BOOTH IS ATTRACTIVE

One might offer a reward for the apprehension of any article of miscellany not already called to the colors for one booth which will take its place in the procession of fascinating bazaars tables being lined up for next week-end by the Ladies Aid of the Church of the Redeemer. Shrewd concoits of ribbon, scents and flowers will present a veritable garden of dainty colors, yuletide suggestions, from the practical gift to the more luxurious delight, will appear in gala array, and the "memento bonum" in frivolous novelty will turn them all green-eyed with envy.

These things are being created for the miscellaneous booth of which Mrs. James Johns is chairman. So extensive are the preparations that groups are gathering with paint brush and palette for an evenings task, and even dinner parties have been known to give way to the "bizarre" call of needle and thread.

The humble tea cup has been made chairman of another means of plotting against the callers for all from the highways and byways will be guests of the Ladies Aid for a cup of tea, and once to be a spectator, 'tis rumored, is to be a certain shopper.

MISS LEWIS ARRIVES

Miss Marjorie Lewis arrived this morning from Seattle and is the guest of Mrs. Lowell Kearn.

RETURNS FROM PORTLAND.

Mrs. Magie Mosby has returned home from a month's stay in Portland.

MISS BLACK IS BRIDE.

A wedding of interest took place at 10:40 o'clock yesterday morning when Miss Iva Black became the bride of Oscar Cutler, the service being performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Black, at 291 Lewis street. Pleasing sympathy marked the ceremony. The couple was unattended and vows were exchanged in the presence of only immediate relatives and friends. Rev. G. L. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

The living room where the service was performed, was abloom with yellow chrysanthemums, a charming foil for the bride's attire of electric blue. She chose a becoming traveling suit worn with a small hat of the same color and her bouquet was a cluster of white chrysanthemums.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. The guests who included Mrs. Thomas Hampton and Miss Houser of Echo, besides Mr. and Mrs. Black, adjourned to the dining room where the table was centered by primroses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutler departed on No. 17 for a short journey to Portland and Seattle.

Mrs. Cutler, who until recently was connected with the Hartman Abstract company, is a graduate of Pendleton schools and the possessor of many friends to whom announcement of her marriage comes as a surprise. Although the betrothal had been rumored the couple had made no announcement of the wedding plans.

Mr. Cutler is associated with the state highway commission and is interested in road construction near Weston. He returned to Pendleton after his release from army service. He and his bride are to make their home in Athena.

WILL ATTEND WEDDING

Mrs. Charles Gray departed Saturday for Salem where she is to be a guest this afternoon at the wedding of Miss Marjorie Kay and Hollis Huntington. Mrs. Gray is a Salem matron and a friend of the Kay family. She will return soon to continue her visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Gray.

Miss Kay was also a recent Pendleton visitor, she having been here in September to act as bridesmaid at the marriage of Miss Bula Smith and Herald White. Miss Katherine Wilson of Portland, another of Mrs. White's attendants, is to be Miss Kay's bridesmaid while Charles ("Shy") Huntington will act as best man. The service is to take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon and the couple will leave for Montana where Mr. Huntington is athletic director of the Anconada High School.

DINNER IS ENJOYED.

Among pleasant events of Thanksgiving, one of note was a dinner party given by Pete Sheridan at his farm home on Butter creek. The living room and dining room were attractively decorated for the affair and covers at a well appointed table were laid for eight. Mr. Sheridan's guests being F. B. Swayze, H. Hill, C. J. McNaught and Harry Straw of Hermiston, Asa B. Thompson of Echo, H. M. Moore of Butter creek and E. W. Rhea of Westland.

LODGE WILL INITIATE.

Pauline Rebekah lodge has called a special meeting for Wednesday evening when a large class of candidates will be initiated. The event had been planned for Thursday but because of the expected absence from the city of many of the officers and staff, the Wednesday date was chosen. Refreshments will be served and a social hour will follow the session.

VISITS FROM COVE.

A guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tullis on McKay creek, has been Mrs. C. L. Rowe of Cove, who is Mrs. Tullis' mother. Mr. Rowe accompanied her to Pendleton for Thanksgiving day at the Lester Hurns home but returned Friday. Mrs. Rowe also plans a short visit in Walla Walla.

BUSY BEE CLUB TO MEET

Busy Bee club members are asked to meet tomorrow as guests of Mrs. Wright, 114 Stonewall Jackson street. The meeting will depart from the regular club calendar as Mrs. Wright plans to leave soon for an extended visit in eastern and southern states, where relatives reside.

MRS. BISHOP DEPARTS.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, of Salem, returned to Portland yesterday, en route home after a visit in Pendleton. Her stay here though brief was marked by a number of complimentary affairs planned by way of welcome to the former Pendleton matron.

MRS. SWEARINGEN RETURNS.

Mrs. Thomas Swearingen returned home yesterday from St. Anthony's hospital where she recently underwent

REBEKAHS PLAN BAZAAR.

A bazaar whose proceeds will be used for purchasing music and musical instruments for the children in the Oddfellows' home in Portland, is to be held by Pauline lodge of Rebekahs in the Oddfellow hall here on Thursday, December 2. The affair will be held both in the afternoon and evening and it is expected that articles will be on sale from 2 until 10. At 6 o'clock and following a light lunch will be served in the hall by the members. Other entertainment also will be provided. Articles suitable for Christmas gifts and all the goods which go to make up a bazaar will be offered. All members of the lodge have been requested to offer articles for the sale and the general public has been invited.

FAIR IS MARKED SUCCESS.

Scores of callers were greeted by members of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society Saturday when they were "at home" at an attractively improved tea garden in the Ellis-Schiller display room. The annual church fair occasioned the event and so successful was the enterprise that the sale planned for one o'clock through the afternoon hours. Booths offering every dainty and practical gift of handiwork were lined with Christmas shoppers and interest exceeded all anticipation. Mrs. William Blakely was chairman of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Johns arrived home this morning from Portland where they have enjoyed a several days' visit. The presence of Mrs. Johns was the inspiration for many interesting bits of festivity. The Pendleton folk were guests of Mrs. Johns' parents at the McKenna home on Thanksgiving day. They were also guests last evening of Miss Katherine Stanfield and Miss Mary Johns at the Stanfield home in Alameda.

VISITS IN THE DALLES.

Miss Laura Ross returned this morning from a week-end visit at her home in The Dalles. Miss Ross is a member of the High school faculty.

LEAVE FOR PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Frenzel left today after a visit in Portland.

PAYROLLS PADDED SAYS AUDITOR FOR SHIPYARDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—(A. P.)—That payrolls were padded and government material used in private contracts were charges which William Cash, former traveling auditor for the United States shipping board, made today before the Walsh congressional committee investigating the affairs of the board. In auditing accounts of the Groton Iron Works, New London, Conn., cash testified 3000 errors were found in the payroll. One man, he said, would hold four and five positions simultaneously, each of which would have required 40 to 50 hours a week. In the Alexandria, Va., shipyards, several loads of lumber bought by the shipping board for construction of ships was found to have been turned over to subsidiary companies for use in building houses, Cash asserted. J. M. Hildreth, manager of the Belmont Packing company, testified that bids his company submitted for shipping board work were from 20 to 25 per cent lower than the highest bidder, yet were rejected. Investigation of the rejection, Hildreth said, led to the discovery that the Belmont company was not on the board's "approved list."

PHYSICIANS STRIVE FOR QUARANTINE; DOZEN UP

With 10 families quarantined with smallpox in Pendleton, local physicians are co-operating in enforcement of the quarantine law and have agreed to do everything possible to see that quarantine restrictions are obeyed. Dr. H. J. Kavanaugh, city physician, says that the length of the incubation period is two weeks and that it takes that time to determine whether or not a patient has the disease. He is emphatic in stating that for construction of ships was found to have been turned over to subsidiary companies for use in building houses, Cash asserted. J. M. Hildreth, manager of the Belmont Packing company, testified that bids his company submitted for shipping board work were from 20 to 25 per cent lower than the highest bidder, yet were rejected. Investigation of the rejection, Hildreth said, led to the discovery that the Belmont company was not on the board's "approved list."

KANTLEEK

It Can't Leak, Because It's Made in One Piece

A KANTLEEK is built like a bottle—all in one piece. Most hot-water bottles are made in sections, then cemented together. When cement dries and cracks, the bottle leaks.

Every Kantleek Hot-Water Bag is moulded of pure soft rubber—one continuous piece. No parts, patches, cement. Even stopper socket is moulded in.

And guaranteed for a full two years' service—or a new Kantleek free.

Don't wait until your old bag leaks. Get a Kantleek. Your old one may break open tonight.
