Adapting Orientalism to youthful figures is one of the cleveres Adapting Orientalism to youthtal lightes is one of the treatment things the designers are doing. Here is an example. It is a marvel of color, red chiffon over yellow, and then a lighter yellow used for sleeves. The skirt, being accordion pleated, sends forth kaleidos-copic rays of light and shade, while flowers of gold tissue trailing down over corsage and skirt and a gold cloth turbes of Egyptian persuasion provide an additional totch of the Orientel. rails eased. Total sales, par value, $13,620,000. Old U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

All Grains Crash Down

$1.69 1-40 1.69 1-2. Corn lost 1 1-2 \otimes 2 1-2 and oats 3-8 to 1 1-8c. In provision the outcome varied from five cents decline to 15c advance. General selling started wheat down grade right from the outset with the bears making the most out of unfa-vorable aspects of the business situa-tion. Besides word that the British royal commission and the Belgian government were out of the export market counted a good deal as a special depressing factor. Later there were indications of export business with Italy but the rallies which en-sued did not develop much force. It was not known until after the market closed that the purchasing for Italy was on a large scale, totaling, accord-ing to some estimates, 3,006,000 bush-els, practically all United States rown

Receipts continued light. Corn and oats gave way in sym-pathy with wheat.

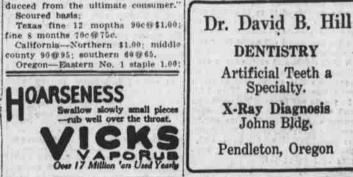

Provisions at first were easier ow-ing to grain weakness, but subse-quently recovered.

Price Readjustments Going Further, Says Bradstreets,

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.-Bradstreet's today says

Price readjustments are going for-ward with, if anything, rather more celerity and these, where accompan-ed by cool, bracing weather, have induced a large distribution of season-able goods, notably wearing apparel. The evidences of improvement are not very broad or very deep and immedi ate needs seem to govern most buy ng.

Briefly summarized, wholesale and jobbing trade is slow to fair, retail fair to slow and manufacture and industry show a further slowing with either an increase of unemployment or an extension of short time in going operations. The camp selling ex-changes inaugurated by large whole-salers and jobbers some weeks ago have met with a moderate degree of success. Weekly bank clearings $5.-448,500,000.
