NEWS OF PENDLETON'S POPULAR BARGAIN SHOP

Our CAMPAIGN OF PRICE REDUCTION has met the approval of the careful shoppers. This is being evidenced by the extra heavy trade we are enjoying.

One of our customers heaved a great sigh of relief when she saw the sign "Gingham, 15c."

S. O. S. is the best aluminum cleaner on the market. It is a pink aluminum soap contained in six steel wool pads and comes 6 pads in a carton for 39c.

When you hear some one speak of good, quick, courteous service from pleasing, alert salespeople just think of The Bargain Basement.

If the kiddie cries for a doll don't feel as though it would "break" you to buy one. You can always buy DOLLS in the B. B. at "more than reasonable" prices.

Our advertisement of Good Warm Blankets of full double width at $3.87 nearly cleaned us out. We sold 49 blankets in 35 minutes. Going some we'll say. There are still a few left.

When Old Man H. C. L. stares you in the face just think of the B. B. where there is a big bin piled high with children's winter hats and caps, all marked 49c.

One of our B. B. patrons had a "Guessing Contest" with her friends and neighbors several nights ago. They guessed on the price she paid for her pretty dress. The guesses ran all the way from $45.00 to $65.00. She had paid exactly $27.99 for it in The Bargain Basement.

"Why don't you name it The Department of Pleasant Surprises?" this came from one of our regular patrons who said that she never entered this Bargain Shop but what she was most pleasantly and agreeably surprised with an abundance of
