

People Here and There

Patrolman Charley Myers returned this morning from Portland where he was called to testify in the Dock Road trial.

Mrs. Minnie Walker, clerk of Union high school district No. 1, at Helix, was a business visitor in Pendleton Tuesday.

M. L. Jones of Range, a stock raiser in Pendleton today on a business trip. Range is in the Grant county stock country.

Farm bureau and road activities were placed aside yesterday afternoon by David H. Nelson and he boarded the Northern Pacific train for a business trip to his wheat holdings in Western Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman, who live on a farm on Upper Butter Creek, near Gardane, are in the city doing some Christmas shopping today. Mr. Chapman is engaged in the sheep business.

Miss Elizabeth Fo, dean of women at the University of Oregon, is one of the youngest deans in the United States. This is her fifth year at the college. During the war she was granted a leave of absence and went overseas as a Y. M. C. A. worker. Miss Julia Burgess, instructor in the English department at Oregon, Miss Fox will chaperone a group of girls who will go abroad. Miss Fox spoke here yesterday.

A. R. McBroom, who raises cattle in the vicinity of Pilot Rock, is a business visitor in Pendleton today.

G. L. Dunning, county commissioner from Stanfield, came up on No. 24 this morning to join his colleagues in a trip to Helix and transact other official business.

Hugh McCall, cashier of the United States National Bank of Vale, was a business visitor in Pendleton Monday and Tuesday. He also has relatives here whom he visited while in the city.

The swimming pool is empty at Bingham Springs and the summer resort has settled into winter quiet, says William Hoeh, proprietor of the springs, who was here yesterday. He reports that the mountain spot has been experiencing stormy weather with some snow and rain.

The trial of Frederick Rader, for manslaughter, is being attended by R. W. Shaw, a cattle raiser, from the Long Creek country. The shooting of E. E. McCue took place near Long Creek and the principals are both known to Mr. Shaw. He is spending the winter at College Place, Wash., and came over to see the trial and to transact business here.

The fog in Portland last night seemed colder than the frost in Pendleton this morning. S. R. Thompson said. Mr. Thompson arrived here yesterday.

home on No. 24 this morning with packages in each hand and looked as though he had done a bit of Christmas shopping in the metropolis.

Clyde Overby of Baker arrived yesterday for a short visit here with friends and relatives.

Walter Simpson of Garfield, Washington spent the first part of the week in Pendleton visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Marriage License Issued
A marriage license was issued today by the county clerk to Grover H. Keller, of Pilot Rock, and Miss Myrtle May, of Pendleton.

Commissioners Go to Helix
The county commissioners left by auto this morning for the Helix region where they will look over the new road and make some adjustment regarding rights of way.

Sues for $173 Note
The Idaho State Life Insurance Co., today filed suit against Clark W. Frindle to recover on a note for $173, and interest. H. E. Nixon, of La Grande, is attorney for the plaintiffs.

Jordan Estate Appraised
The estate of the late Frank L. Jordan today was appraised at $6524, in an inventory filed with the county clerk. The appraisers were Alonzo W. Knott, W. A. Gilliam and E. G. Horn.

Judgment for $20,000 Given
The Copeland Investment Co., today was given a judgment for $20,000 against H. E. Bartholomew in a decree of the circuit court. The decree gives the plaintiff first lien on one and three fourths sections of land in the Stanfield country and orders the sale of the lands under execution to satisfy the judgment.

Man Held for Boardman
Buck Guayne was arrested by the sheriff's office last night on request from Boardman, where he is wanted for beating a board bill and for larceny. A warrant has been requested from Heppner and it is probable that Sheriff George McDuffie will come here for the man unless he settles within the required time limit.

Start on Cold Springs Road
The first step in the construction of the road from Holdman to Cold Springs landing was taken by the county commissioners today when a resolution was ordered drafted by the district attorney for the highway. The resolution will be introduced as soon as possible so that action can be taken by the February term of the new court and work started in the early spring months. There are $185,000 available from the county road bonding fund for this highway. The committee which was to have requested that the road be built from the Pendleton and simultaneously with work from the Cold Springs end failed to take the request to the county commissioners.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Results of Interclass Games.—The results for the interclass games held in the gym last night were, Seniors 6, Sophomores 19; Freshmen 14, Juniors 15. In the game results the Sophomore class is now in the lead with two wins and no defeats. This evening's games will decide which two classes will contend for the championship. These two teams will play three games to decide the interclass championship.

Tomorrow is Visitor's Day.—Tomorrow will be visitor's day at the high school according to an announcement made today by Austin Landreth, principal. All parents and friends are invited to visit the school at any time tomorrow and see the type of work that the high school students of Pendleton are doing. No programme has been prepared but the visitors will be shown the regular routine of work.

ASPIRIN

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

Warning! Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty-one years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for Colds, Headaches, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Earache, Toothache, Lumbago and for Pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Tablets of Aspirin cost few cents. Druggists also sell larger packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacturing of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

Taking Desperate Chances
It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and leaves the way for the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle? Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the Mother's Favorite

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and effective cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of young children for colds, croup, and whooping cough as it always affords quick relief and is free from opium and other harmful drugs.

When You Are Constipated
To insure a healthy action of the bowels and correct disorders of the liver, take two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. They will not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels, without unpleasant effects, but banish that dull, stupid feeling, that often accompanies constipation.

Mrs. Laura M. Hoyt Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets
"I have frequently used Chamberlain's Tablets, during the past three years, and have found them splendid for headache and bilious attacks. I am only too pleased, at any time, to speak a word in praise of them," writes Mrs. Laura M. Hoyt, Rockport, N. Y.

PENDLETON WILL

in a move to protest against the present high price of gasoline, which was brought about, the letter said, by a shortage which existed six months ago and which now is no longer extant. If necessary, the bureau can go into the gasoline business and obtain fuel here more cheaply than the Standard Oil Co. sells it, the letter said. The bureau expressed no desire to compete with an established company providing just rates can be obtained. The letter was referred to the association's automobile committee.

Grain Show is Talked
Tentative plans for making Pendleton the scene of a grain show for all the northwest, to be comparable among grain shows as the Round-Up is among exhibitions of its kind, were mentioned by County Agent Bennion. The proposed show would occur during the entire Round-Up week and consist chiefly of grains, hay and their products. One feature which is all-pervasive is a grain judging competition by teams from Oregon Agricultural College, Washington State College and University of Idaho.

A resolution, fixing the appointment of the secretary and treasurer of the association, was read and will be voted on at the January meeting. These officers would be appointed by the board of managers instead of by the association, as at present, to hold office at the pleasure of the board and draw a salary fixed by that body. A change in the by-laws will be necessary.

Favor Normal School.
Reports on the recent Citizens' Conference on Education at Portland were made by both W. W. Green, county superintendent, and H. E. Inlow, city superintendent. They told of the recommendation of J. A. Church III, state superintendent of public instruction, for a normal school with its southern and eastern Oregon. The association decided to endorse such a program in the interests of better teachers.

The report of the finance committee, presented at the November meeting, was brought up for action last night but no one was willing to move for its adoption, rejection or amendment so it was laid over until the next month. The light attendance was responsible for the lack of desire to take this important bit of legislation.

Reports of the auditing and finance committee were read and four applications for membership read and acted upon favorably. The new members are: F. H. Hayes, Lester B. Cronin, Donald Robinson and S. F. Bowman.

HEALTH FIRST

and other tests are made to determine whether children are lacking in development. If they are found to be deficient they are advised to take up certain forms of exercise for the improvement of that undeveloped function.

Posture training is one of the most important aims of the school administrators. Children are taught to sit erect and stand erect, to adopt a comfortable but upright carriage, a good step in their walk and maintain a good bearing. The calisthenics and recess periods of the grades are intended to furnish the relaxation and the strength for keeping the erect posture, sitting or standing.

Nutrition Vital Element
Nutrition is considered in the health program. Youngsters who show by their school work or their measurements that they are not up to standard, are interrogated as to their diet. Drinking of milk is encouraged in all homes and a correct diet urged. Food values are taught the children and regularity in eating is emphasized.

Plenty of sleep with fresh air circulating through the sleeping room, is urged for all children. Good air is always sought for the school room. Cleanliness is stressed, and care of the body urged. Children are told of the value of care of their teeth and regular habits instilled in them.

The results of the health program in past years in Pendleton's schools has already shown results. Miss Eva Hanson, physical director for the grades and the high school girls, declares that the Pendleton children are larger and more active than those of the average community. They are as a rule in better health. The Pendleton youngsters are so superior that they exceed all around the measurements laid down in the government tables of measurements for children of stated ages. Miss Hanson has found the excess over the government tables so great here that she is planning to collect her data on local children and strike an average with the government table for future reference in the Pendleton schools.
