reservation Indian, was arrested last night by Officer Charley Myers on a charge of being drunk. After spending several hours in jail friends deposited $10 bail for his release.

the face of strong opposition upon the part of a considerable portion of the established wool trade, so vigorously took up the matter of building a wool scouring plant in Pendleton, that E. Y. Judd and T. E. Fell associated with local sheepmen established the Pendleton Wool Scouring plant and later the Pendleton Woolen Mills, which enabled Pendleton to take business from Portland and The Dalles and made Pendleton the leading wool market of the Northwest.

Purchases Dock.
For a number of years, under Mr. Fell's successful management, the Pendleton Scouring Mill paid handsome dividends to its owners and contributed much to the ability of sheepmen to obtain relatively higher prices for their wool here than elsewhere. This continued until soon after Mr. Fell sold his interests here, when interior freight rates were so adjusted to meet water competition at Portland, that Pendleton was unable to hold its advantages for scouring wool in transit.

The Western Wool Warehouse Company has purchased the deep water dock of the American Marine Iron Works, adjoining which a large warehouse will be erected enabling it to permanently take advantage of low cost water transportation to the Atlantic Coast.

WILLIAM FARNUM IN HEART-STIRRING PLAY
Those who love to see William Farnum in heart-stirring drama have a treat in store for them in the coming of "Heart Strings," a William Fox production, which will open an engagement at the Arcade Theatre today.

A love story of unusual theme and great merit, "Heart Strings," like its name, is said to play upon the emotions of humanity, to make one forget self in the alluring beauty of the scenes. It is a story of hope deferred; of poignant sorrow; of sublime love. Abounding in tense situations, the plot is unfolded in a series of stirring scenes—for the most part depicting life among the beauty-loving French Canadians. The star portrays the character of Pierre Fournel, a marvelous violinist and composer, who gives up his great ambition and search for fame for the sake of a weakling sister.

The strong cast includes such well-known players as Gladys Vernon, Betty Hiltner, Kate Blanche, Paul Cassady, Robert Cain and Rowland Edwards. Henry Albert Phillips wrote the story, E. Lloyd Sheldon made the scenario, and J. Gordon Edwards directed the production.

VILLAGE BURNED DOWN IN 'MAN TRAIL' LAST ACT

Essany completed its work on the six-act photoplay, "The Man Trail," adapted from the recently published novel by Henry Owen, by burning down a whole village. It was a "reel" village, however, and was built especially for scenes in this picture at "The Pines," at the mouth of Dead river, near Waukegan, Ill. It consisted of two score houses for the logging camp officials, several large bunk houses for the lumberjacks, a large office building, stores, bar rooms, gambling places and dance halls. The powder house was fired and blew up, scattering burning boards in all directions. The other buildings quickly caught fire and the village was reduced to ashes in two hours. The flames could be seen for miles around and attracted 5,000 persons from Waukegan, Chicago and the surrounding country. "The Man Trail," featuring Richard C. Travers and June Keith will be seen at the Pastime Theatre today.

See the Lalley FIRST

The much talked of quality electric plant—Lalley Light—is on exhibition at our store. You are cordially invited to come and see it in practical operation.

See the beautiful bright, steady electric lights it provides, and at the same time note the supply of ample electric power to operate a water system, a milking machine, cream separator, churn, pump, grinder, grind stone, washing machine, sewing machine, vacuum sweeper, iron, fan of any other electrically driven domestic appliance.

See the electric plant that has an established record of ten years' actual daily owner use in thousands of farm homes throughout the world—a record that proves it to be in a quality class by itself.

Built like a watch, yet simple and durable in construction, every part of the Lalley is fitted to the fraction of a thousandth of an inch or smaller, which is about one-fourth the thickness of a fine human hair. Every single part, even the nuts, screws and bolts, is individually inspected for fit, strength and accuracy.

If it is inconvenient for you to call now, drop us a card or call us by phone and we will send you the Lalley folder "Be Sure." This folder will help you judge for yourself, the money-saving features of Lalley Light.

ALTA TODAY NEW OLIVE THOMAS PLAY IS SPLENDID PRODUCTION

A play of rare scenic splendor, of deep emotional moments, of stirring dramatic incidents, finely acted and superbly directed is the new Selznick Picture, "Olive Thomas," starring charming Olive Thomas at the Alta Theatre tonight.

The role of "Flotsam," in which Miss Thomas is cast, is totally different from any which she has thus far essayed. Flotsam is a rugged little sea waif, the daughter of a lighthouse keeper, whose life is spent on a lonely reef in the Atlantic. No place here for the gorgeous creations of the French modistes that the fair Olive has heretofore shown to such advantage, and yet she never before has been more charming nor made a greater appeal.

Many spectacular incidents and extraordinary scenic effects are embodied in the picture and in the matter of realism Director Ralph Ince has gone far beyond any previous effort.

A cast of notable players appear in support of Miss Thomas, chief among them being Huntley Gordon, Mary Coverdale, Louise Prussing, John Snellie, Cyril Chadwick and Edward Ellis.

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with backache, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reasons to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors.

Mrs. Jack Phillips, 711 10th St., Pendleton, says: "My kidneys were weak and disordered and I suffered from backache. I had a dull ache through my kidneys and I felt all tired out. My kidneys were disordered and my feet bloated badly. I was so nervous, I would nearly fly to pieces. I was annoyed by headaches and spells of dizziness, too. One of the family told me to try Duane's Kidney Pills and one box relieved me of the headaches, backaches, dizzy and nervous trouble and the bloating went down." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Duane's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Phillips had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

BUCKHECHT

Dress Shoes

Buckhecht Fine Shoes are priced $8.50 to $14

ALL other styles were forgotten when we designed our "brogue" No. 440, but reputation wasn't. There is a quality beneath the fancy stitching, the ornate perforating, the winged tips, the brass eyelets, the swagger mahogany calf, that is worthy of our whole sixty years of fine shoe-making. And our trade-marked solid sole supports the shoe's claim to ruggedness.

Tell us when your dealer doesn't show them and we will endeavor to have you supplied.
