AMATEUR STANDING UP FOR SETTLEMENT AND CAREFUL DEFINITIONS

Amateur Athletic Union Fixes Status of Persons Taking Part in Contests With Awards, Coaching for Pay.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 16.—(A. P.)—The names of three candidates had been announced last night in the contest for president of the Amateur Athletic Union in annual session here. The election will be held Tuesday. Those in the race are Robert S. Weaver, Los Angeles; Herman Oberstussling, New York, and Harry W. Fitzpatrick, New Orleans. The name of William S. Haddock, Pittsburgh, also has been mentioned.

Sharp discussion preceded the adoption of the recommendation of Chairman Bartow S. Weeks of the legislation committee, that army and navy athletes be permitted to compete under amateur athletic union auspices without registration. The amendment carried with it a requirement that service men be registered by the army and navy to insure their amateur standing.

The convention added a clause to the amateur rule providing that participation in any compensation of award contest as an official would impair amateur standing. It also decided to leave to local associations the determination of the question involved in the proposal to extend to high school players the summer baseball rule applying now to college men.

FORMER COAST PLAYER LOST AT LAKE CHELAN

SEATTLE, Nov. 16.—(A. P.)—Jimmy Miller, former Pacific coast league ball player, has been missing for two days in the mountains on Coyote creek, 15 miles from Lake Chelan, and about 55 miles north of Wenatchee according to advices received here last night. Miller went hunting with Ed Conners of Chelan and when he failed to return a searching party was organized. No trace of him had been found late Monday.

HEYDAY OF SPITBALLERS ENDED WITH 1920 RACE

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(By Henry L. Farrell, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Stan Coveleskie, Cleveland's star Pole pitcher, had just batted his way through a wild crowd of jubilant fans into the club house.

He had just won his third game of the world's series and pitched the Indians into their first world's championship.

The fans were acclaiming him the "greatest of the great."

A fan rose from a seat back of the press box, stretched and said rather wisely:

"Well, Cov, they oughta give you a big hand. It's your last game."

It's true. Coveleskie is through. He'll never pitch another game like that. Neither will Burleigh Grimes, king of the National League hurlers and another star of the series.

They are through unless the major leagues reverse their ruling abolishing the spit-ball this year.

When freak deliveries were put under the ban last winter, the moguls gave the spit-baller pitchers a season to develop other deliveries.

Coveleskie tried early in the season to get along without the "spitter," but he was unsuccessful. He wasn't effective with a curve ball and was forced to go back to his forte.

Urban Shocker of the Browns and Jack Quinn, of the Yankees are in the same boat.

Bill Doak, of the Cards, Fillingim, of the Braves and Phil Douglas of the Giants will have to go along with Grimes in the National League, if the rule is not revoked.

Rather than lose such valuable pitchers, it seems probable that the club owners will seek to have the rule amended.

President Heydler, of the National League, has maintained that there isn't a chance to save the "spit-baller."

During the last season campaign was conducted among the players to have the rule changed.

It was suggested to bar newcomers with the "spitter," but to permit those pitchers now using the moist delivery to continue it until their career ends.

One club owner in each league is said to be ready to come to the aid of the "spitters" at the winter meeting of the major leagues.

SECOND TEAM ROMPS AWAY WITH VICTORY OVER HERMISTON HI

Pendleton's Scrubs Take 13-7 Win From Reclamation Boys in Saturday Contest on Grounds at West End Town.

Pendleton high school's second team proved masters of the situation in a close football game at Hermiston Saturday and won, 13 to 7. The local lads were taken to the west end in charge of Harold Goedecke, tackle on the first eleven.

Ben Shmonon, playing one of the halves for the scrubs, made consistent gains with the ball and was responsible for the first score. He alternated with Charley Snyder and Stonebreaker in advancing the pig skin against the Hermiston line.

Both teams scored in the first quarter and the winning score for Pendleton was put over in the second quarter. Both teams battled back and forth in the second half without any score, although the Pendleton backs frequently advanced the ball against their heavier opponents to within shooting distance.

Alternate gains by the backs in the second quarter put the ball close enough for Stonebreaker to buck it over the line. Hatton kicked goal after the first touchdown but failed on the second.

Until Byron Warner, halfback, was removed from the game on account of being knocked out, no first string men played. Charley Cahill, first team end, had to be substituted at halfback on account of there being only 11

TALK ABOUT dime novels,
THEY SENT Jim down.
TO TEXAS to investigate,
SOME OIL wells there,
WHICH THEY might buy,
IF JIM said O. K.
AND HE was to report,
BY WIRE in secret code,
NOW—ENTER the villain,
A SLIPPERY crook,
GOT WIND of it,
AND TRAILED Jim down,
COPIED OFF his code,
AND BRIBED a boob,
IN THE telegraph branch,
SO THE crook could get,
THE EARLIEST word,
AND CORNER stock,
AND WORK a hold-up.

IT LOOKED like easy coin,
BUT JIM got wise,
AND THREW away his code,
AND WHEN he sent,
THE FINAL, dopa,
HE FOILED the villain,
THE MESSAGE just said,
"CHESTERFIELD,"
AND HIS directors knew,
THAT ALL was well,
WITH THOSE oil wells,
FOR OIL men know,
THAT "CHESTERFIELD" means,
"THEY SATISFY."

YOU'LL know you're "struck it rich" when you discover Chesterfields. You'll say "they satisfy." A wonderful blend—the pick of Turkish and Domestic tobacco—put together in the Chesterfield way—that's why "they satisfy." And the Chesterfield blend can not be copied!

scrubs along. Later in the game Lawrence Warner, also a first team end, played quarterback. They did not figure in the scoring.

The lads from this alfalfa country were heavier than the locals but lacked the science which work under Hanley has given the Pendleton lads. It was the only full game for the scrubs and they returned home elated at winning for "Coach" Goedecke.

The Pendleton squad started the game as follows: Ends, McCutley and Henderson; tackles, Fletcher and Laine; guards, Johnson and Hatton; center, Lawrence; quarterback, Snyder; halfbacks, B. Warner and Simon; fullback, Stonebreaker.
