Four Couples Get Licenses

The Wednesday afternoon rush at the county clerk's office was for marriage licenses. Four couples who desired to spend Thanksgiving day in wedded bliss were accommodated with the necessary papers on the clerk's desk before 10 o'clock.

ton: John W. Crow and Mildred H. Bowman, of Pendleton; Byron Moll and Ethel Wells, of Nolia, and Edward F. Lanning and Myrtle Leitha Herman of Pendleton.

Second Member of Family Hit

Alex Cochran last night met injury at 26th and Alta, street, by being struck by an auto, less than a week after his son, Ralph Cochran, had been badly injured when Ray McCarroll piloted his machine into him. The elder Cochran stepped in front of a machine driven by Henry Schull and suffered bruises and cuts. No blame for the accident was attached by bystanders to either party.

Bowers Takes Scholarship

Russell Bowers, of Pendleton, has made application for a free scholarship in the Y. M. C. A. school for automobile mechanics in Portland, Cash Wood, county Y secretary, announced today. Mr. Bowers is the fourteenth former service man in the county to take advantage of the scholarship offered by the organization. He was gassed in service and has been unable to follow his former occupation of fireman with the O. W. R. & N. Co., since returning from the service.

Case Ordered Dismissed

The case of Dunham, Brownlow & Payne vs. Barney Oldfield, et ux, was ordered dismissed from the circuit court today.

Has Tonsils Removed

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Snyder is a patient in St. Anthony's hospital where her tonsils were removed today.

Is Patient in Hospital

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Buiste, of Pilot Rock, had her tonsils removed today at St. Anthony's hospital.

Club Gets Additional Light

A glass door, designed to furnish additional light to the quarters of the Pendleton Commercial Association, was installed at the entrance to the association offices this morning.

One Drank Over Thanksgiving

There was but one case of drunkenness reported to the police court this morning. John Doe, arrested last evening by the police, put up bail of $10 and forfeited by his non-appearance for trial this morning.

Services Well Attended

The union Thanksgiving services held yesterday at the Christian church were well attended by local people. Rev. Alfred Lockwood, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, gave an inspiring address. Mrs. James Hill sang a solo, and music by the congregation was led by Joseph N. Scott.

Rain Delays Seeding

There is yet considerable seeding to be done in Umatilla county and the rain is seriously delaying the same, say farmers. Should a heavy freeze occur, quite a bit of acreage would necessarily be left until spring. The coming of cold weather is feared as it was at this time last year that the low temperatures occurred.

Rain Is Heavy

Rainfall in Pendleton last night and today was very heavy, the total reaching half an inch. There was a heavy downpour last night and again today. The maximum temperature today is 49, with a minimum of 46. The barometer registers 29.36, which is indicative of continued storms, says Major Lee Moorhouse, official weather observer. The rainfall last night was the greatest in 24 hours during the month.

Meeting to Be Held

A Farm Bureau meeting will be held at Columbia tonight. The meeting, the first in a series, is for the purpose of rounding up the work of the past year and outlining the coming work. Frank Waugeman will preside. Henry Sommerer, Henry Ott and F. P. Phipps will report on the work under their direction. J. F. McNaught, of Hermington will explain the idea of the American Farm Bureau Federation and of the State Federation. The matter will be considered by the Farm Bureau members.

Traffic Cases Numerous

Four traffic cases were on the books of the police court today as a result of a little added vigilance in the police department. H. C. Vogler, Jr., driving a Washington car, was fined $5 for having left his car in the main street parking strip with the engine running. Bob Jones and John Doe forfeited bail of $2 each on charges of parking their cars on the wrong side of a street. A. J. Ashman paid a fine of $2 for parking his 1,215 pounds, the biggest ever dis-car over the white lines on Main street.

Big Cheese Shown

A mammoth cheese is on display in the window of Gray Brothers Grocery. The big cheese weighs 415 pounds. In former years the grocery has secured huge cheeses from Pennsylvania, but this year the cheese is a "William product, bought under the slogan "Oregon Products First." The cake of cheese displayed by the store last year was a Cheddar and weighed

MEET FOR HOLIDAYS

Miss Madeline Burgess, a student at the University of Washington, and Ralph Burgess, who is attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, went to Portland Wednesday to join their mother Mrs. J. N. Burgess who departed Tuesday evening after a visit in Pendleton. Mrs. Burgess is spending the winter at the Mallory in Portland and her son and daughter planned to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with her.
