WEDDING PROVES SURPRISE

Pendleton friends are today receiving announcements of the marriage of Mrs. Alberta Cavender and Osborn Morrow which occurred last evening in Portland, the home city of the bride. Miss Cavender however, spent many months in Pendleton and she was assistant domestic science instructor in the high school here. She visited in Pendleton only a few weeks ago and because of her wide acquaintance here the account of her wedding will be welcomed and the surprise event which accompanied it will prove of equal interest to friends of the other couple.

The Portland Oregonian says, in part:

"A wedding with a beautiful bride and the most attractive little flower girls and all the appointments that go to make up a smart and impressive ceremony, always is interesting, but when to the wedding is added another ceremony, a surprise marriage, unusual importance is attached.

"Such was the marriage of Mrs. Alberta Cavender and Osborn Morrow, solemnized last night in the Rose room of the Benson hotel. For just as the Rev. F. C. Stannard had pronounced these two man and wife, up stepped Mrs. Mary Albee, bridesmaid, and Delbert Stannard, another at-tenant, and, to the astonishment of the majority of those assembled, asked to be wed. Dr. Stannard officiated. Mrs. Robert Treat Platt stood beside her sister as matron or honor and Robert Treat Platt gave Miss Albee in marriage. And then the wedding supper was served and dancing concluded the evening as scheduled with congratulations and best wishes showered upon both Mr. and Mrs. Morrow and Mr. and Mrs. Stannard.

"Alberta Cavender, a lovely brunette was robed in white georgette over silk, trimmed with princess lace. Her veil was becomingly draped. Her bouquet was of orchids and bride roses. Miss Dale Coshove of Roseburg, gowning in yellow tulle over satin of the same tint, was maid of honor. She carried Ophelia roses. Miss May Albee, demure and pretty as a bridesmaid should be, wore a pink gown and carried pink roses. Wilbur Morrow of Seattle was best man. Rivaling the beauty of the bride, the little tots who were flower girls drew admiring glances as they made their appearance. These little ones, Alice and Ann Morrow, Elizabeth Jane Bishop, Jean Allegrani and Catherine Ann Clark were like pink rosebuds of choicest variety in their pink frocks or organdies made over pink silk and hand-embroidered. Side pinnies of ruffles, sashes, veils and close-fitting caps formed part of these irresistible costumes. Thomas Burnmaster Bishop, a manly little chap in a cream serge suit, carried the ring on an old-fashioned nosegay. The bride was given in marriage by her father, A. B. Cavender. Mrs. John Clark played the wedding march and Jack Loder played violin selections.

"Mr. and Mrs. Morrow will live in Medford where the bridegroom has a large ranch and orchard. Osborn Morrow is a member of an old Oregon family. He served overseas, was graduated from Stanford and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Stannard will reside in Portland, where the former is completing a medical school course and the latter is popular among a wide circle of friends.

"A supper in the Tyrolean room of the Benson followed the ceremony and among matrons who assisted were Mrs. Roy T. Bishop and Mrs. Charles H. Marsh, of Pendleton.

AMATO TO VISIT GARDEN CITY

Pendleton folk who attend motor to Walla Walla to enjoy musical or theatrical events will anticipate the concert there Monday of Amato, leading baritone of the Metropolitan opera. Amato appeared in Seattle last night assisted by Miss Kitty Beale, soprano, also of the Metropolitan opera and concerning the event a wire, received this morning by Miss Malen Burnett of Walla Walla, sent the following comment from the Ladies' Musical 'Hub' of Seattle:

"A most enthusiastic audience heeded Amato in a capacity audience here tonight. Amato was in glorious voice and Miss Beale's singing was beautiful. A thoroughly artistic concert."

Amato's appearance in the Garden City Monday will be made at the Key-Grand theatre under the auspices of Miss Burnett who is head of the Malen Burnett school of music in Walla Walla.

MISS BOYNTON IS BRIDE

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Boynton of the marriage in Santa Barbara Wednesday of Miss Gladys Boynton and Charles V. McEwen. Both are former Pendletonians. Mr. McEwen having first come here in the automobile tire business. He returned to his home in Goldendale Washington before going south. His bride is well known among young Pendleton folk and the betrothal announcement made in the spring was the inspiration for much entertaining before Miss Boynton's departure for California.

How Not to Take Cold

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid exposure, over eating, becoming over heated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold, they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

A Timely Suggestion

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Her

A World of Good
"Chamberlain's Tablets have done me a world of good," writes Mrs. Ella L. Button, Kirksville, N. Y. "I have recommended them to a number of my friends and all who have used them praise them highly." When troubled with indigestion or constipation, give them a trial and realize for yourself what an excellent medicine it is.

Good Health

If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular. No one can reasonably hope to feel well, when constipated. When needed, take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are mild and gentle.
