WALLA WALLA CLAIMS RIGHT TO BATTLE FOR STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Like Pendleton High, Garden East Side Schools; No Opponent for Locals Signed.

While Pendleton high school is laying claim to the football championship of Eastern Oregon, its neighbors, Walla Walla high school, are putting forth a similar claim in Washington. The Wa-Hi claim is validated, the Qarden City scribes may, because of the fact that players used by both high schools in Spokane have been ruled ineligible and are thus deprived of the right to battle for the state title. Pendieton has advanced a claim for the right to compete for the Oregon championship, but thus far no opponent has been obtained. Washington high of Portland, which has trimmed everything interscholastic in the Rose City, declined a post-season game with the locals. Instead, their squad will journey to Anaconda, Montana, for a same on Thanksgiving with Hollis, Huntington's team.

Lost to Lewis & Clark Walla Walla lost to Lewis & Clark bigh, of Spokane, 7 to 0, and tied with North Central 7 to 7. Both games have been thrown out of the count for have been inform out of the count for east side honors, because of eligibility rulings, however, Walla Walla says. Hap Miller's Vancouver team, win-ners on the west side of the mountains, are to be Wa-Hi's opponents in the state championship game Thanksgiving day. The former Washington halfback and captain has developed a regular young Doble team in the Co-lumbia river city and has won every same so far played. No one western Oregon team has stood out far ahead of the others so far this season and picking a game with any of them for a state championship contest will be a matter of chance it is believed here. Pendleton has thus far a clean record and granting that in defeats La Grande, which fell to Baker before flaker lost to Pendleton, will which recently played Harva have won six games. Two of these the Center basket ball spuad.

have been with Washington teams and only The Dalles, east of the Cascades, has not been scheduled. Hood River scored on The Dalles but was shut out by Pendleton.

Friday Game to Be Good Friday's game with Waitsburg, while it will have no bearing on Pendleton's claim to the championship of Eastern Oregon, is expected to be a hard fought contest. Coach Hanley realizes that he will have to drive his men every inch of the way in order to win from the Columbia county huskies, City Squad Stand at Top of They combine beef with considerable Test Side Schools: No. On, playing ability and the fact that they aspired to meet Everett high stamps them as hard-boiled.

The Friday contest will not be call-ed until 3:15 and the boys promise to be on the ground for the contest as it is no small expense to transport a football team these days even 100 miles. There are striving for whole hearted support from the town folk and the brand of football they have been providing thus far merits patronage, they believe.

Your Mouth Is a Gate

"Life seems to be just one disease after another." --Painless Parker.

Many diseases start from de-cayed and infected teeth. The mouth is a gate through which millions of germs enter the stomach. The teeth and mouth need constant care to maintain health. If you don't take time how to visit the dentist and have your teeth looked after, you will out each. It costs less to hire a dentist
