- Dec. 6.—District K. of P. meeting here.
- Dec. 7.—Annual Meeting Round-Up directors.
- Dec. 19.—Sale of Indian land agency.

Season Will Open
Next week will mark the opening of the girls basketball season at the Pendleton high school, according to Miss Eva Hansen, head of the physical training in local schools. Interclass games will be played first, the juniors meeting the seniors next week and the sophomores meeting the freshmen the week following. The winners in each contest will compete for the class championship. Later Miss Hansen will pick the high school team. She has had several letters from out-of-town teams asking for games with the local team, but as yet it is undecided whether or not the Pendleton squad will meet other teams.

Health Program Planned
Miss Eva Hansen, head of physical training in local schools, is at work on a health program to be followed by school pupils. According to Miss Hansen, the keynote of the program is to teach children to live clean, wholesome lives, and there will be nothing compulsory about the program. Examination of children will be confined to taking their weight, height, chest expansion, etc. The drinking of milk with meals will be urged, and children will be asked to answer questions each month regarding their food, their sleep, and general health.

Mrs. Josten Dies
Mrs. Sadie T. Josten died last night at 10 p. m. She was the wife of Harry W. Josten and was 21 years of age. Mrs. Josten was the daughter of John Marjot and was born in Little Falls, Minnesota.

Athletic Club Closed Sunday
Notice has been given members of the Pendleton Athletic Club that their gymnasium will be closed to them on Sunday owing to the Knights of Columbus initiation which will be held in that building.

Two Plain Drunks Today
William Egan and Joe Hunter, charged with being drunk, were found guilty in police court today and fined $10 each. Neither could furnish the money and both were remanded to jail for five days.

Bishop Paddock to Speak
Bishop E. L. Paddock, of the eastern Oregon diocese of the Episcopal church, will be a Pendleton visitor tomorrow and will preach at the church of the Redeemer. Bishop Paddock is an interesting speaker and popular with local people. During the war he served overseas with the Y. M. C. A. forces.

Front Seats Assigned
Umatilla county representatives in the state legislature have been assigned front seats in the lower house by Sam A. Koser, secretary of state. Seats 7 and 8 will be occupied by the county representatives and seat 9 has been assigned the joint representatives from Umatilla and Morrow counties. Seats 1 to 6 will be occupied by the Multnomah county delegation.

Vagrant Gets Seven Days
George Johnson, alias Frank Jones, negro, charged with vagrancy, was fined $15 or seven days in the city jail, yesterday afternoon when tried before Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald. Jones is alleged to have staged several small jobs of late which were not of sufficient gravity to warrant his being held for the grand jury. He had no money and went to jail to serve out the sentence.

Collections Are Scarce
Collection of fines in police court during the present week have been rather unsuccessful, a perusal of the recorder's blotter shows. Fines aggregating $165 have been assessed against men unable to pay and in nine cases defendants have been obliged to go to jail to serve out their sentences at the rate of $2 for each day. Five fines of $10, one of $15, two of $5 and one of $6 were uncollectible this week.

Drives Auto While Drunk
George Billy, a Toppensish Indian, was arrested last evening by Traffic Officer Lyday, charged with driving his auto while intoxicated. He had been removed from the wheel by the squad after coming too near for comfort to some obstructions such as other cars, on the street. He pleaded guilty in police court this morning and was fined $25. Being unable to pay the fine he went to jail on a 12-day sentence.

Superintendent Gets Detained
H. E. Inlow, city superintendent of schools, today received notice that he has been detained by the Board of Inspectors of the Child Labor Commission of Oregon to issue work permits to children. The state law fixes various minimum age limits for children who work, the limits being graduated according to the type of work performed. Employers who desire to employ youngsters must have permits if the children come under the provisions of the law. Mr. Inlow says, and he will furnish permits wherever necessary.

Two Do Library Work
Miss Sabra Nason, county librarian, and Miss Freda Glover, assistant, spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Ferndale school where efforts are being made to make the library a standard branch. Because of the removal of high school students from Ferndale to the Union high school at Milton, Mrs. Victor Chapman has volunteered to look after the Ferndale library. One of the rules is that the librarian be either a junior or senior in the high school. The visit to Ferndale was one of a series made to county branches by Miss Nason and her assistants. Last week they visited the libraries at Hermiston and Echo.

Association Not to Object
Recommendation will be made to Pendleton Commercial Association at its December meeting a week from Tuesday that it do not enter formal protest against the proposed increase in telephone rates here. The request will be made by the commercial relations committee of the association, which yesterday afternoon met with officials of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. to hear the statement of the case. The action of the committee followed receipt of word that the city council had decided to enter protest with the Public Service Commission regarding the rise. This covered the city sufficiently, the committee decided. J. A. Murray and John Cleaver represented the telephone company at the meeting.

Columbia Endorses Federation
The first Umatilla County Farm Bureau branch to endorse plans for a state federation of Farm Bureaus is the Columbia branch which at its meeting last night, went on record as being in favor of a state organization. The plan was outlined by J. F. McNaught, vice president of the Farm Bureau, who heard the plan explained by prominent state workers here November 11. Other business transacted at last night's meeting was the subscription for 50 sacks of rabbit poison for a poisoning campaign of which Henry Ott will be in charge. They decided also to carry on boys' and girls' pig, calf and corn clubs, with Henry Sommerer in charge. The bureau is to carry on wheat demonstrations as a means of encouraging growing of wheat for food purposes. Their project has been neglected because of alfalfa growing. Fred Bennett, county agent who attended the meeting, has ordered some Dickel seed from Idaho for use of the farmers. According to a decision last night, the bureau will hold a poultry culling demonstration December 11 at the E. E. Graham ranch. They voted to send Frank Bedlow to the pruning school to be held in Freewater in December.

Fate Is Undecided
The fate of the experiment station at Hermiston is as yet undecided, says Fred Bennett, county agent. The station must close January 1 if funds cannot be secured to continue the work. Chief of Reclamation Service Scofield will present the matter at the next meeting of congress in the hope of getting funds to support the station.

Held for Selling Alcohol
C. F. Campbell, charged with selling denatured alcohol to two Indians yesterday, was arrested last night and is being held in the city jail. The police have notified the department of justice at Portland and are awaiting word as to the disposition of the case. Campbell is alleged to have admitted his guilt to the police.
