DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON, FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 3, 1920.

THREE HOME CONTESTS WILL FALL TO ONE OF OREGON'S INSTITUTIONS

Schedule Makers Give Eugene One Trip Away While Hard Traveling Will Mark Stanford 1921 Itinerary.

Either Oregon or O. A. C. will have three of their four conference games in 1921 at home, according to the coast conference schedule drawn up at Berkeley this week. Some drafts of the card give Corvallis the annual O. A. C.-Oregon contest, while others give it to Eugene. Inasmuch as the battle was staged at Corvallis this year, it appears reasonable that the scene will be Eugene.

Granting that Oregon plays its Aggie contest at home, it will have three home games and only one away. Stanford is due to come north as a return favor for the game at Palo Alto this year. The date is Oct. 22, the first date for conference games on next year's bill. University of California is billed for Eugene on Oct. 29. Oregon and California did not meet this year so a contest between them next fall will resume relations which have been cordial for the past several seasons. Oregon's fourth coast conference game will be with the University of Washington at Seattle on Nov. 12.

Aggies Open at Home.
The Aggies and Washington open the conference season in Corvallis on Oct. 22. It has been quite a little time since the Sun Dodgers have played in the Aggie town but all members are showing a reciprocal spirit in scheduling games and the Corvallis date is in return for a Seattle game this fall. On Oct. 29 the Aggies journey to Palo Alto to meet Stanford. Not until Nov. 12 do they meet another coast adversary, Washington State being billed to appear at Corvallis on Nov. 12. The annual Oregon game is a week later.

Washington State has only one contest at Pullman on the coast conference bill. Stanford comes north to meet Welch's eleven Nov. 5 in their own back yard. The Cougars open the season against California on Oct. 22 by again appearing on the Berkeley field. They meet Oregon Aggies Nov. 12 and have the only coast conference Thanksgiving date, with Washington, at Seattle.

The new Washington stadium will be the scene of two games, the Oregon and W. S. C. contests, Nov. 12 and Nov. 24, respectively. Washington will play California instead of Stanford in 1921, having chosen Nov. 5 as the date for the annual Bear game at Berkeley. O. A. C. is the other opponent, Oct. 22 at Corvallis. Southerners Play Four.

The southern institutions have four conference games, culminating Nov. 19 when Stanford and California meet at Palo Alto. The Cardinals open Oct. 22 at Eugene, entertain O. A. C. at home the week following, go to Pullman for the next Saturday and then have two weeks to get ready for California. Their traveling schedule is the hardest of any of the members. California opens at home Oct. 22 with the Cougars as opponents. The following Saturday they play at Eugene then return home for the Washington game Nov. 5. Nov. 12 is an open date for the Bears, giving them time to prepare for the annual Stanford game.

In addition to the games listed by the coast conference, the four teams of the northwest will have contests with the northwest conference members while those of the south have U. S. C., Nevada, Utah and the lesser institutions of California to draw from. Several of the colleges are dickering for outside games with eastern or middle western college teams but the institutions of Washington are returning to the time-honored state championship tilt for Thanksgiving day.

ST. LOUISIAN CLINCHES THREE-CUSHION HONOR

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—John Layton of St. Louis clinched first place in the world's three cushion championship billiard tournament preliminary today by defeating Aogie Kieckhefer 59 to 35 in 41 innings. Each had a high run of seven.

WILD TURKEYS LOOSED IN OLYMPIC FOOTHILLS

ABERDEEN, Wash., Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—The county game commission is planning to place a number of pairs of wild turkeys in the Olympic foothills regions. It is believed that the birds will thrive on the wild berries in that region and that wild turkey hunting will soon become a common sport in the Olympic peninsula.

HARVARD SUPERSTITIOUS ONES SEEK OUT CAPTAIN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—Superstitious Harvard students who seek to propitiate the fates in advance of examinations have found a new source of good omens in Arnold Horween, captain of the Crimson football team. The fact that the Harvard leader in the toss of coins for the choice of strategy in football games called the turn in every contest this season and thereby gained the opening advantage in a season of play that included defeats, has caused the undergraduate body to regard him as the arch-priest of Kismet. As a result, students on the eve of examinations ask for a shake of his hand, rub him on the back, or seek his good wishes in the tilt against the academic bugaboo.

CANADIANS OFFER SITE NEAR OTTAWA FOR BIG CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST

Sportsmen Say Guaranty of Quarter Million is Ready and Rickard Will Look Into Proposal in Near Future.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—An offer of the site for the holding of the Dempsey-Carpentier heavyweight championship fight in Canada, was received today by Promoter Tex Rickard. The proposition, from a syndicate of wealthy Ottawa sportsmen, suggested holding the contest at Hull, just across the river from Ottawa, during June. It was stated that $250,000 was available as a guaranty and Rickard was requested to discuss the matter with a representative of the Canadian syndicate.

Rickard said he would arrange for a conference in the near future but that no definite plans had been made for staging the battle anywhere in the U. S., Canada, Mexico or Cuba, providing the principals are given sufficient notice of the site to arrange for proper training facilities. It again was intimated today by the chief promoter that in case it would inadvisable to hold the contest in or near New York City, the match would, in all probability, be staged in London where Carpentier is a great drawing card.

When it was pointed out to Rickard that the existing contract did not cover a ring encounter in Europe, he stated that both manager Kearns and Champion Dempsey had agreed to sign a new contract including such a change. Should the emergency arise it is quite likely that instead of Dempsey receiving $200,000 and Carpentier $200,000, the boxers will agree to battle for a percentage of the gate receipts, which are estimated as likely to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars with the fight staged in London.

PURCHASE OF RED SOX BY SYNDICATE TALKED

BOSTON, Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—Purchase of the Boston American League baseball club will be sought by local interests. Joseph E. Conway, a former president of the New England Amateur Athletic Union, said today that financial men of the city were prepared to open negotiations with H. H. Frazee, the present owner. If consummated the deal probably would result in an attempt to bring back to playing management of the Red Sox William F. Carrigan, world's series leader in 1915 and 1916, who now is a banker at Lewiston, Maine.

The price on the Red Sox club has been set by Frazee at upwards of $1,000,000.

TROJANS WRITE EAST FOR THANKSGIVING DAY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—Notre Dame, Indiana and the University of Nebraska were asked today by telegraph if they would consider a game here on Thanksgiving day next year with the University of Southern California. It was announced tonight by Henry Bruce, graduate manager.

OHIO STATE TURNS DOWN HARVARD DATE FOR 1921

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 3.—(A. P.)—Ohio State last night declined the offer to play the Harvard football team at Cambridge in 1921. The athletic board explained it was because Harvard refused to play in Columbus in 1922.

Coach "Jack" Wiley Thursday put the Ohio State team through its first practice for the game with the University of California at Pasadena New Year's day.
