Place Grade on Ash Street.
City Engineer P. D. Hayes today began the work of establishing the grade on Ash street, in the west end of the city, so that property owners there might lay sidewalks.

Permit Issued for House.
A permit was issued by Acting Recorder John Huxley Jr. for a modern bungalow to be built by Mrs. Eliza Dunlap at 413 Pine street. The structure will cost $2000, it is estimated.

Fred Hennion in Hermiston.
Fred Hennion, county agriculture agent, left this morning for Hermiston where he will attend a Farm Bureau meeting and meet with the Hermiston Commercial Association at their weekly luncheon today.

Portland Police Send Money.
The Portland police force today sent to the secretary of the T. H. Taylor memorial fund a check for $74.25, representing the subscriptions of police in the metropolis. This is the first check received for the fund for several days.

Has Illness in Family.
County Judge-elect I. M. Schanper, of Pilot Rock, is spending several days in Pendleton while a member of his family is recovering from scarlet fever. His home as well as several others in Pilot Rock, is quarantined for this disease.

Bridge Painting Delayed.
The painting of Lee street bridge.

which is being done by the city and county, will be postponed until spring so far as the city's portion is concerned. Planking will be laid by the city, however, as soon as bids are opened and the contract for the lumber let.

Early Mailing Asked.
The local postoffice is urging that Christmas packages be mailed early. "Wrap securely, mark plainly and mail early" are the directions given by the office. Early mailing, officials say, is necessary if congestion is to be avoided.

Special Picture at Arcade.
A special navy picture, "The Fleet in two Seas," is being shown today at the Arcade theater. It will be shown tomorrow also. The film was brought here by the local navy recruiting office.

Ben F. Hill Elected.
Ben F. Hill, formerly of this city, now of Walla Walla, yesterday was elected mayor of Walla Walla, defeating Mayor D. F. Powell, candidate for re-election by a two to one vote. Mr. Hill is well known to local people. Mrs. Hill is a sister of Mrs. Royal Savette of this city.

Adjutant Bell Coming.
Adjutant J. Bell, of the Salvation Army post in Seattle, will be in Pendleton Sunday, according to announcement made today by Captain Jennie Conrad, of the local post. He will deliver a lecture to the young people of Pendleton and their parents Sunday night at the Salvation Army hall.

Federal Aid Asked.
The sum of $467,000 is being asked from the federal government for the maintenance of the Umatilla project during the fiscal year. This year only $170,000 was available and the appropriation requested this year is thus much greater. The Umatilla Indian Agency is asking for $2000 this year.

One Case of Smallpox Today.
The home of O. F. Steele, 1601 West Court street, was placed in quarantine today for smallpox. This is the first case reported to the city health authorities since Saturday, marking a lessening in the number of new cases since more strict quarantine rules were ordered by the city council.

Farmers Union in Session.
The state convention of the Farmers Union opened today at Dallas with four delegates from this county in attendance. Casper H. Woodward, of Pendleton and Athena, is official delegate to the session and G. W. Bade, Mark La Hue and W. W. Harrah, officers of the county Farmers Union, have also gone to attend.

Exhibit at Library.
The county library is showing an exhibition of handwork being done in Pendleton schools. It includes work in art, penmanship, commercial art, manual training and home economic departments, and will be open to the public each afternoon during library hours, closing December 10, as a part of the school week program.

John Nolf Dies.
John H. Nolf, formerly of this city, died in Seattle, November 26, according to word just received here. He was 52 years of age. Mr. Nolf is survived by Ed Nolf of this city, Mrs. Brayford and Mrs. Steadker of Seattle, John T. Nolf of Chicago and Fred Nolf of Seattle, with whom he has made his home for the past 19 years.

Re-enlists in Navy.
Alfred Marshall, who served in the navy during the war, left last night to rejoin that unit, having re-enlisted on November 8 with a 30 days' leave of absence. He will report at Portland on Wednesday and next week will join a ship that is cruising to the Hawaiian Islands for duty. Mr. Marshall has of late been employed as an accountant with the Golden West creamery.

Rates Are Fixed.
The per cent of equalized value of taxable property in Umatilla county is $17,484.10, to be paid by this county is $45,521, according to announcement made yesterday by Frank Lovell, state tax commissioner. The property valuation and the ratio assigned this county are higher than in any other county in the state outside of Multnomah.

Bishop Is Mason.
Local Masons are anticipating the visit of Bishop Frederick W. Keator, of the Episcopal diocese of Olympia, Washington, who is one of the few thirty-third degree Masons living on the Pacific coast. Bishop Keator, who comes to Pendleton Sunday and who will preach in the morning at the Methodist church and in the evening at the Church of the Redeemer, is one of the most prominent Masons in Washington and has delivered many Masonic lectures.

Ducks Getting Onto River.
With ponds in the west end of the county freezing over at night, ducks are beginning to appear in greater numbers on the lower river, local sportsmen reported today. There are more northern ducks in than at any time this fall and those who hunted on Sunday not only saw more ducks than usual but got larger birds for their trouble. The ducks are in fine condition now and if cold weather continues excellent shooting is predicted for the lower river.

Rev. Cash Dies.
Rev. H. T. Cash, formerly pastor of the Baptist church in this city, died on Sunday in Portland. Rev. Cash, who was associate pastor of the East side Baptist church, had intended going to church but his death came suddenly, heart disease being the immediate cause. He had suffered from mastoid trouble and his face was paralyzed because of an operation. He was born March 8, 1871, in England and was ordained in 1910 in Oregon City. He was pastor here from 1910 to 1912. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Bertrand, Donald and Seymour and two daughters, Muriel and Marjorie.
