

People Here and There

Comrades met for the first time in 25 years yesterday when Rev. William S. Gilbert was here to deliver the Armistice Day address. Several well known local Spanish War Veterans, members of the old Second Oregon, had not met their chaplain since their service in the Philippines. Among those who greeted their former chaplain were A. O. Carden, J. E. Pinnon, Harry Lovell and Ben Dupuis. Several other veterans here welcomed Rev. Mr. Gilbert but in the interim had seen him.

One of the chief reasons behind the victory of Pendleton high school's football team at Baker yesterday was support. The quantity of support was not great but the quality was there. Both City Superintendent H. B. Inlow and Principal Austin Landreth accompanied the young warriors to the scene of the fray and they returned on No. 5 last night about as proud of their proteges as any two men in town. Inlow extended every hospitality, Mr. Inlow said this morning.

Mamuel Friedly returned from Portland last night after spending three days in the metropolis on business. He came in on No. 4.

J. W. Suleto of Vinson, is in Pendleton today on business. His wife is clerk of the school district in No. 46.

The aches and pains of Hell's people for the past 20 years have been relieved by Dr. John Griswold, pioneer physician of this county. Dr. Griswold arrived here today and this evening will address the boys who are to be guests at the Men's Forum banquet at the Presbyterian church.

It is under the protecting shadow of the Red Cross that Marie Pompon, 12 year old Italian girl, is traveling from Walla Walla to Henrietta, Oklahoma, to join her mother, Marie, wearing around her neck a ribbon with a Red Cross attached and carrying two suit cases bearing the Red Cross stamp, arrived here yesterday from Walla Walla and was met by Miss Virginia Todd, secretary of the Umatilla chapter, who placed the little foreigner on No. 12. The Red Cross representative will meet Marie along the way to Oklahoma and will see that she has the proper care. She is a pink-cheeked youngster with the characteristics of her native Italy, but she speaks English with ease.

Service Cross is Presented.
Dr. Fred A. Lieuallen, winner of the distinguished service cross, was presented with his medal of honor by Major James S. Rosebury, of the regular army. Major Rosebury declared that the D. S. C. is "the only honor that has not been overworked" and said that of all distinctions awarded a soldier he would prefer to win it.

A hearty cheer went up from the throng as the medal, one of two known to have been awarded to Oregon men in the world war, was pinned on the local man's bosom. Dr. Lieuallen responded with a few words of thanks. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lieuallen, of Adams, and Mrs. Lieuallen, were on the platform with him. The doctor wore his overseas uniform, that of captain in the medical corps. The citation accompanying the award was read by the presiding officer.

Dance of Allies Presented.
The closing feature of the program was the Dance of the Allies, presented by the school children of the city under direction of Miss Eva Hansen. The dance was splendidly presented on the platform before the big gathering audience. The participants and outline of the dance follow:

The Red Cross was represented by a float making an appeal for the Red Cross Roll Call which opened yesterday for two weeks.

Mayor John L. Vaughan was marshal of the parade, which moved from the post office to Main, thence to Court and east to the court house. Many lined the streets to witness the procession. YOUTH TRIES TO KILL ENTIRE FAMILY OF 5

NORTON, Kans., Nov. 12.—(U. P.)—Karl Johnson, 17, made an unsuccessful attempt last night to murder an entire family of five at Almena, near here, according to charges filed in the district court here today. He was to receive a fine of $200 for performing the act, according to the alleged confession.

Young Johnson is said to have confessed that Elmer Heiserman, 18, agreed to pay him $200 for killing the latter's father, sister, grandmother, mother and brother. The family was to be exterminated so Elmer could inherit the estate, it was alleged.

Johnson approached a window of the Heiserman home, saw the family seated at a table and opened fire. He fired six shots one wounding the daughter, Payne in the arm, and another struck the grandmother in the neck. After firing the shots, Johnson dropped the gun and ran, but was later captured in Almena.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infests the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface.

One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief.

Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 151 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.
