MISS CAMERON BRIDE-TO-BE

An interesting wedding is scheduled for Wednesday when Miss Josephine Cameron, former Pendleton girl, will become the bride of Gus Mallory, the event to take place in Portland, the Cameron's present home. The service is to be held at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eleanor Cameron, in Irvington.

Mrs. R. W. Fletcher, Miss Georganna Fletcher, and little Florence, Eleanor and Billy Fletcher departed on No. 17 today to be guests in Portland for the event.

Mrs. Fletcher is a sister of the bride-elect. The Cameron family for many years made their home in Pendleton, residing on East Alta Street and the coming wedding is of interest to many friends here.

WIDOW PREFERRED TO MEET DEATH AT HOME

"For many years I suffered from stomach trouble. All the doctors I tried helped me but little. All said I would have to go to hospital and be operated on for gall stones or I would not live much longer. I told them I preferred to meet death at home. One day I picked up an advertisement of Max's Wonderful Remedy and since taking a course of it more than a year ago have not had a single pain in my stomach, have good appetite and can eat anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Druggists everywhere.

BIRTHDAY IS HONORED

With a former Pendleton matron as hostess a recent affair in La Grande will interest local friends. The following note appears in the La Grande Observer:

Mrs. J. T. Richardson was the clever hostess at a party given in honor of Harley H. Richardson's birthday. The guests were seated around a beautifully appointed table. The whole home breathed with the atmosphere created by the huge bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums. An enjoyable social evening followed the delicious dinner.

NEIGHBORS MEET TONIGHT

At 7:30 o'clock tonight a short business meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will be called, for a social affair is scheduled for the following evening hours. Members are asked to Eagle-Woodman hall and as soon as the items of business are disposed of, they will be guests of the guards with Mrs. Thomas Robertson as captain. Arrangements for a program and refreshments foretell an interesting affair.

DEGREE OF HONOR TO MEET

The Degree of Honor is to hold a regular social session in Union hall, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A short business meeting will precede the affair so that membership cards may be balloted upon. Initiation is to be held the first meeting of next month, Wednesday, December 1.

Mrs. Carrie Dale, captain number three, and members of her division will be tomorrow's hostesses.

BETROTHAL MADE KNOWN

A betrothal recently made known is that of Miss Esther Shea, former Pendleton girl, to McKinley Helm, the engagement culminating a college romance. Both were students at the Oregon Agricultural College where Miss Shea was a Kappa Alpha Theta member and Mr. Helm a Sigma Nu. The betrothal was announced during a recent visit of Miss Shea in Corvallis.

TRYONS RETURN HERE

Pendleton friends will be delighted to welcome Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tryon who have returned from Portland after an absence of the past several years. They are now domiciled at their home 608 Lewis street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lieuellen, and sons Paul and Francis Lieuellen, were guests in Pendleton this morning en route from their home in Adams to Portland. They departed at noon and will go to California, hoping the sojourn in the south will benefit Mrs. Lieuellen's health. They will pass the winter months at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Pierce arrived in Pendleton on No. 17 yesterday after spending a month with friends near Encampment, Wyoming. While there they enjoyed fishing and hunting in the Rocky mountains and on their return they visited in Denver, Salt Lake City and King Hill, Idaho.

The Supreme Quality of the Davenport Is Its Sense of Comfort

Davenports were purposely designed to be more than decorative. Their principal attribute is one of utility—COMFORT.

We have spared no effort in our diligent search of the country's market to secure for you davenports which most graciously combine utility and style.

Special covers may be had to conform with the other furnishings of the room in which you anticipate placing the coveted davenport.

Whether you choose the handsome mahogany and red, or the deep, roomy overstuffed davenports, you will find immense comfort in one of these.

There are luxurious chairs and rockers to match, if you wish them.
