

TWELVE PAGES SECTION TWO PAGES 9 TO 12

East Oregonian

TWELVE PAGES SECTION TWO PAGES 9 TO 12

DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON. FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 26, 1920.

OREGON LOSES WHILE WASHINGTON STATE IS WINNER BY ONE POINT

Southern California Runs Up 21-0 Score Against Lemon Yellow; Cougars Overtake Nebraska in Final Period.

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—The University of Oregon football team went down to defeat at the hands of the University of Southern California, playing on Tournament field here, but it was a fight to the final whistle. The score: U. S. C. 21; Oregon, 6, was all earned points and while most of the game was played in Oregon territory, there was not a moment that U. S. C. could slacken either defense or onset.

A crowd estimated by the game management at about 25,000 persons was gathered under a cloudless sky, in a temperature that militated against Oregon, used to a cooler climate and a heavier field. The northern visitors never succeeded in forcing the ball over the needed yardage for downs and their gains were nearly all made by kicking. They did not complete a forward pass while the Trojans succeeded with two, one netting the last touchdown.

There was small choice in line strength, neither team being able to gain consistently by smashes, although the Trojans forced the ball through on downs several times. The interference was less evident than the strength of the teams would have led the spectators to expect. Many times runners had no protection and especially when backfield men stopped kicks.

W. S. C. 21, Nebraska 20. LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 26.—By the scant margin of a single point, Washington State college of Pullman, Wash., defeated Nebraska on the football field in a game that wound up the local season. The final score was 21 to 20, and it pretty accurately measured the strength of the two slayers. It was a hard fought, clean-cut battle, with the result in doubt from the kick-off until the final whistle blew. Outplayed at the start by the heavier Nebraska men, Washington spurred and before the game was 10 minutes old reversed the early showing.

Nebraska's initial touchdown came within the first four minutes of actual play. A forward pass by Washington was intercepted by Fullback Dale, who made a clean catch, and dodging the tacklers shifted left end, shook off interference and with splendid interference ran 50 yards for a touchdown. Day kicked an easy goal, and Nebraska spirits rose high. Then came the surprise, Washington state which had been expected to play the open game, settled down to hard straight football. Starting from the center of the field, the westerners never paused in their straight march down the field until Gillis went over for a touchdown and Shandan kicked the goal.

The fourth period brought the fireworks. Nebraska, apparently a little over-confident and a mite careless, gave Washington the opportunity their gritty end men had been waiting for. Reversing the former style of line plunges, they put on an exhibition of forward passing and short end runs that fairly dazed the bulky Nebraskans, and when the aerial passage of the ball failed to quite carry them over, Sax Melver and Gillis were on hand with the necessary punch to drive the well drilled march ahead.

Bealek Team Cannot Score. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—The Pennsylvania State college football team, favored to win over the University of Pittsburgh, was held to a scoreless tie by the Panthers at Forbes field. More than 25,000 persons, the largest crowd in the history of the field witnessed the battle, which was a fight to a standstill from the start until the final whistle. Neither Penn State nor Pitt have been defeated this season.

Dobie's Crew Walloped

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Battling in a sea of mud, the University of Pennsylvania defeated Cornell 25 to 6. A dreaching rain failed to drive the crowd from the stands. Cornell was able to advance the ball fast midfield into Philadelphia's territory but once during the game and presented a ragged defensive. The Red and Blue line was impragnable and succeeded in blocking the three Cornell kicks.

Colorado Aggies Champs

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—The Colorado Agricultural college clinched the championship of the Rocky Mountain conference yesterday by defeating the University of Denver in a spectacular game, 14 to 6. The Aggies scored two touchdowns in the final period.

JACK JOHNSON LOOKS GOOD IN TWO MATCHES

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Jack Johnson, former heavy-weight boxing titleholder, made his first ring appearance in the United States since he fled his native country 11 years ago when he met two opponents Thursday afternoon as a feature event of a boxing show staged in the open air at the federal prison. It was the general opinion of newspapermen and boxing critics that Johnson in his good condition still retains much of his cleverness and punching power. Johnson knocked out Frank Owens, negro of Chicago, in the last round of a six round bout, and after a few minutes intermission, took on "Topeka Jack" Johnson, also a negro, for four rounds. "Topeka Jack" was badly outboxed.

WHITMAN 7, WILLAMETTE 0

SALEM, Or., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—In a spectacular game on Sweetland field the Whitman College football team defeated Willamette university, 7 to 0, Tilton making a touchdown after a series of end runs in the first 16 minutes of play. Whitman's total yardage was 135 and Willamette's 142. In the last half Willamette made 18 yards to five by the Missionaries. The Walla Walla team outweighted Willamette.

PEWTER CROIX DE RING IS HANDED TO JOHNNY KILBANE FOR EVASION

He is Undisputed Champion at Sidestepping Bouts at All Weights and Conditions Says United Press Sport Man.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—(By Henry L. Farrell, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—In these days of non-fighting champions, Johnny Kilbane, historic expert and erstwhile Cleveland politician, wins the pewter "Croix de Ring."

He's the undisputed champion of all weights and classes at avoiding ring engagements. Heading through the small-time circuits with a spade-ville act in which he dances, sings and plays a violin, the featherweight champion of the world has no ear for offers of Tex Rickard and the challenges of a pair of first class contenders.

The champion told the writer during the bout the fans were unanimous in something like this—"That De Foe is a real boy. We want to see him some more. Wouldn't he make a mess of Kilbane?" De Foe was unable to get a fight in his class in the middleweight and he had to mingle with lightweights and welterweights. Rickard is having the same trouble in getting the featherweights of the east to go against him. Andy Chaney is another good boy. Bogs around here and confident he would finish the champion in a fifteen-round go to a decision. Eddie Mead, Chaney's manager, caused a lot of amusement recently with a novel advertising stunt to force the champion into a fight.

He spread broadcast notices, bearing the picture and description of Kilbane and offering $1000 for his "capture." "One thousand dollars will be paid by the undersigned (Eddie Mead) to any person who captures Johnny Kilbane and delivers him into the hands of Andy Chaney in any ring of the United States," the notice read. Kilbane has run away with the featherweight title of the world, which is public property and is known to be hiding "somewhere in vaudeville" at the present time.

Many Dog Champs Heed. "Kilbane is about 5 feet, 6 inches tall and weighs in the neighborhood of 140 pounds. His hair is fast turning white from worry to which Chaney has subjected him; his left ear is slightly cauliflowered and his nose bears testimony to the punches which have bounced off it. Kilbane is a very natty dresser. He has a penchant for brown suits and always wears a brown velvet hat. A fraternal pin is worn in the lapel of his coat. He wears a large diamond in his left ear and another on the fourth finger of his left hand."

For the good of the game, Kilbane should retire and pass on his crown if he doesn't want to give other boys the chance that he was given. It is easily understood why the champion is not as keen about boxing as he was when he was laying the foundation of a bank account that now must be close to $250,000. He is now independently wealthy and while he is making out very little money out of the ring his title as champion is helping him to cash in on a vaudeville act.

Kilbane refuses to make weight for anyone and this may be the one big reason why he refuses to come to New York. It is becoming an accepted belief that he cannot make the weight of his class under any conditions.

Sure enough, the old bus went back on me

IT WAS a whale, OF A hill and the old bus GROANED AND shuddered, AND FINALLY stalled, AND YOU could fry eggs, ON THE radiator, WELL, WHAT I know, ABOUT BUZZ wagons, COULD be written big, ON A postage stamp, BUT I fiddled around, AND TORE my new shirt, AND GOT all smeared up, THE ENGINE would start, BUT LIZZIE wouldn't, NOT ON that hill, SO I quit and lit up, ONE OF my cigarettes, AND THOUGHT it over.

OHIO WILL COME WEST. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Ohio State university last night definitely accepted an invitation to play a football game at Pasadena, Cal.

BECHER GETS DECISION. CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Charley Becher of New York, received the Judge's decision in a 12-round bout with "Butch" Brandt of Brooklyn Thursday. Brandt substituted for Earl Puryear, who failed to appear.

Delicious Food for Every Meal. The housewife that is careful and economical comes to our store. She knows that when she buys from us she is getting fresh, pure food and that the prices are right. We have the reputation of dealing only in reliable goods and she depends on our knowledge to supply her with the best in the market. Come in and you will benefit by our experience as well. Standard Grocery Co. 230 E. Court St. Phone 96. C. L. Bonney, Pres.

Fine Residence on North Side. Will sell or trade for farm lands, business property, stocks or bonds. If interested address, Post Office Box 582 Pendleton, Ore.

KOEPPEN'S PRESCRIPTION DRUG STORE. A. C. Koeppen & Bros. The Drug Store That Serves You Best.

Most Sensational Play

NEW YORK—Eastern football experts are unanimous in the opinion that the most sensational play they have witnessed this year was that which resulted in Princeton's first touchdown against Eli Yale on Nov. 13. Here's a diagram of the trick play which Tad Jones, Yale coach, and Ted Coy invented years ago to help defeat Princeton and then forgot it. Lourie and Keck resurrected the fake sick play in the recent clash of the rivals and used it against the Elis successfully, making the defeat of the Bulldog all the more bitter.

He spread broadcast notices, bearing the picture and description of Kilbane and offering $1000 for his "capture." "One thousand dollars will be paid by the undersigned (Eddie Mead) to any person who captures Johnny Kilbane and delivers him into the hands of Andy Chaney in any ring of the United States," the notice read. Kilbane has run away with the featherweight title of the world, which is public property and is known to be hiding "somewhere in vaudeville" at the present time.

Many Dog Champs Heed. "Kilbane is about 5 feet, 6 inches tall and weighs in the neighborhood of 140 pounds. His hair is fast turning white from worry to which Chaney has subjected him; his left ear is slightly cauliflowered and his nose bears testimony to the punches which have bounced off it. Kilbane is a very natty dresser. He has a penchant for brown suits and always wears a brown velvet hat. A fraternal pin is worn in the lapel of his coat. He wears a large diamond in his left ear and another on the fourth finger of his left hand."

For the good of the game, Kilbane should retire and pass on his crown if he doesn't want to give other boys the chance that he was given. It is easily understood why the champion is not as keen about boxing as he was when he was laying the foundation of a bank account that now must be close to $250,000. He is now independently wealthy and while he is making out very little money out of the ring his title as champion is helping him to cash in on a vaudeville act.

Kilbane refuses to make weight for anyone and this may be the one big reason why he refuses to come to New York. It is becoming an accepted belief that he cannot make the weight of his class under any conditions.

OHIO WILL COME WEST. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Ohio State university last night definitely accepted an invitation to play a football game at Pasadena, Cal.

BECHER GETS DECISION. CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Charley Becher of New York, received the Judge's decision in a 12-round bout with "Butch" Brandt of Brooklyn Thursday. Brandt substituted for Earl Puryear, who failed to appear.

Saturday Specials. Abundant Supply of Fancy Milk Fed Chickens, CRABS, CLAMS, SHRIMP, OYSTERS, LOBSTERS. Beef Boil 8c, Chuck Steak 22c, Beef Stew 8c, ROUND STEAK 25c, Pot Roasts 12 1-2c, T-BONE 25c, CROSS RIB ROASTS 18c, SURLOIN 25c, RUMP ROASTS 18c, Porter House 25c. We have fresh for tomorrow a great stock of tender, fresh Vegetables. Every thing that is in season. WESTON MOUNTAIN POTATOES, SACK $2.25. Sacks average 112 pounds each. Pendleton Trading Co. "If It's on the Maket We Have It" PHONE 455

DARTMOUTH ALL READY FOR WASHINGTON TEAM. SEATTLE, Nov. 26.—(A. P.)—Washington University and Dartmouth college football elevens are ready for their game to be played in the new Washington stadium Saturday, and according to the coaches, no excuses can be offered by either team for defeat. Washington's regular lineup will take the field against the easterners. Coach Allison announced last night. In addition to the regulars, all the substitutes are available and the Sun Dodgers will lack nothing in manpower for the struggle. Coach Spears took his Dartmouth fighters through a light practice Thursday and today both teams will have a final workout on the new gridiron. Dartmouth's reputation for speedy charging and quick turning of its plays has caused the fans to look forward to a fast contest.

Eat More Bread. Bread is the product of the golden yellow wheatfield. The sunlight and sparkle of the open, the fresh air and energy of the wheatfield are packed into one delicious, digestible package of Health and Happiness in every loaf of Harvest Bread. Better Bread cannot be made than Harvest Bread. Try a loaf and judge for yourself. All grocers sell Harvest Bread. PENDLETON Baking Co.