DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON. MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 6, 1920.

SCORE OF BASKETBALL PROSPECTS START OUT TODAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Coach Hanley Will Endeavor to Turn Out Another Winner in Indoor Sport With Material That Looks Good.

Basketball practice is due to start this afternoon at Pendleton high school with an expected turnout of 20 or more men. Coach Dick Hanley will have charge of the hoopers and will try to drill into championship form a five to represent the local students.

Material on hand looks most promising, say reports from south hill. Most of those who are expected to make places on the team were stars on the gridiron in the season just past and Pendleton is expected to have a hard fighting, fast quintet.

Seven men who played for the locals last year long enough to win their letter are now in school and will be out battling for berths. Several new men, among them Kramer, Stendal and Hanley, are also basketball players and will make a hard fight for places. Jena Terjeson, guard last year and one of the mainstays of the team, plans to leave the game alone while taking a much needed rest from sports.

Forwards Are Flashy

Coach Hanley has a couple of brilliant forward prospects in Charley Cahill and Kenneth Stendal. Both men are fast, aggressive and can shoot from any position. Saunders, Simonson and Housser, of last year's squad, also are forwards who can show up well on the floor.

Dick Lawrence, who held down the center berth last fall, will probably leave the call for that position. He has height and gets around in good shape and if he can show the endurance will be a valuable man. It is believed he will show much greater staying powers than last year as a result of several games at center on the football team this season.

Myron Hanley is almost certain to win one of the guard positions on his record from Spokane, where he was picked last year an all-Eastern Washington choice. Billy Kramer will try to run with him at the other guard. He is a tough man to shake, according to his advance reports.

Things Slicked Up

Several improvements have been made at the high school gym in preparation for the season and capacity houses are expected for the games which will take place after the holidays. A tentative schedule calls for games with Baker, La Grande, The Dalles and Hood River and perhaps a few will be interspersed with nearby teams across the state line.

FOUR OF BIG TEN GET PLACES ON ALL-WEST ELEVEN IN COLLIER'S

Wisconsin and Illinois Given Four Stars Each by E. C. Patterson; Ohio State Has Two and Iowa One in List.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(U. P.)—Four players from Wisconsin, four from Illinois, two from Ohio State and one from Iowa have won places on the "All-Western Conference" football team, picked by E. C. Patterson in Collier's Weekly of December 11.

His choice for first and second teams are:

First Team	Second Team
Carney, Ill.	Belding, Iowa
Scott, Wis.	McGuire, Chi.
Brange, Wis.	Brader, Wis.
Denier, Ill.	Nemecsek, Ill.
Trout, Ohio	J. Taylor, O.
Huffman, O.	Slater, Iowa
Weston, Wis.	Stinchcomb, O.
A. Devine, Iowa	Workman, O.
Elliot, Wis.	Walquist, Ill.
R. Fletcher, Ill.	G. Devine, Iowa
Crangle, Ill.	Sundt, Wis.

Commenting on football in the Western Conference, Patterson says that 400,000 spectators paid between $500,000 and $500,000 to see the conference games. He attributes the success of the season to the interest shown by the fans and makes an appeal on behalf of them to have the players numbered in the future.

"Man for man," he says, "Wisconsin was unquestionably represented by the best team in the conference, but, notwithstanding this, she lost an early game to Ohio State by sheer stupidity on her side and daring brilliancy on the part of Wilce's scrappy eleven."

"Ohio State, the champion, was represented by a team without any outstanding stars, but she had a team where all her men played consistent football from whistle to whistle. Their line work offensively was only fair and defensively it was good, but they proved themselves to be past masters in the forward passing game, with workman shooting and Stinchcomb receiving. Most, if not all their victories, were the result of this passing. Long passes seemed to predominate. Either one of two things; they knew the passing end better than any team in the conference, or they dared to take more chances."

"The conference teams this year were inferior to the eastern teams in offensive and defensive line work. They unquestionably lacked the power and polish that eastern teams possessed, but Wisconsin, Illinois and Ohio State were decidedly superior to the best eastern teams in forward passing."

IDAHO WILL AWARD 13 LETTERS FOR FOOTBALL

MOSCOW, Idaho, Dec. 6.—(A. P.)—Only 13 men will receive the official football "I" for participation in 1920 conference games played by the University of Idaho eleven. The small number of letter awards is thought to speak well for the physical condition of Coach Kelley's coterie of dependable regulars.

Boise and Caldwell, with three awards each, led the remainder of the state in the matter of letter men on the team. Other cities represented include Pocatello, Coeur d'Alene, Genesee, Rupert, Lewiston, Nez Perce and American Falls.

The complete list of gridists who will receive letters follows: Arnold Breabars, Howard Breabars, and J. E. Gowen, Jr., all of Caldwell; J. A. Brown, Frank Brown and Jam Neal, all of Boise; Captain Felix Planting of Pocatello, Herbert Glindeman of Coeur d'Alene, Neil Irving of Rupert, Grover Kyles of American Falls, Pat Perrine of Nez Perce, Joe Whitcomb of Lewiston and Carl Nagel of Genesee.

Giving and Getting

"It isn't what you give, but what you get, that counts."
—Painless Parker.

Cheap suits and hats may suit some people because they can throw them away and buy better, but cheap dentistry often means serious injury to the teeth and health. Cheap prices mean cheap, careless work. In dentistry they also mean suffering, dissatisfaction, humiliation and poor health as well as the expense of having the work done over, if it can be. Often the injury is permanent.

Dental work done under the E. R. PARKER System at a fair price is as good as can be had anywhere at any price. You can't get more by paying more, but you surely will get less if you pay less.

When you think of TEETH, think of PARKER.
