DAILY MARKET NEWS, LOCAL AND GENERAL

Including Pendleton Prices and Associated Press Reports

Thanksgiving turkeys are retailing for 45 cents a pound, in local poultry shops. The price is approximately the same as was charged last year. The birds are cheaper here than in Portland where the retail price is from 55 to 60 cents. Thanksgiving fowls are plentiful and the stores are showing many birds. Producers receive 39 cents a pound for turkeys. Spring chickens and hens, also very plentiful, bring 18 cents a pound to the producer. Veal brings from 10 to 15 cents a pound. Eggs are retailing for 85 cents a dozen and the same price is paid to the producer. Ranch butter brings the producer $1.20 a roll.

Reactionary Price Trend Features Wednesday Market. NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The reactionary trend of prices on the stock exchange Wednesday in which many leaders cancelled a substantial part of their recent recoveries, suggested that financial conditions imposed further revision of quoted values.

Dealings were much smaller than on any previous day of the week for which Thursday's holiday was probably responsible. The confidence manifested by the short interest, however, evidently had its justification in the ease with which the market receded.

Money conditions remained easy with an abundance of call loans at 5 per cent and more liberal offerings of time and purchases of merchants' paper, but industrial and commercial advances merely confirmed the growing conviction of an inevitable slackening of trade. Further cancellations of merchandise were referred to by banking interests as one of the evils confronting the domestic business situation and the sharp decline in imports of luxuries threw an interesting sidelight on the attitude of the buying public. Steel mills reported more cancellations on finished contracts and sales of copper for home consumption were made at 14 cents, the lowest price in years.

Heavy Selling Pressure Leads to Price Break

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Heavy selling pressure, a good deal of it ascribed to a leading New York trader, led to a severe break Wednesday in wheat prices. Reports that 300,000 barrels of flour without financial backing had been vainly seeking a buyer at Philadelphia were made much of on the part of the bears. The market closed unsettled, 1-3-4 to 1-1-4 net lower, with December 1-59 1-2 to 1-60 1-4 and March 1-54 3-4 to 1-55. Corn lost 1-8 to 2-1-2 and oats 7-8 to 1-1-4. In provisions the outcome ranged from 15c decline to 82 advance.

In addition to reports of distress in the flour trade at Philadelphia, the wheat market was before opening confronted by news of downturns in stocks and cotton, as well as by word of a bank failure in one of the richest agricultural counties in Illinois. Sentiment which yesterday favored the bull side, reversed itself entirely and there was a general rush to unload wheat that had been recently purchased. Before the declines were ended March delivery was down again to the minimum reached on Monday, the season's lowest point. Export buying of large proportions developed on the break and caused a little recovery in the late dealings.

Corn and oats sympathized with the weakness of wheat. Elevator interests however, helped steady the market through extensive buying of December and May corn.

In provisions, demand from packers largely counterbalanced the effect of hog weakness. Besides November delivery of lard appeared to be greatly wanted by shorts.

Thanksgiving

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY.

As we close our doors for the day we do so with a full realization of the meaning of this National Holiday, purely American.

As an institution probably no other organization in the country has greater cause to be thankful. The confidence of countless thousands of people reflected in their steady patronage in 26 different states makes possible the greatest growth of any retail corporation in America.

We in the Pendleton store feel a special obligation to our community for the splendid patronage that put this store in September at the head of the list in volume of sales for the entire chain of 297 busy Penney stores.

Both the rank and file of Penney men and Penney customers, we think, are thankful for a man of such keen foresight and steadfastness of purpose as our founder and president, Mr. J. C. Penney. The former for the opportunity offered to men of unquestionable character and industry to work out their own destiny and become partners in this great organization. Our customers for the straight forward "Golden Rule" policy that has characterized our business plan since the inception of this Company eighteen years ago, giving dependable merchandise at the lowest possible cost under market conditions of all kinds.
