VICTROLA CONCERTS RESUMED.

Resumption of winter victrola concerts each Sunday afternoon will be welcomed by scores of folk who have enjoyed visiting the county library to spend a quiet hour hearing favorite musical masterpieces or loved melodies, the time preceded or followed perhaps by a bit of reading. Tomorrow will see the first of the 1920-21 affairs.

Well known songs and instrumental music will comprise the victrola concert at the County Library Sunday afternoon. The music commences at three in the main reading room which is open from two until five.

1. Pilgrim's chorus from Tannhauser (Wagner)—Arthur Pryor's band.
2. Irish Love Song (Lang)—Ernestine Schumann-Heineck.
3. Kerry Dance (Molloy)—Ernestine Schumann-Heineck.
4. PB Take You Home Again, Kathleen—Clarence Whitehill.
5. (a) How Much I Love You (La Forge); (b) The Years at the Spring (Beach)—Johanna Gadsdel.
6. Magic of Your Eyes (Arthur Penn)—Frances Alda.
7. Nocturne in D Flat—(Chopin)—Mitsie Siman.
8. Somewhere a Voice is Calling (Newton-Tate)—John McCormack.
9. Gavotte in G (Mozart)—Mitsie Siman.
10. Italian Street Song (Victor)

11. A Dream (Cory-Bartlett)—John Herbert)—Victor Herbert's Orchestra.
12. A Little Bit o' Honey (Bond)—Evan Williams.
13. Just a Wearyin' for You (Bond)—Evan Williams.
14. Humoresque (Dvorak)—Mitsie Siman.
15. The Moon Drops Low (Cadman)—Janet Spencer.
16. From the Land of the Sky Blue Water (Cadman)—Alma Gluck.
17. Higoletto—"Fidelio" Mio Padre"—My Daughter—Freda Hempel—Pasquale Amato.

HOSPITALITY IS UNIQUE.

A gracious welcome and a decidedly enjoyable program at the home of one hostess and a charmingly appointed tea hour at the home of the other, was the unique form of hospitality chosen by Mrs. H. E. Bickers and Mrs. E. P. Tulloch when they entertained the Current Literature Club yesterday.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Bickers in the Bowman apartments, the members, joined by a few additional friends, enjoyed the following numbers:

- English and Irish Drama—Mrs. E. B. Aldrich.
- Reading from and Review of "Lancelot" by Drinkwater—Mrs. J. R. Raley.
- Vocal Solos with violin obligato. "Rose in the Bud," "Hurt no Living Thing"—Miss Mildred Berkeley, Mrs. V. Robinson.

Review of "Play Day of the Western World" by Sygne—Mrs. James Johns.

Reading, Court Scene from Merchant of Venice—Mrs. L. M. Spalding.

The program proved a most enjoyable one and at its conclusion the guests adjourned to the home of Mrs. Tulloch where a light buffet luncheon was served from a lovely table, its central cluster of lavender asters being flanked by tall white candles. At the severance Mrs. J. N. Burgess and Mrs. N. Berkeley presented.

FAREWELL COMPLIMENT GIVEN.

A surprise party which proved indeed worthy of its name, so unexpectedly was it received, honored Mrs. Beryl Buffington yesterday when she was called to the home of Mrs. Frank King, at 709 Jahn street to be greeted by a host of friends, most of them members of the Degree of Honor, Mrs. Buffington's departure for Texas to reside and in the affair yesterday was a gracious "bon voyage" expression from the folks, and to supplement it, charming tokens were given the honor guest. On behalf of the organization, Mrs. Walter Jones presented her with a handsome gift of cut glass and Mrs. Robert Brown, captain of the degree staff gave her a great cluster of pink chrysanthemums, while a number of friendship tokens were brought by individual members.

In an informal program, the following numbers were given:

- Instrumental Solo—Mrs. Eugene Lyman
- Vocal Solo—Mrs. Clair Edwards
- Instrumental Solo—Mrs. Otto Nelson
- Reading—Mrs. Cecil Sykes
- Vocal Solo—Mrs. J. W. Tompkins
- Reading—Mrs. Tompkins

A tea hour followed, the hostess being assisted by a committee composed of Mrs. J. W. McGee, Mrs. Lee Brown, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. L. S. Farley. Red rosebuds decked the table.

Mrs. E. Lyman, Mrs. Sykes and Mrs. Mary E. Rhodes were additional guests who enjoyed the affair and Degree of Honor members present were Mrs. Kyle Long, Mrs. George Powers, Mrs. William Dale, Mrs. J. W. McGee, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. J. E. Pinson, Mrs. M. A. Ferguson, Mrs. Otto Nelson, Mrs. Ray Hutsell, Mrs. Lee Brown, Mrs. Charles Conroy, Mrs. Farley, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Everett Allen, Mrs. X. E. Bowman, Mrs. M. A. Ross, Mrs. P. C. Peterson, Mrs. J. H. Fluke, Mrs. C. W. Goodman and Mrs. Tompkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Buffington expect to leave Pendleton the first of the week, motoring to Portland en route to their home in Texas.

GUEST SAKE HONORED.

A delightful event last evening took place at the John Peters home, Logan street, where a group of friends were hidden to meet Mr. and Mrs. Claus Johansson who are guests here from their home in Illinois and are en route to California to pass the winter months. The affair was a surprise to the honor guests. Dinner was served and the evening was spent in a delightfully informal way, some of the guests having brought needlework and others devoting the hours to music. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Claus Johansson, Mr. and Mrs. August Kuyers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eggers, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hindemann, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Heyden, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Breding, Mr. and Mrs. Henner Rhode, Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hudeman, Mrs. Hermann Roehlk, Mrs. Meta Rohde, Mrs. Hanna Suhl, Mrs. Gus Miller, Mrs. Annie Ruther, Mrs. Louis Mueller, Mrs. J. SHE'S KISSING HERSELF!

NEW YORK—This fair maiden is kissing herself. Photographers declare this is the most remarkable double exposure ever made. The heroine of the movie are twins and the script calls for the kiss. One actress plays both parts. The photographer arranged the matter. From right to left in the picture, Corinne Griffith and Corinne Griffith.
