"THE RESTLESS SEX"

The colorful love stories and lavish settings in Robert W. Chambers stories lend themselves well to presentation on the screen. The picture versions of "The Danger Mark," "The Firing Line," "The Dark Star," and "The Fighting Chance" have already met with great success. Now comes the photoplay adapted from one of Mr. Chambers' most brilliant recent novels, "The Restless Sex." Piquant Marion Davies is the heroine and the picture will be on view at the Arcade Theatre for 3 days commencing today.

"The Restless Sex" deals with feminism, but not in a political way. It portrays the insatiable desire of the modern young woman for excitement and a place of importance in the world. The story portrays the romance of a pretty girl of this type.

Ralph Kellard and Carlyle Blackwell are prominent in the large cast supporting Miss Davies. Robert Z. Leonard directed the picture, which is a Paramount.

LOTTIE WILLIAMS IN "A FULL HOUSE" IS PLAYER OF NOTE

Lottie Williams, a popular comedienne well known for years on the stage, has an interesting role in support of Bryant Washburn, Paramount star, in his latest photocomedy, "A Full House," which will be shown at the Alta theatre for 2 days beginning today.

Miss Williams is an actress of exceptional versatility. Beginning her career in vaudeville, she made her debut in drama when she created the role of Ah Mee, the slave girl in "Charles Kenmore Ulrich's Chinese play," "A Celestial Maiden," which successfully toured the Pacific Coast for many seasons. Quitting the legitimate stage, Miss Williams accepted the role of Susie, the maid in "A Full House" and her clever work adds much to the enjoyment of the spectators.

In the story, Susie steals a diamond necklace which has been stolen by a burglar, in order to obtain the reward of $5,000 offered for its return. She might have succeeded had not the house been surrounded by the police, and hiding it in her stocking, she keeps it until the burglar glimpses it and from his place of concealment cuts it out of the stocking.

There are many comical situations in "A Full House" and Mr. Washburn is at his best in the stellar role. Loll Wilson heads a capable supporting company of players. The picture was directed by James Cruze.

ARCADÉ SUNDAY AND MONDAY

WITH A SUPERB CAST "HELD BY THE ENEMY" BEAUTIFUL SCREEN

Another of William Gillette's gems of the American stage will beautify the silver screen when it is shown at the Arcade theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Held by the Enemy" was one of the greatest of American dramas, and in its screen form it is said to be even more vivid and gripping than the play itself.

"Held by the Enemy" is a drama of tense emotions and his vital human situations—a story of love and loyalty and unselfishness, hate and treachery and human passion. It is filled with powerful moments and the underlying theme depicts the triumph of love and devotion.

There are many, big, striking roles in "Held by the Enemy." Lewis Stone, well known New York actor, takes the part of Captain Gordon Hayne. Agnes Ayres, an actress of many accomplishments, was chosen to portray Rachel Hayne, and charming Wanda Hawley plays an equally important feminine part.

Jack Holt, who will be remembered for his work in Tourneur's "The Life Line," and also in "Victory," does his best work in this picture, while Robert Cain plays the heavy with his usual excellent skill. Walter Hiers, the funny fat boy actor, supplies the necessary comedy. Other important players are Josephine Crowell, Lillian Leighton, Robert Browers and C. H. Geldart.

"Held By The Enemy"

with Jack Holt—Agnes Ayres
Wanda Hawley and Lewis Stone

Despite it all, she loved this handsome Yankee captain—loved him though he was an enemy of her beloved Dixie; loved him though her heart was pledged to a soldier of the South.

And when the Southerner, a spy within the Union lines, came seeking refuge at her home, and Blue and Gray met face to face—what happened then?

Come and be thrilled as you never were before by this greatest of all love-melodramas. Picturized on an unprecedented scale, with every member of the cast a famous screen player.
