RETURNS FROM WALLA WALLA.
Mrs. J. A. Drake returned this morning from Walla Walla where she spent Thanksgiving with relatives.

MISS HERMAN IS BRIDE.
Among Thanksgiving weddings was a service performed at 3 o'clock yesterday which united Miss Myrtle Letta Herman and Edward P. Lanning. Vows were exchanged at the home of the bride, 715 Railroad street, and Rev. R. L. Hussabarger, pastor of the Christian church officiated.

Josephine Hugel and Ed King attended the couple. The bride was a lovely picture in a gown of filmy white, and she carried a great cluster of white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Lanning are to make their home in Pendleton where Mr. Lanning is in business.

MARRIED AT NOLLA.
An attractive country home near Nolla was the scene yesterday of a marriage service at which Miss Elizabeth Wells became the bride of Byron Kell. Rev. R. L. Hussabarger of the Christian Church of Pendleton, officiated and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Wells, brother and sister-in-law of the bride were chosen as the couple's attendants.

The home of the bride where the ceremony took place, was a room with early winter flowers. Miss Wells was attractively attired in a traveling costume, with hat to match, and she wore a corsage bouquet of rosebuds. A dinner followed the wedding and the couple motored to Pendleton in the afternoon, taking the evening train for western Oregon for a short trip.

ELKS DANCE DELIGHTFUL.
The ballroom of the Elks temple, rich in its decoration of royal purple and dotted with great clusters of Japanese chrysanthemums and primroses, afforded a handsome foil last evening for the rain-soaked guests of scores of matrons and maids who drove away the final hours of Thanksgiving day as guests of the Elks lodge. The affair, an annual one, marked the first of their formal events to be given in the new home and the place, with its completeness of charm, added immensely to the gracious display of hospitality. Flower baskets topped pedestals which at intervals, bordered the dance floor, and one corner offered an inviting punch table.

Downstairs supper was served and the guests recessed their program of dances by a chat around tables in the attractive dining room. The event hunching formal functions of its also on Pendleton's 1920-21 social calendar, was wealthy in detail and perfect in appointment. The committee of Elks which sponsored the affair included George Hartman, Dr. Fred Leudlen, Glen Storie, Robert Simpson and Nat Kimball.

The informal dance program of the lodge will be resumed with an event scheduled for December 14.

MISS ROWMAN IS BRIDE.
Thanksgiving was chosen by Miss Harriet Mildred Bowman and John W. Crow, Jr. as their wedding day and vows were exchanged yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the Christian Church, Rev. R. L. Hussabarger officiating. The couple was unattended but Miss Leona Bowman, sister of the bride, Mrs. John Crow, Sr., aunt of the groom, and Elmer Crow his brother, witnessed the exchange of vows.

The bride chose a traveling suit of brown duvety worn with a hat of brown beaver and cloth of gold. Her bouquet was a corsage cluster of white baby chrysanthemums and maidenhair fern.

The couple departed on No. 17 for Portland where they will make an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Crow is an attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowman and her husband, a well known young farmer, is a nephew of John Crow, extensively interested in Umatilla county wheat land.

THANKSGIVING BRINGS REUNION.
One of the most charming and unique of Thanksgiving affairs was a reunion yesterday of the Montgomery family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Albee, of Helix. Mrs. Mary A. Montgomery, mother of the family, and Mr. and Mrs. Albee being hosts.

All of the seven children of Mrs. Montgomery shared the event and John D. Leck, of Lynd, Washington, a brother of Mrs. Montgomery was also a guest. A delightful Thanksgiving dinner was served, the table appointments developing a dainty motif of yellow, with chrysanthemums nodding from their central cluster. Covers were laid for twenty including Miss Mattie Montgomery of Helix, Thomas G. Montgomery of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Montgomery of King Hill, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Albee, Robert Montgomery of King Hill, and Mrs. Dan Howard of Portland.

GUESTS ARE WELCOMED.
Thanksgiving guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale were H. H. Dale, of Pratt, Kansas, father of Mr. Dale.

WAS ONLY JOKING!

E. E. PENZEL
POPULAR BLUFF, Mo.—Next time E. E. Penzel, newly-elected state senator, runs for election, he will not promise, even in joke, to get married if the women will elect him. In a campaign speech he said he had two aspirations in life; one was to go to the Missouri Senate, and the other was to acquire a wife. After his election he was swamped with proposals. "But," he cried, "I was only joking!"

CASCARETS

"They Work while you Sleep"

"All In"? You're bilious, constipated, upset! You feel headachy, full of cold, dizzy, unstrung. Your meals don't fit—breath is bad, skin sallow. Take Cascarets tonight for your liver and bowels and wake up clear, energetic and full of pep. No griping—no inconvenience. Children love Cascarets too. 10, 25, 50 cents

DATE, AND MR. AND MRS. T. M. COOK
and son Randolph Cook of Helix. Mr. Cook is a cousin of Mrs. Dale. Dinner was served at 2:30 o'clock and the table was prettily arranged with typical Thanksgiving appointments.

STUDENT VISITS AT HOME.
Miss Maxine Stanfield arrived Wednesday evening from Walla Walla, where she is a student at St. Paul's school, and was joined here by her mother, Mrs. Ralph Stanfield. Together they returned to Echo where Miss Stanfield spent Thanksgiving and will remain over the week-end.

LEAVE FOR PANAMA.
Mrs. C. S. Jackson and grandson Samuel have gone to Panama. They were passengers on the same ship on which President-elect Harding and Mrs. Harding sailed. Mr. Jackson is remaining in Baltimore for the present.—Morning Oregonian.

MRS. WOOD HERE FOR VISIT.
Mrs. G. C. Wood, of Cass City, Mich., arrived here today on No. 17 for a visit of two weeks at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cash Wood.

MARRIED IN PORTLAND.
Of interest to local people is the marriage of Miss Vivian Gibbs, formerly of this city, to Dr. Bruce Brace, 1119 East Twenty-eighth street north, Monday evening. Their marriage followed a romance which began while the bridegroom was attached to the staff of St. Vincent's hospital. Miss Gibbs was a nurse in that institution. The marriage service was read by Dr. and Dr. Bruce T. Brace took place at W. T. McElveen of the First Congregational church.

Loses $400,000 in Gems

NEW YORK—Police and detectives here are searching for nearly a half million dollars' worth of gems and jewelry stolen from Mrs. Charlotte King Palmer, wealthy divorcee here. The thieves first bound and gagged the house servants after they had answered the doorbell, believing their mistress wished entrance, and then, awaiting Mrs. Palmer's return, seized and gagged her also before stealing jewels she wore, worth $400,000.
